THE CHOICE.

The New Head of the Republic Is Admiral Moutt, Who Commanded the Congressionalists' Fleet During the Revolution.

VALPARAISO, Nov. 6 .- The liberal party

von a sweeping victory in the recent elections, and this fact made the election of a liberal president a foregone conclu sion. The constitution of Chili provides that the electors shall meet and choose a president. They chose Admiral Montt, head of the congressionalists' fleet, and a man generally popular.

The inauguration ceremonies will take place at the capital, Santiago de Chili, December 26. It is stated that the election of Admiral Montt is not only ap proved by the entire liberal party, but that the leading members of the other parties acquiesce in his election, believing that it will tend to consolidate the best interests of the country. It is further be lieved that, with the institution of a con stitutional government, the questions now at issue between Chili and the United States will be more calmly discussed, and that the outcome will prove more satisfactory to both nations. Ad miral Montt was a most pronounced opponent of Balmaceda, and upon the breaking out of the revolution took com-mand of the congressional fleet. It was owing, in a great measure, to his action that many other naval officers joined the revolutionists. The president-elect is ex tremely popular with all classes, and his election is hailed with much satisfaction everywhere. Santiago de Chili, Nov. 6.—Admiral Jorg Montt has accepted the nomina-tion for the presidency subject to his not being expected to follow any politi-cal program. A dispatch from Valparasso today says that Admiral Montt ha been unanimously elected president of the republic of Chili

He called on those who held offices under the government not to permit that to suppress their manhood, and went on to say that the white republicans had held a convention at Asheville last July from which all negroes were ex-cluded ostensibly to form a protective tariff league. He did not call at the White House to extend his sympathy to President Harrison, but he seemed to think Mr. Harrison, needed it for he regar is the success of the democrats as a condemnation of the administration, just as he regards the result in Pennsylvania has vindication and victory for himself, which not only offsets the Delamater defeat, but to the senate next year. He attributes the defeat of Delamater to the weakness of the candidate, who was nominated, he says, against his better judgment. This year good men were nominated by his advice, and were elected.

Vote for a Democratic Governor and Forget the Legislature. DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 6 -The one element of disappointment in the result of the late election is the legislature. It seems a strange incongruity that, in a campaign where anti-prohibition would be a vital issue, the voters, while expressing their sentiments, should have failed to vote for the very influence which could bring their wishes about. It would seem to have done very little good to vote for a democratic governor, and not at the same time to vote for a democratic legislature, for without the one the other is powerless; but that is one of the peculiarities of lown politics. The most that the democrats hope for at this writing is that the senate may be a tie. That marvel of hope-fulness, physical energy and heroic voice Brother Ed. Hunter, declared that the to occur. democrats will have twenty-five sena-tors, the republicans twenty-four, and a poor, forlers people's man fills up the fifty. That same astute authority, Brother Ed. Hunter, declares that the house will not have more than six republican majority. This estimate is based on the same returns upon which Chairman Fuller rests his 9,000 majority on the same ticket. Hunter says that the lower house would andoubtedly have been democratic if it had not been for the people's vote in many of the counties. In two districts alone the people's party threw their vote for their own hopeless candidates and so defeated the democratic candidates. The democrats throughout the state are in a delirium. Pires are burning in every town, and it is safe to say that there is not a binss band in the state that is not marching and tooting its wildest, Gov.
