THE DOUGHERTY CASE.

JUDGE CARTER SAYS SOME PLAIN THINGS.

It was held, according to the facts, said the judge, the prisoner's mental condition being the only extenuating fact. When the case of the state against Robert Dougherty, for murder, was called in the criminal court yesterday Joseph S. Adams, esq., of the counsel for the defense, stated that Solicitor Carter had carefully considered the facts in this case, and had come to the conclusion that the prisoner was not guilty of murder in cold blood, but that there was evidence of the felonious killing of Torrence.

The prosecution and the defense had, therefore, agreed to submit to a verdict in accord with the solicitor's conclusion, namely, that Robert Dougherty is not guilty of murder, but that he is guilty of the felonious slaying in the manner and form charged in the indictment. Solicitor Carter made a short talk, explaining the position he took. He said that after the killing the newspapers spoke violently against the prisoner; but the public mind had now cooled down, and he believed that the large majority of the people would uphold the course he had taken in the matter. He agreed to submit to a verdict of manslaughter.

Several witnesses were then called and examined, in order that the judge might determine upon the length of the sentence to be imposed. After the examination of witnesses, the court was addressed by Messrs. J. S. Adams and H. A. Gidger for the defense and by the solicitor for the prosecution. The defense pleaded for a short sentence, reciting that the average life of a convict is about eight years. The mental condition of the prisoner should also be taken into consideration, and Mr. Adams declared that the prisoner should be in the lunatic asylum. The solicitor's speech was short, leaving everything in the hands of the judge in whom he had such faith that he knew justice would be done.

Judge H. Bascom Carter then amid the profound stillness of the court room, proceeded to the delivery of the sentence with a recital of the facts in the case, as gathered from the testimony. He went over the killing in detail; how the two men on horseback had been seen passing; how the prisoner had remarked that he would knock the men off, and how he carried out his threat with the club four or five feet long, and three or four inches wide.

"According to the evidence," continued Judge Carter, in terribly earnest tones, "this is a case of murder, and the only extenuating circumstance was the condition of the prisoner mentally. He has received the benefit of his mental weakness in the agreement between his counsel and the solicitor to submit on a verdict of manslaughter. I can see no facts which justify any leniency on the part of the court, and therefore impose the maximum punishment, which is twenty years in the penitentiary."

There was a murmur of surprise when Judge Carter concluded. Many had supposed that Dougherty would get only five or six years. The verdict had no perceptible effect upon the prisoner.

Court Business.

The following are among the cases disposed of by the court:

J. P. Jetton, disorderly conduct; appeal from recorder's court; not guilty.

John R. Rice, jr., assault; submitted and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

John and Will Baker, larceny; nol pro with leave.

D. M. Stevens, violation of city ordinance; appeal from recorder's court; defendant required to pay the costs.

A. R. McClatchey and others, assault at Skyland on July 4; submitted and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Harriet Smith, keeping disorderly house; submitted and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Solicitor Carter hopes to clear the docket by Friday of this week.

A NEW CHURCH.

A Desirable Lot Presented to the Southside Congregation.

The pastor of the Southside Presbyterian chapel, Rev. L. H. Baldwin, announced to his congregation last Sabbath that a desirable lot had been presented to the congregation for the purpose of building a new church. Steps will be taken immediately to erect a church upon the site presented. The building will be unique in that it will have accommodations for the different departments of work carried on in connection with the church. Utility will be the chief consideration, with style and architecture will be secondary.

The church work was commenced in the neighborhood, where it was most needed, nearly two years ago, that portion of the city being taken under the care of a devoted band of workers from the First Presbyterian church. They have maintained regularly a Sabbath school and a weekly prayer meeting. Now the work has a settled pastor, the Rev. Mr. Baldwin, who has had considerable experience in this particular kind of church work. He came on from Virginia to take charge of the field. He ministers regularly to large and attentive congregations. The Sabbath school is crowding itself out of its present quarters. A standing invitation is extended to all to attend the services and see what is being done in this part of the city for the Master.

ARE YOU GOING?

Remember the Teachers' Meeting at Bryson City Thursday.

The teachers of Buncombe are reminded that the Western North Carolina Teachers' association meets next Thursday, Oct. 29, at 2:30 p. m. at Bryson City.

Are you going to attend the meeting? There should be a good delegation from Asheville and Buncombe county. Reduced rates over the Murphy branch are offered—$2.50 for the round trip from Asheville, good returning on Monday.

Persons leaving here on the 7:40 a. m. train Thursday will reach Bryson City at 12:47 p. m., in time for dinner, before the opening of the meeting.

Mr. John W. Starves, of this city, is president of the teachers' association.

TILDEN'S WILL BROKEN.

The Heirs Win Their Case After a Long Struggle.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 27.—The court of appeals rendered a decision in the case of Geo. H. Tilden vs. Andrew H. Green and others as executors, and Laura Hazard, et al., respondents, affirming the judgment of the lower court, with costs payable to all parties out of the estate. This renders the Tilden trust void, and is in favor of the heirs.

TO WRECK A NEWSPAPER

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN DUBLIN.

A Bomb Thrown Into the Office of the "National Press," the Organ of the McCarthys.
DUBLIN, Oct. 27.—Great excitement was caused in this city last evening by an apparent attempt to blow up the office of the National Press, organ of the McCarthys. The members of the staff of the paper were just on the point of beginning work when a bomb fell in the area in front of the windows on Abbey street, where the editor's rooms are situated. The bomb exploded with tremendous report but fortunately there was no one in this particular room at the time and consequently no one was hurt. If the missile had been intended to injure anybody in the editorial room, there is no doubt the effort would have been preeminently successful, for the window glass was broken, the casings shattered and the furniture in the room badly damaged. The offices in the basement were badly damaged, and the windows in all the adjacent houses were broken.

