If the indignation of the Robeson county meeting is as well founded as it seems to be, it has con-victed the judge and jury in the Mc-Dougald case of subverting law and or-der. The action of that judge and jury, if they have been correctly arraigned, makes lynchings much more probable in Robeson county and in a degree all and kinds of poultry, game and celery. For the present the refrigerator cars will be located at the foot of Haywood street near the Asheville ice factory. All dealers and the public generally are cor-dially invited to visit the cars, where they will find Mr. J. P. Harkness, who will represent the packing house, and he will take great pleasure in waiting on every one. The first shipment has just arrived, and no one should fail to call Robeson county, and, in a degree, all and he convinced of the superiority o over the state, than they were before the these meats.

But we sincerely trust that the judge Stamping for fancy work on any ma and jury that have been arraigned will terial done in the best manner at 48 have a reply to make to the charges against them. It would not surprise us if they were able to show that a fair interpretation of the statutes compelled the former to rule in a way that, to the lay mind, scemed unaccountable, and that the verdict of the latter followed as a matter of necessity from such ruling. The public verdict is not finally made up in this case.

Petitions and Pardons. From the Wilmington Messenger.

The administration of justice is too often now a solemn farce without petitions and pardons to bring it more in contempt and derision. The best people are becoming more and more impatient with the corruptions and short-comings of jury trials. Let "justice temper with mercy," but let it not be said that in North Carolina "justice is lame."
