There is reason to believe that the revolutionary movement is being fomented by a considerable party which seeks to reestablish the monarchical form of government in Brazil.

Such reports as were received here during the past few months indicated a steady strengthening of the republican eeling among the Brazilian people, and while the news of the revolutionary movement causes much surprise and will probably lead to ordering some of our naval vessels to points where trouble threatens it is not generally believed that the revolutionary element is strong enough to uproot the new republic.

Gov. Buchanan Will Not Order Out the Militia-Branch Prisons Heavily Guarded-A Conference at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5 .- E. B. Wade. state superintendent of prisons, after a conference with Gov. Buchanan and adjutant general Norman, returned to Tracy City yesterday. He was ordered to protect the branch prisons there and at Inman at all hazards. A large force of cured. guards for each place has been furnished with arms and ammunition and special arrangements have been made to prevent surprise by the mob as at the other three branch prisons.

Gov. Buchanan says the lessees want him to order a force to conduct the con-victs back to the mines, but he is satisfied that there ex ists now no good reason for calling out the militia. J. E. Goodwin, sub-lessee of the convicts at Briceville, when asked in the convicts would be returned to the mines, said that they would not unless the state authorizes would guarantee them protection. He said there was no use in taking the convicts there to be released in a lew days.
