LIFE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

From the Springfield (Mass ) Republican. Let us be frank one with another. Is -Professor J. A. Holmes, the State it possible that our athletic minister of geologist, has been boring for coal and toreign affairs went hurriedly to Phila-oil at Town Fork. Stokes county, for delphia Priday evening simply to assure several doys. He has found good beds the country in a delightfully adroit way of coal, but was unsuccessful in the find that, after all, "Barkis is willin'?" ing of oil. Women Wanted !

-1. M. Benson, treasurer of Bladen county, is short in his accounts $6,100. His bondsmen announce that they will make good the deficit. Benson is a lead-ing alliance men and conducts a large alliance store at Elizabethton.

-Carolina Watchman: Mrs. Edmund Ridenhour died last Friday morning while in a lethargic sleep. She was living in Unity township at the time of her death She went to sleep on the Sunday before and the efforts of her friends and the doctor failed to awake her.

--Washington correspondent States ville Landmark: Comptroller of the Currency Lacey told me that the failure of the First National bank of Wilming-ton was not a had one, and that if the examiner's report was what he thought it would be, the bank would be permitted to resume business.

-The outgoing freight train on the Wilkesboro extension of the Richmond and Danville, which leaves Winston depot at 2:15 p.m., jumped the track Wednesday atternoon at the long trestle beyond the city limits, completely wreck-ing six cars. The engine broke loose from the train and was not damaged.

-The number of visitors in Wilmington, the second day of Welcome week, was as large as the people expected, reaching 6,000. The chief attractions were submarine diving, boat races of various kinds, and in conclusion there was a marine parade. Wednesday evening there was a fireworks display at the Marine Hornstel Marine Hospital.

-Active litigation has commenced in the Pickering-Wheeler land suit in Stokes county. The surveyors are now at work on the lands in Stokes and Surry, which includes the property of many citizens, and it is expected that two months or more will be required to finish this feat-ure alone. This is altogether among the oldest, largest, and most complicated land suits in America.

Dr. G. W. Earl., P'ckens. S. C., writes: "I recommended B. B. B. to a man who had suffered for years with a malignant uleer on his leg, that seemed to resist all other treatment. After using four or five bottles the alcer legan to heal and his leg is now sound and well."

five. Must have pale, sallow complex-ions, no appetite, and be hardly able to get about. All answering this descrip-tion will please apply for a bottle of Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription; take in regularly, according to directions, and then note the generally improved cond-tion. By a thorough course of self-treatment with this valuable remedy, the ex treme cases of nervous prostration and debility pecutiar to women, are radically cured. A written guarantee to this end accompanies every bottle. $5.
