

ADVERTISE. But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think.

Asheville Daily Citizen.

ADVERTISE. Many a man has attributed his success in life to peculiar talents and business capacity, when the fact is he is hailed to prosperity on the wings of an advertisement.

A BRILLIANT RING.

We are showing some of the daintiest novelties ever displayed in jewelry. It would be easier to tell you what we haven't got than what we have. If you haven't seen our elegant trifles in gold and in silver, there is a treat awaiting you, and, whether you have purchases in mind or not, you should not miss them. It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

A CARD

TO MY PATRONS AND FRIENDS.

I have leased the whole store where I am now occupying only a window, and in a few days I will have it fixed up in first class style, so as to accommodate my customers with a reading room, free to all, and will have more conveniences. Thanking you for past favors, I am, Respectfully,

WHY DRINK

So-called foreign wines? In nine cases out of ten you get a vile compound of cheap potato spirits, essences and others. The product has never been within sight of a vineyard. You simply pay an exorbitant price for a label with a French name. The result is misery and dyspepsia.

The Holidays are at Hand!

What you want is absolutely the pure juice of the grape, that will promote digestion, act as a tonic and cure dyspepsia. Ask your wine merchant for the

"ENGADINE RED."

It is pure, good enough for any and cheap enough for all. If your dealer cannot supply you, then write to the vineyard. Prices will be given on application. Wine sold from the vineyard only by the case of 1 dozen quarts, or 2 dozen pints.

D. B. HILL WAS SWORN IN A MOMENT FOR NORTH CAROLINA PERHAPS.

Vance Introduces a Resolution of Interest to This State—All the States Represented in the Senate Today by Two Senators Except Nevada.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—When the senate met today every state was represented by its two senators except Nevada, from which Jones has not yet been sworn in for his new term, and the state of New York, whose senator-elect, Hill, has not presented his credentials.

After prayer by the chaplain Mr. Hill entered the chamber and was soon surrounded by senators from both sides welcoming him to his new scene of public duty. As soon as the journal was read Mr. Hill announced that David B. Hill, of the state of New York, was present and prepared to take the oath of office. The vice-president invited Mr. Hill to come forward and take the oath, which he did under the escort of Hancock. When he went back to his seat greetings and congratulations were renewed.

Among the bills introduced and referred today was one by Vance for a monument to Gen. Greene of the Revolutionary army on the battle field of Guilford, N. C. In the house today, after the approval of the journal and the appropriate reference of the various executive communications, on motion of Springer, (Ill.) it was ordered that when the house adjourned that it be to Monday next, Mr. Richardson, (Tenn.) chairman of the committee on printing, offered a concurrent resolution authorizing that the committee examine into the errors in the index of the record of the present session and to take steps to remedy the defects. He thought that the resolutions presented a question of privilege as it affected the integrity of the record of the proceedings. He called for the reading of rule 9 relating to questions of privilege.

Bottle of Maine, Henderson of Iowa, and Buchanan of New Jersey, inquired as to what congress that rule belonged. The speaker pro tem replied that it was rule 9 of the 50th congress. The rule having been read, Richardson explained that whoever compiled the index had failed to mention the names of 7 members from Tennessee and the names of a number of others. The resolution was agreed to.

GOV. RUSSELL INAUGURATED.
His Message Touches on a Number of Important Points.

BOSTON, Jan. 7.—Wm. E. Russell was today inaugurated governor of Massachusetts, and his address read to the two branches of the legislature.

Governor Russell devotes the larger portion of his message to an argument against the divided responsibility, or no responsibility, in the system of executive management established by the commonwealth. He earnestly recommends the favorable consideration of each legislative act as will give power to remove administrative officers for cause stated to the governor, leaving to the council the power of confirmation of his appointments.

He then reviews the executive boards and officers, making suggestions and recommendations as to each one. He recommends the passage of a comprehensive and stringent law to secure the publication of election returns, and says it is possible to limit their amount and define their proper object. He urges an amendment to the ballot law so that a single mark may constitute a vote for all the presidential electors of each political party. At present, to give full effect to the vote for president, the voter must mark separately the names of fifteen electors. The danger is that with the present extent of partial voting, many voters through carelessness or mistake, will not mark the full list of the electors. In a close election this would certainly lead to an accidental division of the electoral vote of the state.

