

ASHEVILLE DAILY CITIZEN.

By RANDOLPH-KERR PRINTING CO.

THE DAILY CITIZEN, Democratic, is published every afternoon (except Sunday) at the following rates—strictly cash: One Year, $6.00; Six Months, $3.00; Three Months, $1.50; One Month, 50c; One Week, 15c.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1897.

If Tom Holt was in the trust the fact that he pulled out to help him through for governor should do him no good—Durham Globe.

It does any man good to reform. If you do not believe that, try it once.

The plan which the Raleigh ladies memorial association has, of choosing each year the life and services of some general officer as a subject of the memorial day address, is a great improvement on erecting monuments of stone, for it builds monuments in the hearts of the people.

CALVIN S. BRICE says it is his intention to resign the chairmanship of the democratic executive committee. We believe the democratic party can spare Mr. Brice. He was not a success as chairman during the last campaign, and for the next we want, and shall need, the best the party has at its command.

COL. THEODORE A. DOUGLASS is of the opinion that "we have lost more men in active war since 1776 than any nation of Europe." That may be true, but it is also probably true that those losses have settled some questions over which we shall never have to fight again; whereas Europe wars eternally for one idea—more territory, and the map may be changed any day now.

THE CITIZEN'S private advice from Washington are to the effect that as President Harrison advanced to meet Mr. Blaine on the latter's return to Washington, the secretary turned four summers old backward and blew a brick wall down with his hearty breath. The president turned a shade paler, and then, in a whisper, asked Mr. Blaine to remember that the sun-stroke season yet intervened between now and nominating day.

But the newspaper men are peculiar. They will exhaust adjectives over men who patronize them with design, and yet are so jealous of each other that they would rather lessen than magnify their reputations.

CONSIDERING that the editor of the paper from which the above was taken—the Wilmington Messenger—can show all most daily by his own columns that the editors of North Carolina very frequently commend him most heartily, we fail to understand the point of view of his present complaint.

"UNITED STATES MINISTER Egan has received from Capt. Schley, of the United States steamship Baltimore, a full report of the recent attack on the Baltimore's sailors. The report shows the attack to have been brutal and cowardly and to have been made because the men were Americans. Egan will present the matter to his Government, but will not make formal demands upon the Chilean government until he hears from the state department," says a Chili dispatch. The Chilean government has already begun an investigation of the case by arresting more American sailors and acting generally as though it was desirous of getting into trouble.

As to Fitchew's. The Atlanta Constitution devotes a column and a half of its editorial space to answering some misrepresentations by that more kinds of a fool than any other on the face of the earth today—Elliott Fitchew Shepard, of the Mail and Express. Once upon a time a certain man threw a dictionary at another fitchew, but his experience was not such as to commend his example to persons of brains. Besides, in the present case it was not necessary for the Constitution to say anything, as the following from its own editorial shows:

"Here we have a notable instance of the American love of fairness and justice. No sooner did the Mail and Express reach the public than a chorus of indignation and ridicule greeted it throughout the entire north. Not a republican newspaper of any standing allowed it to pass without denouncing it. The American press with one voice proclaimed the lie and damned the liar!" This goes to prove what THE CITIZEN has often said, that the south can be in more profitable business than that of answering northern misrepresentations at such long range, especially since those same misrepresentations are generally contradicted in the same section from which they emanate. Let the Shepard fitchew and all other kinds spill their venom where they will, we do not need to spread the scent among ourselves.

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKS.

Mr. Dorsey Battle, late of the Wilmington Messenger staff, has taken a similar position on the staff of the Star.

Mrs. Joseph Spivey, of Randolph county, gave birth last week to triplets—two girls and one boy—two are living and doing well. Mrs. Spivey, the Greensboro North State says, is the mother of twelve children.

Walker Dawson, a miller at Shelby, has had several disputes with his aggressive wife. She said she "wore the breeches," so he concluded last week to let her wear them alone in her glory. He is a mild-mannered and quiet man. He left home, the Aurora states, and went towards South Carolina.

Raleigh Chronicle: Mr. Cameron Morrison, of Richmond county, at one time editor of the Spirit of the South and a member of the Republican State Ex. Com. has tendered his resignation as a member of the committee on account of a change in his political convictions. He will henceforth be a democrat.

J. W. Yates, Tallahoma, Tenn., writes: "It does me good to praise Botanic Blood Balm. It cured me of an abscess on the lungs and asthma that troubled me two years and that other remedies failed to benefit."

All miserable sufferers with dyspepsia are cured by Simmons Liver Regulator.

WE LEAD.

—Raleigh correspondent Wilmington Messenger: North Carolina has won the honors in the matter of canned vegetables and fruits. An agent of the leading Philadelphia dealers in such goods confessed, after a careful examination of North Carolina products in that line, that he was beaten. The display of canned goods at the exposition is a fine one, and shows great progress in a most desirable and profitable way.

