FAIR TO SEE.
None of the season's novelties begins to compare with our glittering array of novelties.
How popular they are is evidenced by the demand for them. It has been steadily increasing and it has not reached a climax yet. If you are out of the fashion, you are virtually out of the world and the world never yet boasted of anything daintier or more fashionable than our Jewels. They are so exquisite in design and so perfect in elaboration that nothing but an unconditional surrender is in order when you see them. If you want to look at something more than usually tempting, come and glance at our fine Christmas goods.

WHY DRINK
So-called foreign wines? In nine cases out of ten you get a vile compound of cheap pot still spirits, essence and water. The product has never been within sight of a vineyard. You simply pay an exorbitant price for a label with a French name. The result is misery and dyspepsia.

The Holidays are at Hand!
What you want is absolutely the pure juice of the grape, that will promote digestion, act as a tonic and cure dyspepsia. Ask your wine merchant for the

"ENGADINE RED."
It is pure, good enough for any and cheap enough for all. If your dealer cannot supply you, then write to the vineyard. Prices will be given on application. Wine sold from the vineyard only by the case of 1 dozen quarts, or 2 dozen pints.

DR. NELSON'S FAREWELL

HIS SERMON AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The beloved Pastor reviews the Church Work During His Pastorate, and bids his flock a Farewell.

As Rev. Dr. W. A. Nelson announced his first hymn at the morning service in the First Baptist church yesterday, it was evident that he would not be able to

REV. W. A. NELSON, D. D.
(From a Photograph by Lindsey & Brown.) preach in his usual vigorous style. He said that he would not attempt to give his congregation a sermon, but would only give his church a farewell talk. He was glad to welcome many of his friends in the audience who had made great sacrifice of personal comfort in going to church through the bitter wind and driving snow storm. The minister said it was but another manifestation of the kindness they had so abundantly shown him before.

Dr. Nelson then announced as the basis of his remarks 1 Cor. 2:3-5:

"And I was with you in weakness, and in tear, and in much trembling; a d my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in the power of the Spirit and of power: that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God."

"The first Sunday in February, 1887," said Dr. Nelson, "I preached my first sermon to you as your pastor. On that day I took as my text the verse preceding the verses I have just read, and as my theme a Complete Savior. I laid down the direction of the Holy Spirit as our guide and the crucified and risen Christ as our Savior and the Savior of all who would trust him. I love the old doctrine of 'Jesus and his love.' I do not love the 'new theology,' but I love the old, old story—not because it is old, but because it is the doctrine of my crucified Redeemer. This doctrine I have kept fresh before you. You remember I told you the object I had and hoped to accomplish in preaching to this people was to lead bad men to become good and good men to become better. I have endeavored to win the wayward for my Master, to lift up the fallen and the weak, to visit the widow and the orphan, to comfort the distressed and to point lost souls to a Savior. At the same time I have not failed to declare to you the whole counsel of God so far as it has been revealed to me by His Word and Holy Spirit. I have proclaimed His gospel to you weekly, as well in the prayer meetings as from the pulpit.

"The record of my five years' ministry with you is meagre and unrecorded alike; God knows I have tried to be faithful to you and to Him. As my text says, 'I was with you in weakness,' etc. I have endeavored to do my duty honestly, without ostentation and in the fear of God.
Many think the way to preach the gospel is to show great research and erudition—their chief object is to attract the people; Paul says he did not preach with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power.' He did not try to draw the people by classical music or rhetorical phrases or flights of eloquence; Christ was the magnet he held up to the people. 'If he lifted up I will draw all men unto me,' says Christ. Like Paul when the battle of this life is over, I can look back and say with him, 'I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness,' then I will not have lived in vain. I shall be satisfied.

"Brethren, I have no higher ambition in this world than faithfulness to my Master. But faith that stands in the wisdom of men is not the faith my text requires, but in the power of God, says the apostle, I have tried to teach you to stand in the power of God, otherwise wise when trouble and sorrow and affliction and distress shall come over you your faith will waver and oh! brethren if your faith cannot stand the conflicts of this world, has it strength for the judgment to come? A religion that will not stand in the world is not worth the risk at the bar of God. Fortify your souls against sorrow, affliction and adversity by simple faith and honest trust in God. Brethren, I have tried to teach you this faith and trust, I have counseled you to prompness in my master's work.
I have enjoyed liberality and honesty and sincerity in all things. Zeal and activity in good work should characterize a Christian's life.

