WHO PAYS THE TAX?

The railway commission has just made a decided stroke of business in getting the tax out of the Pullman Car company. The assessment was made on the basis of $12,000 valuation of each car. This was taken as for the whole mileage travelled and the proportional distance of this travel through the state of North Carolina was ascertained. The latter was made a percentage of valuation. The total value of the cars passing through the state is $564,000 and North Carolina's proportion of this value is $140,000. The latter is therefore the basis for taxation in this state and the tax is thirteen hundred dollars. The Pullman company has sent the state treasurer the tax this due. The legislature three years ago passed an act imposing a tax on Pullman cars, but it was never able to collect, as the courts declared the act unconstitutional. Raleigh correspondence.

A Weldon dispatch says: Rev. W. W. Rose, of Fremont, who is on the church investigating committee, informs me that Mr. Abernathy will recover. The fact has been clearly established that Abernathy was not guilty of any undue intimacy with Mrs. Grimley, and his friends and brother ministers have decided to stand by him. Even Grimley's father-in-law condemns the murderous assault upon the minister. Grimley is still at large. News has reached here that efforts are being made to capture him. Abernathy is recovering.

The statement of the state treasury balance sheet shows that at the beginning of the past fiscal year there was on hand of the educational and public funds $164,000. Receipts of both these funds during the past fiscal year were $1,183,000, making the total receipts $1,347,000. Total disbursements of the educational fund during the year, $32,000, and of general fund $1,154,000—balance of both funds at the beginning 30th of last November, $161,629.

The assertion is now made that H. M. Bowden, the departed cashier of the wrecked First National bank at Wilmington, has stolen $50,000. His note for $7,000 in the bank. The property of Bowden has been levied on for debts to this bank and the savings bank. Yet, strange to say, not the slightest effort has been made to arrest Bowden or to ascertain his whereabouts. Richmond Dispatch.

The farmers in many cases in the cotton-belt are in worse plight than they were in 1880, which was considered a notably bad year. It will require better efforts than have as yet been made to induce the cotton-growers to abandon that crop. The alliance attempt to even secure a reduction in the acreage was a complete failure, though considerable pressure was brought to bear in that direction.

Farmer in Charlotte News: "Nearly every farmer will put down a few acres in cotton, but the acreage in the county will be reduced two-thirds. Our farmers are now putting in all the wheat and oats they possibly can, and next year, for the first time since the war, will be a wheat, oats, corn, clover, hay, stock and bacon year in Mecklenburg. That means a merry Christmas for us in 1892."

H. Hoffman & Bro., the heaviest cotton buyers of Scotland Neck, have recently shipped a lot of cotton directly from that place to Liverpool. This is the first shipment of cotton ever made from Scotland Neck to a foreign market.

Rev. Thomas C. Moses, a superannuated Methodist preacher, died at his home in Chatham county, December 20. He was born in Franklin county, in 1807, and had lived a long, useful life. He left two sons and a daughter.

At Fort Mill Tuesday the unveiling of the handsome monument erected under the auspices of the "Jefferson Davis Memorial Association," was witnessed by over 1,500 people.

When Russell, the jailer's assistant, went into the county jail at Oxford Tuesday to feed the prisoners, five of them grabbed and overpowered him in a cell and escaped.

The comptroller of the currency has appointed W. S. O'Brien, of Goldsboro, receiver of the First National bank of Wilmington.

The settlement of the liquor license matter at Charlotte will after all, it is now said, be in the hands of the supreme court.

North Carolina is now the special scene of work of the green-goods men.

FIELDING'S PRIZE. He Wins the Heiress Whom He Aided to Get a Divorce. HARTFORD, Dec. 22.—The shrewd detective who has the reputation of running down Jimmy Hope, the notorious bank burglar, has taken unto himself a wife, become the son-in-law of a millionaire, and gone out of the detective business.

W. C. Fielding, at the head of the well-known Fielding's Detective Agency, has married Miss Fanny E. Atkins, daughter of one of the richest families in Connecticut, and the happy couple are spending their honeymoon in Europe. The marriage which was a secret one, causes a sensation on account of the wealth and high social standing of the bride. She is a granddaughter of the late E. N. Welch, of Bristol, one of Connecticut's millionaire citizens.—New York Sun.

FREE FLAGS. Senator Sherman's bill authorizing the sale of regulation flags by the quartermaster general may have been already conceived as favorably comparing with a little flag episode in which Foraker once figured.—Detroit Free Press.

When Mr. Sherman's scheme for giving every man an American flag at cost goes into operation, we shall hear no more howling from that emotional patriot, Gen. G. A. R. Palmer, Hurry up the cheap flags.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
