W. T. REYNOLDS' DEATH. A PROMINENT CITIZEN OF ASHEVILLE GONE.

THE SAD EVENT OCCURRED AT 2:21 A. M.

DEATH DUE TO ERYSIPELAS AND HEART TROUBLE.

'Tis sad news that THE CITIZEN bears to many of its readers today. Alderman William T. Reynolds is dead. One week ago today Mr. Reynolds was up town attending to his business. He was then suffering from heart trouble an attack of which he had experienced about a week before. He returned to his home on Woodfin street and went to bed.

Then Mr. Reynolds took the grip from an attack of which he had never fully recovered. He became very ill, and in a short while erysipelas set in.

His physician, Dr. J. A. Burroughs, was immediately called in, and it was thought for a few days that the sufferer's life could be saved.

But on Thursday alarming symptoms developed and the gravest fears were entertained by those who knew Mr. Reynolds' true condition. Dr. Burroughs called to assist him Drs. John Hey Williams and W. D. Hilliard, and every effort possible was exerted to arrest the progress of the disease.

Yesterday morning Mr. Reynolds became delirious, remaining in that state, except now and then a momentary consciousness, until his death, which occurred just as the hands of the clock in the death chamber pointed to twenty-one minutes past two o'clock this morning.

The scene at the death bed was one to wring the stoutest heart. His family and the friends who have been with him in the hours of his illness knew that the end was near. Around his bedside stood his aged mother and his devoted wife; Dr. Burroughs, Dr. Williams; N. A. Reynolds, John Reynolds, and Henry Reynolds, his brothers; Misses Sue and Annie Reynolds, his sisters; J. W. Spears, his brother-in-law; Mrs. Spears, his mother-in-law; Chas. W. Malone, N. B. Atkinson, Joseph Sevier and Daniel Sevier.

The funeral services will occur tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, in Central Methodist church, conducted by Rev. C. W. Byrd, after which the remains will be interred in the family plot in Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Reynolds' Life.

William T. Reynolds was born in Asheville on the 14th day of October, 1850, his birthplace being the Grand house on North Main street. On October 6, 1880, he was married to Miss Mamie Spears, daughter of George Spears, who, with four children, three sons and a daughter, survive him.

Mr. Reynolds has been in the active service of the city and county since 1879, when he was appointed city tax collector and city marshal, holding the position for two years. In the year 1884 he was elected a member of the board of aldermen of the city of Asheville, and held the office for one year, resigning to accept the appointment to the clerkship of the superior court of Buncombe, made by Judge J. C. L. Gudgeon, to fill the unexpired term of E. W. Herndon, who died in office. In 1885 he was elected clerk for the regular four year term. In May last Mr. Reynolds was elected on the regular democratic aldermanic ticket by a large majority, which office he held up to the time of his death.

The City's Loss.

In the death of Alderman Reynolds Asheville loses one of her best known and most progressive citizens, and the news of his death will shock every citizen, even though he may not have had the pleasure of Mr. Reynolds' acquaintance in life. His tireless energy has been expended in this his native city, and the improvements he has added to Asheville will long stand a monument to his progressiveness. The Grand opera house block, the Reynolds' block on South Main street, and the Mimmagh store on Patton avenue are examples of the work he has done in this city.

Up to his death Mr. Reynolds was associated with J. W. Spears in the management of the livery stable on Water street, and up to last week was joint manager with Mr. Spears of the Grand opera house, which magnificent building was erected by Reynolds & Spears more than two years ago.

The Man.

As a man, Mr. Reynolds was upright, conscientious and of the strictest honesty and integrity. With his mind once made up nothing could deter him from the course which he believed to be the true one. And he was equally willing advanced to acknowledge an error when convinced that a friend, those who knew him can in all candor say that a truer one never breathed. With his friendship was not merely a speaking acquaintance. It was friendship in the fullest sense of the word. And no sacrifice which lay in his power seemed too great to make in behalf of any man who was his friend. He was a genial, companionable spirit and always met his friends with a happy smile and a hearty grasp of the hand.

One of the last official acts of the alderman was the introduction, at the meeting of the board the day before his death, of a resolution providing for the payment of three months' extra salary to the widow and orphans of Patrolman Palmer, who died from the effects of a wound received while in the discharge of his duty.

That was the man—just, honest, kind, a staunch friend, and a man beloved by everybody who knew him.

THE CITIZEN recalls the last conversation with Alderman Reynolds. It was last Saturday afternoon on court place. He had just given the reporter the news of the lease of the Grand opera house. The snow was falling then, and Mr. Reynolds looking well and hearty, drove away with the remark, "I must go home, I am sick."

Just one short week from life and health to death.

Asheville cannot yet realize her real loss.

The sympathies of the people of the entire community go out to the bereaved ones in this dark hour.

Official Action.

A joint meeting of the aldermen and advisors was held in the mayor's office today at 12 o'clock. There were present Aldermen Brevard, Leonard, Starnes, McDowell and Gudgeon, and Advisors Sammey, Scott, Hunt and Conant. On motion it was resolved that all of the city officials should meet at the mayor's office tomorrow at 2 o'clock p. m. and attend the funeral of the late Alderman Reynolds in a body.

The office of the clerk of the superior court is closed this afternoon as a mark of respect to Alderman Reynolds, who was clerk of this court for a period of five years.

CARDINAL MANNING.

Archbishop of Westminster, and Cardinal Priest.