"Constant work for my Lord is my chief joy, and these five years have been the busiest of my life. Since I have been your pastor I have made nearly or quite an average of fifteen hundred visits a year. This I considered necessary. The most of them were to the poor and the afflicted. My heart always goes out to them. It may be a weakness with me, but I love God's poor. Brethren, never close your hand of Christian love and charity against those who need your help. Do no circumscribe your charities with denominational lines, but when God calls lend a helping hand. Since I have been with you I have contributed to the poor of Asheville nearly $500 per year in money besides food and clothing.
The visiting I did with the study I was forced to do frequently made me work sixteen hours per day and this has been too great a tax on my constitution, but it was service for the Savior, and God has greatly blessed the labors.

"On the first day of February, 1887, five years ago less one month this church had 283 members. Since I became your pastor we have received 640 members.
This has not been by protracted meetings held by modern great evangelists, but by the quiet unpretentious work of the church led by the Holy Spirit. This

I think the better way. The contributions of the church have kept abreast with her other progress until her last letter to the association showed a collection for all purposes including her two mission Sunday schools of over $13,000.
The church supports a city missionary.
Too much cannot be said of this meek man of God, Brother W. P. Southern.
Consecrated and earnest he has done a great work for his Master. I desire to give public testimony to my appreciation of his consecrated life and his worth and piety as a Christian minister. God has put the seal of his approval upon his ministry and he has been instrumental in the salvation of many souls.

"Since May 1, 1891, we have also been supporting a missionary to China. Brethren, I beg you never let your interest in foreign missions decrease. Support your missionary until your new house is completed and then add another as your work. "During the first two years of my pastorate here I preached in the afternoon on Sundays at Biltmore and as a result we have a flourishing church there self-supporting and active. God has blessed our work there also.

"At Academy Hill, in northwest Asheville we have a flourishing Sunday school with Brother Burnham as superintendent.
Our weekly prayer meeting and school has been greatly blessed of God and many souls have been saved.

"West End mission has been greatly honored by the Lord. It has a house nearly completed worth $5,000. This is a very active missionary and Sunday school point and will soon develop into a body of strong Christian workers.

"We have lengthened our cords in every direction until it has become necessary for the mother church to enlarge her dwelling and we began our new house on the corner of College and Spruce streets and when completed will cost nearly $50,000. We love the memory of dear Brother Meke for his beautiful christian life but in nothing was it more beautiful than in his intense zeal in raising funds and originating plans for this house of the Lord. Brethren, I confess I had a desire to lead you into that beautiful church, but just before we were ready to enter the Lord has laid the hand of affliction upon me and the privilege will fall to one more worthy, I trust. It is God's will and I love him well, and therefore I owe my best efforts in trying to lead the world to my Savior. May we do all for His honor and glory. Amen."

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson will leave Asheville tomorrow for Aiken, S. C., where they will spend a month or so, if Dr.
Nelson's health permits.

SPEAKER CRISP BETTER

BUT HE WILL NOT OPEN THE HOUSE TOMORROW.

He has Expressed No Preference as to the Speaker Pro Tem But it is Thought McMillin Will be the Man.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—It is definitely settled that Speaker Crisp will not call the house to order tomorrow.

The speaker continues to improve in health, but his recovery is very slow.

The speaker has not seen any member of the house since the 23d of last month, except Representative Catchings, of Mississippi, with whom he talked for a few minutes yesterday. He advised the speaker to rest for a week or more before resuming his duties.

Nothing was said about a speaker pro tem and Mr. Crisp did not indicate his preference.

There seems to be a general belief on the part of Democratic members that McMillin, of Tennessee, should be selected.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.

A Fire in Chicago This Morning—The Cause.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—At two o'clock this morning fire broke out in an all night restaurant under the Waverly hotel at 262 Clark street. The hotel at once filled with smoke and the occupants rushed into the hallways and attempted to reach the lower floor.

As a result of the fire two persons were killed, one fatally hurt, and four others quite badly injured.

NEW YEAR'S GREETING.

Emperor William to the Pope—Pope to the Emperor.

BERLIN, Jan. 4.—Emperor William sent a very cordial New Year's message to the pope. In his reply the pope said he desired always to be on friendly terms with Germany, and wished the emperor every success in his struggle with socialism, the common enemy of religion and the empire.

Revolutionists Surrounded.

