> Within less than five minutes the fire department was on hand in force, but a general alarm had to be turned in soon afterwards. The fire was in the upper stories. Griggs, Cooper & Co.'s store was divided in halves by a fire wall running from Third street to the rear, and from Farwell, Osman, Kirk & Co.'s by a party wall. The firemen could therefore reach the flames from only three sides, being cut off on the east by the fire wall. However they mounted ladders, bravely faced the flames which were almost licking their faces and sent streams horizontally through the windows, thus hoping to reach the center and cast side of the floors. The fire rapidly gutted, the top floor and in half an hour from the time the alarm was sent