Henry Edward Manning, the dead Cardinal was born in the year 1808. He was educated at Harrow public school and Balliol College, Oxford, and graduated a B. A. with first class honors in 1830. Afterward he became fellow of Merton College, Oxford. Manning was one of the select preachers at the University of Oxford, and achieved high distinction as a priest of the Church of England. He was Archdeacon of Chichester when, in 1851, he joined the Roman Catholic church, of which he was ordained priest. In 1857 he founded a congregation at Bayswater. He was made a D. D. from Rome and received other distinguished honors from his new friends. On the death of Cardinal Wiseman, in 1865, he was appointed Archbishop of Westminster, and made a cardinal priest in 1875, and received the red hat in 1877. Cardinal Manning has been great as a preacher and philanthropist, and as a man of eminently saintly life.

THE FROZEN NORTHWEST

THIRTY BELOW ZERO IN NORTHWEST ILLINOIS.

The Coldest in Eleven Years—The Severe Weather Causes an Increase in the Spread of the Grip—Many Old Persons Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Specials from various portions of the state indicate that the prevailing cold wave is one of the most severe of any in recent years.

At Vandalia the thermometer stood 16° below—lower than for 11 years, Monticello reports 17 below; Danville 16; Fairbury 16.

At Freeport, in the northern part of the state the mercury went down to 30, and at Belvidere, another northern city, 22 was reached. Dixon reports 21 below with no immediate prospect of a change to warmer weather.

From several points an alarming increase of the influenza is reported as one of the results of the cold snap.

Singularly enough there have been no fatalities reported on account of the extreme cold. The death rate from grip, however, seems greatly increased, especially among more aged persons.

$200,000 FIRE.

Van Tassel's Big Grain Elevators Burned.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Van Tassel's big grain elevator and warehouse, corner Thirteenth avenue and west Eleventh street, was destroyed by fire this morning, together with the old stables of the Knickerbocker ice company, at 186, 188 and 190 Bank street, and 4, 5 and 6 Thirteenth avenue, involving a loss of about $200,000.

It is known that two workmen perished in the flames and it is feared others lost their lives.

Henry Kopp, a carpenter who lives at Hudson City, N. J., was burned to death on the fourth floor. There were several narrow and thrilling escapes.

BARTTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 16.—A sensation has been caused by the departure of Rev. Francis E. Shober, Monday, leaving behind a wife and four children. Mr. Shober is a southerner, from Thomasville, N. C. He married several years ago Helen Agnew, daughter of John A. Agnew, of a family of state and national reputation.

Mr. Shober's departure is supposed to be due to domestic troubles.

Eighteen Animals Burned.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Jan. 15.—A large stable filled with horses and mules was burned Wednesday night on the corner of Twelfth and Floyd streets, and eighteen animals were consumed.

THE DEAD DUKE'S FUNERAL. THE INTERMENT WILL TAKE PLACE WEDNESDAY.

The Statement That Queen Victoria is Ill is Untrue—She Will Attend the Funeral—The Remains Will be Placed in a Crypt in St. George's Chapel.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—Preparations for the funeral of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale are being made on all sides, at Sandringham by the railway companies and at Windsor castle.

It is believed that the statements regarding the condition of the Queen's health are grossly exaggerated. As had before been stated she is greatly affected by the death of her favorite grandson, and her depression would naturally tend to make her more liable to an attack of the prevailing epidemic of influenza, but that she is seriously, or at all unwell, is not shown by the arrangements that have been made for her presence at the funeral ceremonies.

As has now been decided, her majesty will remain at Osborne house until either Monday night or Tuesday morning. She will then proceed on the royal yacht to Portsmouth, from which place a special train will convey her to London. She will arrive at Windsor castle early Tuesday.

The body of the duke will be conveyed from Sandringham and will arrive at Windsor castle on the same day.

All the details of the funeral have not been arranged, but it is announced positively that the interment will take place at noon Wednesday.

The body will be placed in a crypt in St. George's chapel.

EGYPT'S NEW RULER.

Arrived at Alexandria Today Amid the Booming of Cannons.

CAIRO, Jan. 16.—Prince Abbas, the new Khedive, this morning entered the harbor at Alexandria, from Trieste on board a steamer. The steamer was accompanied by a number of British warships, which, as they entered the harbor, thundered forty royal salutes. Egyptian vessels took up the refrain and from their guns belched flame and smoke as their youthful ruler came to take possession of the throne of his father.

All the vessels were decked in rainbow style and the sight was very pretty. All members of the Egyptian cabinet, Grenell, of the Egyptian army; Justice Scott, Egyptian judicial adviser, and Prince Hussein boarded the steamer and welcomed the Khedive.

Monkhatr Pasha, the high commissioner of the sublime port to Egypt, had intended to take part in receiving the Khedive, but was suffering from an attack of the influenza and had to forego his intention.

At 8:30 o'clock the Khedive landed from the steamer and was received with great enthusiasm. He was met by the principal civil and military officials and a guard of honor composed of British and Egyptian troops. At 10 o'clock he took a special train and proceeded to Cairo.

OFFICIALLY DENIED.

Right Honorable Sir Frederick Pousonby, G. C. B., is private secretary to her majesty and keeper of the privy purse.

The President's message on Chilean affairs will be sent to congress next week, probably not later than Wednesday.

Many democratic congressmen condemn Mr. Holman for introducing his anti-subsidy resolution without consultation with his party associates.
