WORK IN CONGRESS TODAY

VOORHEES SHARPENING HIS KNIFE FOR WOODS.

A Joint Resolution Providing for International Bi-metalic Agree ment-Ex-Speaker Reed in His Seat for the First Time Since the Holidays.

Washington, Jan. 11.-in the senate Mr. Aldrich presented a remopstrance from the woolen manufacturers of New England against any agitation on the question of duties on wool, and asked that it be read and printed in the Rec-

Mr. Harris objected to encumbering the Record with the full text. Mr. Teller introduced a joint resolu ion providing for an international bi metalie agreement. The joint resolution was read. It declares it to be the determined policy of both gold and silver as full legal tender money, either under the rates now existing in the United States or under one that may hereafter be established by the United States alone, or in accord with

The Senate judiciary committee today decided to lay over without action until next Friday nominations of circuit This was done at the request of Sena-protest against the confirmation of Jus-tice Woods. Ex-Speaker Reed was in his seat the first time since the Christmas holidays. Crain, of Texas, who has also been ab-sent for some time on account of sickness was likewise at his post of duty.

The resolution offered by Mr. Breckenridge, or Kentucky, repealing the third section of the McKinley bill, and enacting n hen thereof a section authorizing the president to issue a proclamation admit-ting free of duty to the American hemis phere, in which no import duty is im-posed, feed corn, meal, and other bread products, preserved meats, oil, lumber agricultural implements and machinery steel rails, etc., was objected to by M. Burrows, of Michigan.

JUDGMENTS CONFESSED.

L. L. and P. Co. in Favor of the

A. S. Ry. Co. and J. G. Martin. On Saturday afternoon W. Ridgeley Penniman, jr., vice-president of the Asheville Light and power company, in the superior court, confessed judgments in lavor of the Asheville Street railway company for the sum of $5,656.26. This was done under authority of resolution adopted at the meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Light and power company on January 7

Between December 31, 1889, and January 7, 1892, the Street railway company had loaned the Light and power company $39,915.70. On this the latter has paid $34,259.44, leaving a balance of $5,656.26, the amount confessed. At the same time Mr. l'enniman, by authority of a resolution by the stockholders and directors of the Light and power company, confessed judgment in favor of Jas. G. Martin for the sum of favor of Jas. G. Martin for the sum of $8,771.31. This is for money borrowed of Col. Martin, and several months' sal-