LAREDO, TEX., Jan. 4.—It is stated here that the Mexican revolutionist Garza, is surrounded in a chapparal in the extreme northwestern corner of Zapata county, by United States troops and rangers and that it is almost impossible for him to escape, either to the northward or in the direction of Mexico.

Prominent Odd Fellow Dead.

DECATUR, Ill., Jan. 4.—Gen. Geo. W.
Patterson, brigadier general of the Pa-trian's militia, and one of the best known Odd Fellows in this part of the country died last night of paralysis, aged 48.

THE OHIO SENATORSHIP

SHERMAN AND FORAKER FIGHTING FOR IT.

A Distinct Gain of One For Sherman, But Foraker Has Not Given Up, Though It Looks Very Much Like Sherman.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 4.—The senatorial contest this morning shows hopeful evidence of early solution.

Last night Senator Parker, of Cuyahoga, declared irrevocably for Foraker, and this morning Senator Rawlings, of Clark, came out for Sherman. This is a distinct gain of one for the Shermites, The Sherman people now claim the support of Senator Lampson, president pro tempore of the senate, but the Foraker people also claim him.

Senator Sherman, on being questioned, said: "I have received assurances that Lampson will cast his vote for me."

LUCKY GUESSEERS.

Prizes in the Big Candle Contest Awarded.

When the guesses on the Asheville Cigar company's big candle were examined on Saturday afternoon it was found that the first prize had been won by W. A.
Dougherty, manager of the clothing store of E. B. Barnum & Co., Mr. Dougherty's guess was 8 days, 17 hours, 30 minutes and 20 seconds, coming within 5 minutes of the correct time. This prize was a $25 shaving set. The second prize was dressing case, won by A. H. Robinson.
The third prize, a handsome cigar box, was won by M. G. Miller. Patrolman W. R. Gulger, of the police force, won the fourth prize, a cigar case.

As a guessist Barnum & Co.'s manager seems to be in it.

The Art Club.

There will be a meeting at the studio of the Art club tonight for the reorganization of the night classes in drawing, drafting, designing or any other special line of art and mechanical studies. The general instruction will be given by the manager of the club, and Mr. Willis will give a series of instructive talks on construction. Others of the club have signified a willingness to assist in their special lines to make these classes more entertaining and instructive. Every one is invited to be present.

"Twelfth Night" Party.

The CITIZEN has received the following invitation to be present at the residence of Mrs. R. H. Reeves, No. 35 Spruce street, on Wednesday night, the 6th, to participate in a "Twelfth Night" party:

"To ye bolde lads and faire lasses, Greeting: Come to ye house of Mistress Reeves, at early candle-lighting, on January sixth, and join ye merrie companie in ye pastimes and customs of ye Twelfth Nygth." A very pleasant time is anticipated.

Alderman Reynolds Bound Over.

Alderman W. T. Reynolds, who on Saturday shot and wounded the colored man, Charles Connelly, was before Justice Chas. W. Malone on Saturday afternoon for trial. He waived examination, and gave bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the criminal court.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

HOME.

Grip is raging in many portions of Illinois, and fatalities are numerous, especially among the aged.

Gen. Ebenezer Sprague, a prominent Mason of Michigan, died this morning at the Masonic home in Grand Rapids.

The reception at the White House was the most brilliant social event in the history of President Harrison's administration.

Saturday night the jury in the Barnaby case at Denver, Col., returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree against Dr. J. Thatcher Graves.

Hon. Rowell P. Flower was inaugurated Governor of New York Friday to succeed David B. Hill. The speeches were brief and without reference to politics.

George B. Clark, one of the well-known Cambridge telescope makers, died at Bedford Springs, Mass., on Wednesday, aged sixty-five years. He leaves a widow.

Governor Humphrey, of Kansas, has appointed ex-Congressman Bishop W.
Perkins to fill the vacancy in the Senate caused by the death of Preston B.
Plumb.

It is announced that the supreme court of the United States will, by a vote of six to three, oust Governor Tinsley, republican, of Nebraska, and restore Gov. James E. Boyd, democrat.

Dr. Walsh, Speaker Crisp's physician, said Saturday: "The Speaker is convalescing and I look for his recovery in the near future. But I do not think that it would be prudent for him to be present when the house convenes."

FOREIGN.

This year throughout Poland is to be regarded as a year of mourning. The women of Poland from the highest to the lowest, from the princess to the peasant women, will wear nothing but black during 1892. Thus will the Poles commemorate the year of 1792 when they lost their independence.