Gov. Russell asks further legislation in the interests of labor, and requests that the national legislators be petitioned for providing for the adoption of safety appliances in coupling and uncoupling cars.

The $75,000 appropriated for the World's Columbian exposition is considered inadequate, and the governor recommends that the amount be increased.

BLAINE "ALL RIGHT."
But Not Enough So to go to Work in the Department.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—It was stated by Mr. Blaine's private secretary this morning that the secretary was feeling all right but would remain at home today for rest.

The secretary sent down word that he expected to be able to go to the department tomorrow.

Sly Is Again Identified.
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 7.—Sly, the suspected Glendale robber, has been identified as the perpetrator of the postoffice robbery at Station C, corner of Jefferson and Chouteau avenue, on the night of November 24. A passer-by named Fox, believed to be night watchman, was compelled at the muzzle of a revolver to go in the office and witness the robbery, as Sly feared Fox would give the alarm. Fox positively identified the robber.

President's Nominations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The president today sent to the senate the nominations of Walter Wymen, of Missouri, to be supervising surgeon general of the Marine hospital service, and that of John B. Hamilton, of Illinois, to be surgeon in the Marine hospital service.

List of the Itata Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—The government's suit against the schooner Robert and Abbie for violation of the neutrality laws in conveying arms to the Chilian steamer Itata was dismissed in the circuit court of appeals yesterday.

High and Dry.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Jan. 7.—The schooner Jacob Dorway, with lumber, from Norfolk, Va., to Atlantic City, parted her chains last night, was driven ashore at Cape May point this morning, and now lies high and dry on the beach.

WHISKEY MURDER.
Dr. Thomas Thatcher Graves Convicted.

Here is a true likeness of Dr. Thomas Thatcher Graves, convicted at Denver, Col., of the murder of Mrs. Barnaby. Graves was born in Connecticut, in January, 1841. He began to practice medicine at Providence, R. I., in 1887. In 1889 he became medical advisor to Mrs. J. B. Barnaby, wife of one of the richest men of this city. By degrees he attained great influence over the unfortunate woman. After the death of Mr. Barnaby, the same year, who left his widow with inadequate provision, Graves persuaded her to employ a lawyer named Ballou, who was his intimate friend, to contest the will, which was broken. In December, 1889, Mrs. Barnaby made a will, leaving a large fortune to Graves. Only Graves, Ballou and the lady knew of this arrangement, which Mrs. Barnaby, it is said, subsequently determined to change. The executors of the Barnaby estate paid $80,000 to Graves, as agent of Mrs. Barnaby, in March, 1891. At the end of the same month a package was mailed, by some person, at Boston, addressed to Mrs. Barnaby, Denver. It contained a bottle of whiskey, of which the lady drank on April 13. She died a few days afterwards. Graves has been convicted of poisoning her, by sending her the drugged whiskey which she unhappily drank.

THEY LYNCHED WOMEN!
ANOTHER TRAGEDY IN THE SIMS CASE.

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 7.—News came late last night from Womack Hill, Ala., the scene of the recent Sims outrages and hanging, that Neil, brother of Bob, two other men and Laura and Beatrice Sims, two daughters of Bob, were on their way from Womack Hill last night, going in the direction of Lark, Miss., the rendezvous of rest of the gang, where they were met by a posse searching for Neil Sims, who is wanted for murder. It is said that Neil resisted arrest and was hanged and afterward shot; also that the rest of the party attempted to interfere in Neil's behalf and were strung up to an oak tree along the roadside, the women being among the number lynched. Great excitement is said to prevail.

COMING SOUTH.

How Much of This Travel Is For Asheville?

The Charleston News and Courier says: "Mr. T. M. Emerson who is one of the busiest and most persistent traffic managers in the country, is hard at work making arrangements for the comfortable and rapid moving of the winter tourists, who are now beginning to come south. 'The outlook,' said Mr. Emerson, 'has never been as good as it is at present. We can never tell exactly what we are to expect, but all of our reports indicate that there will be a heavy southern travel. Our chief business comes from the New England states, New York and Pennsylvania, and all of these sections are just about ready for a migration to the sunny south.'

Sherman Gets the Plum.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 7.—John Sherman was nominated by the republican caucus last night for United States senator to succeed himself, by a vote of 53 to 38 for Foraker.
