Blanton presiding, and all of the aldermen present with the exception of Mr. Gudger.

The special order of the afternoon, the consideration of the report of the jury on the widening of Church street, was taken up.

The report was discussed by W. W. Jones, esq., representing Capt. Thos. D. Johnston; F. A. Sondley, esq., and others.

The benefits assessed by the report amount to considerably more than the damages awarded, and this fact was one urged against the acceptance of the report.

After a lengthy discussion of the matter, on motion of Mr. Brevard, the report of the jury was set aside and a new jury ordered.

Then the street committee was instructed to have the sidewalk on the west side of Church street cut down, and a walk of gravel or plank put down, so as to offer some accommodation to the attendants upon the Western North Carolina conference, which meets next week in Central Methodist church.

The chairman of the street committee, Mr. Starnes, and Mr. Brevard were appointed a special committee to make every effort to effect a compromise with the property owners on Church street.

Action on the bids of Moody & Boland and Wolfe & Lepreux for putting in the floor of the new market house, taking in exchange therefor city bonds, was deferred until next Friday.

Mr. McKissick says he had the greatest time of his life, among his old friends, who were particular to see that nothing was left out that would enhance his enjoyment.
