DUKE OF CLARENCE DEAD

HE PASSED AWAY THIS MORNING AT 9:15 O'CLOCK.
The Great Bell of St. Paul Notifies England That Her Presumptive Sovereign is No More—The Grief and Sympathy of the People.
LONDON, Jan. 14.—The Prince of Wales has sent the following telegram to the lord mayor of London:
"Our beloved son passed away at 9 o'clock today. Signed, Albert Edward."
The news of the death of the duke of Clarence has caused widespread grief, and already demonstrations of public feeling are everywhere apparent. On all public buildings flags are displayed at half mast and throughout the whole of London the sad intelligence was received with expressions of sorrow.
The lord mayor first received a telegram concerning the death of the duke of Clarence at 8:30 o'clock. It was from Sir Francis de Winton, comptroller and treasurer of the household of the prince. The dispatch was as follows:
"Change for worse has occurred. We fear there is not much hope."
Then at 9:35 o'clock the lord mayor received the following:
"His Royal Highness passed away at 9:15 o'clock."
After this came the dispatch from the Prince of Wales announcing his son's death. On the receipt of the news the lord mayor at once gave orders to have the bell in St. Paul's cathedral tolled, and also sent the following to the Prince of Wales:
"We are profoundly moved by the sad news, and have communicated it to our fellow citizens. We tender our deep and respectful sympathy with your royal highness in this great sorrow and national calamity."
When the solemn tolling of the great bell in St. Paul's cathedral was heard this morning they conveyed to every one within hearing of their deep mourning the fact that the Duke of Clarence and Avondale had passed away.
The bells in St. Paul's were never tolled save on the occasion of the death of an heir to the throne, and therefore no further information is necessary for the people of London to make them aware that after the gallant struggle the duke had finally succumbed.
The announcement of his death caused far less commotion in the city than was expected, but this was no doubt due to the fact that nearly everybody had given up hope yesterday, and believed that death was sure to claim the duke.
The telegram from the Prince of Wales to lord mayor Evans announcing the death of the duke was not posted at the mansion house until 1:30 o'clock. When the little piece of white paper was put up there were only a few persons waiting. They read the news with stolid indifference. The crowd at no time exceeded thirty during the first half hour after the announcement was posted. Scarcely any comments were made.
In the west end there was a scene that was in striking contrast to the indifference displayed in the vicinity of the mansion house. Hundreds of persons well known in upper circles of London society, London aristocracy and others, gathered in little groups and gravely discussed the death of the duke and its effect upon the succession in all its bearings. Serious faces could be seen all along Pall Mall, and there is no doubt that the calamity is much taken to heart by the English nobility.
For some reason no bulletin was posted at Marlborough house, the London residence of the Prince of Wales, until after 11 o'clock; and as carriages arrived their occupants would descend and go to the porter's lodge to inquire as to the latest news from Sandringham hall. Here they were informed of the death of the duke, and many of the lady visitors were seen returning to their carriages with their handkerchiefs to their eyes.
The bells in Westminster Abbey tolled from twelve o'clock to one.

CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN.

The Magnificent Edifice to be Erected in New York City.
The picture shows the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, as it will appear, the plans of Messrs. Heins & LaFarge, architects of the design shown, having been substantially accepted by the trustees. It will probably be the finest building on this continent. The site for the structure cost $800,000, of which $500,000 was paid cash. It is the desire of the trustees to obtain for the building money enough to yield $200,000 a year interest. This would provide for the cost of both erection and subsequent endowment. The Cathedral will be 520 feet long outside, with across the front, 190 feet; across the transepts, 290 feet. The total height of the structure will be 425 feet, and it will stand on an elevation which will add another hundred feet. Bishop Potter's features are shown in the cut. Under his wise and vigorous administration, the work of providing a Cathedral which will represent worthily the dignity and traditions of the Episcopal Church has proceeded far, and it is hoped that he will live to see the magnificent structure completed. Work will be begun next summer.

TWO CARDINALS DEAD.

