PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 3.-The polls in this state remain open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. The weather throughout the state is bright and cool and there is thus every inducement for a big off-year vote. The city treasuryship fight is bringing out a large vote in this city. The state law prohibits the compila-tion of votes in various voting precincts until the polls are closed and nothing official can therefore be learned until night. Comparisons in the county re-turns in these dispatches tonight [to be printed in The Citizen] will be made with the vote for state treasurer in 1889 when Boyer, republican, was elected by 60,906 in a total vote of 645,042 as tollows: Boyer, republican, 341,244; Busler, democrat, 280,338; Johnston, hibition, 21,308; scattering, 1,152.

Some idea of the extent of the failure can be gleaned from the fact that ten daysago the deposits in the bank amounted to more than $10,000,000, the bank depositors numbering more that 300, and individual depositors about 1,300. The most sensational feature of the failure is the announcement that as far back as January last Bank Examiner