A HOT FIGHT.

An Arrested Negro Breaks Away From Two Street Car Men.

Motorman Brown and Conductor Williams, running on the Lookout mountain division of the Asheville street railway, had an exciting experience last night about 7:30 o'clock.

Some time yesterday afternoon a colored man named Will McDowell, with his wife, got on the Lookout mountain car at Seney street, to go to the end of the line. The woman took her seat inside the car, but McDowell passed on through and stood on the front platform.

Motorman Brown informed the negro that the rules prohibited any person from riding on the front platform. The negro was impatient and pulled a pistol and put it in Mr. Brown's face, but was finally persuaded to go inside.

On the return trip, the woman came back to the city alone, and told the car men that McDowell had said he was going to wait until night and "do them up."

Nothing more was heard of the matter until last night about 9:30 when the negro got on the car at Seney street, coming up town. Brown and Williams thought it a good time to arrest McDowell, and went into the car and placed him under arrest. McDowell began fighting, resisting terribly. The car men thought they had him safe enough for a while, but just as the car reached Merriam avenue, the negro, with a powerful effort, wrenched himself loose from his captors, jerked Conductor Williams' cap from his head, and jumped from the car, escaping in the darkness.

The negro received several very severe blows, but did not seem to care for them. He is still at large, but a reward will probably be offered by the street car people for his capture.

HANGED AND BURNED.

A Negro Murderer Lynched After Confession.

QUEEN CITY, Tex., Oct. 27.—Negro Lee Greer, who murdered the family of Farmer Lowe, has been caught.

A mob took him from jail and obtained a confession before the husband of the murdered woman and children. A trace chain was put around his neck, and he was hanged to a post. Forty-six negroes piled logs high around him, and an old negro touched the match to it. He passed into eternity fifty-six hours after his victims.

BOY FIENDS.

They Wanted to See a Train Derailed.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The police of Broadway have arrested two boys for placing obstacles in front of the east bound express on Friday last. The boys confessed, saying they placed the fish plates and iron chains where found in order that their desire to see a train derailed might be gratified.

Another Record Broken.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The steamer Teutonic, which sailed from New York on the 21st for Liverpool, was signalled off Broadway at 9:55 this morning, having beaten the fastest previous record from New York. The Teutonic reports that she experienced stormy weather during the passage.

Walt Whitman's Condition.

CAMDEN, Oct. 25.—Walt Whitman sees but few callers now at his modest cottage. He is hopelessly paralyzed and has a shadow of his former self. The doctors say he may live for years, but is liable to die at any time, as the paralysis is slowly approaching his heart.

Continued Heavy Gales.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 27.—The incoming steamers report having experienced fearful weather between this port and the island of Madeira. Their decks were continually swept by heavy seas and a number of them were compelled to heave to until the weather improved.

Do not weaken the stomach with strong chemicals. Simmons Liver Regulator is mild but effective.

THIS MEANS BUSINESS.

CHILI MUST MAKE REPARATION AT ONCE.

United States Soldiers Cannot Be Killed and No Account Given for the Murder—Not a Street Row.

SANTIAGO DE CHILI, October 26.—The United States government through Minister Egan has formally demanded reparation from the government of Chili for an attack recently made in Valparaiso upon a number of seamen of the United States cruiser Baltimore. The demand is no informal suggestion.

The government at Washington expects some kind of satisfaction for killing and wounding of the Baltimore's soldiers. It is a friendly put notification, giving notice according to the direct orders received from the state department at Washington that the United States demands an immediate explanation of the whole affair and reparation for the injuries inflicted.

The Chilians try to smooth over the assault upon and imprisonment of the American sailors by classing it as a simple street row.

REED AND MILLS.

The Former on the Latter's Chances for Speaker.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Ex-speaker Thos. B. Reed left Washington Monday night for the west.

"I am on my way to Ironton, O.," he said, "where I will make a speech for Major McKinley. I am down for quite a number of speeches in that state. I feel very sure that Mr. McKinley will be elected in Ohio."

When asked if he had called upon Secretary Blaine, Mr. Reed replied in his characteristic style: "No. I have not yet been notified of his return." Mr. Reed is of the opinion, judging from the present situation, that Mills will be elected speaker.

$75,000 FIRE.

Cars, Dwellings and Mules Were Burned.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 27.—Fire broke out last night in the barn of the Evansville street car company, and, fanned by a strong northwest wind, destroyed property to the amount of $75,000. The flames destroyed the barn and then spread to the car sheds in which twenty-one new cars were stored and to the company's stables containing a hundred mules. Seventy-five were burned to death. Seven dwellings were destroyed. The loss to the street car company is $50,000, to others, $25,000; only partially insured.

Proctor's Successor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The report that "Steve" Elkins is to succeed Geo. Proctor as secretary of war is in circulation with more positiveness than ever, and many politicians, including some of President Harrison's best friends, are inclined to think that it is based on fact.

Mgr. Preston's Condition.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—News from the sick room of Mgr. Preston today is more cheerful. Although the reverend gentleman passed a bad day and night yesterday, he is feeling better today.

120 Homes Burned.

BERNE, Oct. 27.—A fire occurred in the town of Meringgen in this canton Sunday, destroying 120 houses and rendering 784 persons homeless. Nearly every edifice of importance is in ruins.