CARDINALS MANNING AND SIMEONI ARE NO MORE.
The Death Rate Among the Distinguished Ecclesiastics Seems Loth to Decrease—The Grip Responsible For Both Deaths.
ROME, Jan. 14.—Cardinal Manning, formerly Papal secretary of state and prefect general of the Propaganda, died today. His death was due to an attack of influenza from which he had been suffering for several days.
LONDON, Jan. 14.—Cardinal Manning continued to grow weaker and weaker during the night until finally his prostration became complete. He was able, however, to join in the prayers which were being offered at his bedside. His eminence continued these supplications for divine mercy until half past 7 o'clock when he became unconscious. His death was calm and he passed away evidently without pain. Telegrams of regret from all parts of the world are being received.

THE GRAND LODGE.

North Carolina Masons in Session at Raleigh.
The Grand Lodge of Masons of this state met in Raleigh on Tuesday night.
The Grand Master, H. A. Gudgeon's address was an excellent one. He congratulated the order in this state on a year of prosperity, with no perplexing jurisdictional questions arising. The death of Grand-Treasurer D. S. Waitt, of Raleigh, was noted as one of the events of the year, William Simpson, succeeding him. The conditions of the orphan asylum is very satisfactory. Its 210 inmates are from five to sixteen years of age. The order was earnestly urged to support the asylum thoroughly. There were made during the year many decisions by the Grand Master.
He noted the fact that Ceremonialism has not yet made its appearance in this jurisdiction, though he had reasons to suspect that efforts will be made to introduce it. He announced his determination to interdict it, and he regularly presented the matter to the Grand Lodge for consideration, and asks for its unqualified condemnation, as so much trouble has been given in other states. He noted a case in which a lodge in this jurisdiction had permitted one of its officers to remain in the lodge and fill his station while drunk, and while in such a condition aided in performing burial ceremonies. The Grand Master arrested the charter of this lodge, but later restored it, the offender having been removed. He says he sees no reason why an officer of a subordinate lodge should not be allowed to resign. There are many instances where it would be highly beneficial to the craft to allow this. He therefore recommends such an amendment.
Grand-Secretary Bain reports 280 lodges and 8,500 affiliated Masons in the state. The total number in the State he estimates at 20,000. The Raleigh lodges have banqueted the Grand Lodge. The Grand Master states that at the beginning of last year the debt of the orphan asylum was $5,243. All this is now settled, save $1,118. Not only were all the current expenses met, but $2,400 was expended on improvement.

QUAY BEATS HARRISON

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 14.—The republican primary elections in this city show that Senator Quay's command of the party machinery in this city is absolute. The two candidates for delegates to the National Convention in the interests of President Harrison are opposed to the Quay delegates were United States Marshal Leeds and Charles W. Henry.
They have been badly beaten, neither of them having twenty delegates in a total of two hundred.

THE DOINGS OF CONGRESS

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NATIONAL LEGISLATURE.
Mr. Potman Brings Up His Resolution Against Subsidies and Objection is Made—The Sturdy Indian Glad the Fight is Over.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—After passing three bills on the calendar, including one for a hall of records in Washington, D. C., the senate at 12:50 proceeded to executive business.
In the house, in anticipation of the first political debate of the session the attendance of members this morning was unusually large, and the inclemency of the weather did not prevent the galleries from containing a goodly number of spectators.
A resolution relative to the appointment of committee clerks was postponed until tomorrow.
The following bills were introduced and referred:
By Mr. Snodgrass, of Tennessee, for the repeal of the bounty clause of the tariff bill. By Mr. Scott, of Illinois, to repeal the law authorizing the postmaster general to have return requests printed on envelopes. By Mr. Martin, of Indiana, looking to the adjustment of international disputes without resort to war. By Mr. Dooliver, of Iowa, increasing the pension of those who have lost the sight of both eyes.
The Holman anti-subsidy resolution was taken up for discussion.
Mr. Raines, of New York, said that the resolution contained two propositions. He inquired whether there could not be a separate vote on each proposition.
The speaker pro tem replied that he would look into the matter. Mr. Holman, of Indiana, said in view of the fact that a similar resolution had formerly been adopted by other congresses, he felt some surprise at the opposition which has been manifested at this time to his proposition.
A substantially identical resolution had been agreed to in the 44th congress with but few dissenting votes. In the 45th congress a resolution condemning subsidies had been adopted on motion of Mr. Baker, of Indiana. He supposed that the objection now made was directed against the first resolution, and, for one, he was glad that that issue was fairly and squarely made. It could not be made too soon.