—Gov. Holt yesterday offered rewards amounting to $600 for the capture of a certain party or parties unknown, wanted for acts of incendiarism in Pitt County. Two hundred dollars are offered for the criminals in the case of the burning of the Laughinghouse property, $200 in the case of the Joseph H. Saunders property, and $200 in the case of the J. Bryan Grimes property.

—Justice Fuller, of the newly created United States land court, will leave in November for Denver, Col., where he will sit at the first term of that court. It will be a two weeks' term, and the next one will be held at Santa Fe, N. M.

—The assignment of Mr. Jack Rains, one of South's largest accountants, was a surprise. It is said by the Herald to be the largest fortune in Johnston county. The liabilities are near $25,000; assets about the same.

—Gov. Holt suffered so severely from rheumatism that he was unable to attend the convention of northern settlers at the capital.

THANKS OF BOARD.

Mr. Leazar and the State Alliance Campimented.

RALEIGH, Oct. 23.—The state board of agriculture today adopted a resolution thanking Augustus Leazar, one of its members, for the stand he took at the meeting of the state alliance at Morehead City last August in endorsing the agricultural department's action regarding the seizure of the Durham alliance editor. Another resolution was adopted thanking the state alliance for sustaining the state's analysis of that fertilizer.

The board rescinded a resolution adopted at its June meeting transferring the state museum to the geological museum. They then met with the state board of control of the World's Fair. This meeting decided to raise $10,000 at once. Gov. Holt, Elias Carr, and Mrs. Charles Price were appointed a committee to prepare an address to the people of the state and also given authority to appoint a committee from each congressional district to solicit contributions for the purpose of having North Carolina represented.

Gov. Holt, Elias Carr, and W. R. Capehart stated that they would each receive of a hundred to go to $100. The full board will meet again December 31. By that time it is hoped the $10,000 will have been raised.

Plans were presented by Epps & Hackett, of Greensboro, for the proposed state building at Chicago. Private parties stand ready to furnish the money to build this, and everything used in its construction will be of North Carolina material—sandstone, granite, marble, spar, brick, terra cotta, lime, hard and soft woods, iron, nickel, copper and glass. Furniture, floor matting, and iron have been offered for use, so that except the state fails to make or exhibit in the great departments this building will be used to good purposes by private individuals and towns.—Richmond Dispatch.

CAPT. JOHN W. WOOD DEAD.

A Brilliant Young Man Passes Away After a Short Illness.

LEWISTON, N. C., Oct. 23.—Capt. John Whitaker Wood, son of Dr. W. R. Wood, superintendent of the North Carolina insane asylum, died here yesterday, after a short illness. He was a prominent lawyer in this town and a member of the bar in the state. He was in the highest of health and prospects. He was brilliant in intellect and accomplished in manner and commanding in appearance. His remains were taken to Scotland Neck on a special train for interment in the Episcopal cemetery.—Raleigh Chronicle.

Stricken With Paralysis.

WISCONSIN, N. C., Oct. 23.—Prof. Geo. Markgraf, a native of Germany, musical instructor at Salem Female college, was stricken with paralysis in the school today. His condition is considered hopeless.

News was received here today of the serious illness in Baltimore of Capt. S. E. Allen, a prominent citizen and hardware merchant, who had gone north to purchase his stock of goods.—State Chronicle.

Fall Into Line.

Join the great procession! It marches to victory! It knows no defeat! Inscribed on its banners is the inspiring battle cry, "Dr. Pease's Golden Medical Discovery." Its line of march extends across the continent and around the world! A happy illustration of the popularity and success of the world-famed remedy. "This everywhere-reviving, inspiring, hope-curing disease! For all blood disorders it is acknowledged the safest, the most thorough, the best! The liver and kidneys respond at once to the invigorating touch; through them the whole system is cleansed and built up anew.

If you are sick, indisposed, debilitated weak, suffering from malarious or other poisons, you'll find the "Golden Medical Discovery" the remedy par excellence to restore you.

You will find the following list of salt fish at the store of T. J. Revell, 38 North Main street: White fish, No. 1 mackerel, N. C. roe herring, extra family shad, cod fish. He also has a fresh lot of creamy butter. oct21d1w

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process of skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset, or if they be advanced will prove a potent cure.

Nothing like it. No Home should be without it. It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of rheumatism, indigestion, headache, biliousness, flatulency, and all other ailments of the liver and bowels.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION. I have seen many patients who are unable to get a reliable remedy that will cure their liver troubles promptly and effectively. I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator, and at the same time instead of feeling the digestive and assimilative powers of the system.
