A BRILLIANT RING.

We are showing some of the daintiest novelties ever displayed in jewelry. It would be easier to tell you what we haven't got than what we have. If you haven't seen our elegant trifles in gold and in silver, there is a treat awaiting you, and, whether you have purchases in mind or not, you should not miss them. It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

PRIZE.

Twelve Dollar Present Free.

Now here is a chance for you to get a handsome pair of bisque sleigh ornaments free. Everybody can join in this contest, especially the school children. It is a splendid mental exercise for you. Now we will tell you what it is.

We give you our name and the name of our store, thus: Thad W. Thrash & Co., Crystal Palace; and to the individual composing the largest number of English words from these two names, bringing them to us before Feb. 10, 1892, (at which date contest closes) will receive the above present free.

Observe the following rules, in order that you make no mistakes in getting the words correct:

1. No foreign language allowed. Plain English.
2. No proper names allowed.
3. Use no other letters than those in the two names.
4. Use no letter twice in the same word unless it appears in the names twice.
5. Do not abbreviate. Spell all words in full.
6. Bring the words to us on neat paper, with your name attached.
7. You must purchase some article when you come with the words.

Three judges will be appointed to see that all is conducted fairly and honestly. The prizes can be seen in our show window.

All fine goods at cost during this contest.

WHITE WINGS OF PEACE

THEY AGAIN HOVER OVER THE NAVY DEPARTMENT.

Secretary Tracy Has a Quiet Day—The Senate Committee on Naval Affairs Promise to Stand by Him—Reparation Will be Made.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—There was a decided diminution in the war talk around the navy department this morning and a more peaceful feeling prevailed.

Secretary Tracy had a comparatively quiet morning, though he found plenty to occupy him. He had a conference with Senators Cameron and McPherson, of the senate naval committee, and it is understood that the secretary had before them a statement of the expenditures for naval demonstration in southern waters, and asked that when his estimate for appropriations should be submitted he receive the support of the committee.

A week ago, he is alleged to have said that those preparations seemed to be absolutely necessary, but now he believes there will be no war. It is further understood that the secretary received the assurances of the committee that he would be supported in every proper and necessary expenditure involved in his precautionary movements.

This expression on the part of the secretary of the belief that the crisis has been passed, is taken as an indication that conciliatory dispatches from the Chinese government, referred to in yesterday's associated press report of the cabinet meeting, are regarded as paving the way for an ultimate act of reparation on the part of China. At all events it is certain that the warlike tone recently manifested at the navy department has been considerably modified.

No step has been taken, however, to undo all that has been so hurriedly done by the department during the past few weeks to put this country on a fighting basis.

HOW'S THIS?

East Street Work Has Been Paid For, But Never Accepted.

Several months ago the city authorities, seeing that the builders of the Lookout Mountain railway were not disposed to widen East street, according to contract, for the fulfillment of which they had given a bond of $1,000, gave the contract for the widening to Webb & Oates, the price to be paid being $600.

This amount was not to be paid in full until the entire job was completed. The work is not yet completed, and the board has never accepted the street, yet the contractors have been paid the full amount of the contract price in notes of the city, signed by Mayor Blanton and City Clerk Young. The amounts were paid as follows: Dec. 7, $200; Dec. 14, $200 and $185; total, $600.

The payment of this amount has never been authorized by the board of aldermen. It is true that a committee "with power to act" was appointed composed of Aldermen McDowell, Leonard and Starnes and Mayor Blanton. Some of the committee went down and looked at the street, and called the contractor's attention to unfinished portions of the work. Some of this work now remains unfinished, yet in spite of that fact, and the further facts that the committee has never authorized the payment, and the street has never been accepted by either the street committee or the board, Webb & Oates hold the city's notes or cash, to the amount of $600, less $15 paid to S. M. Redmond for work done.

Alderman Starnes, who is chairman of the street committee, told THE CITIZEN today that he could not see why the notes had been given. There were defects in the work, and until these were remedied, the street should not be accepted. In some places, he said, the old plank sidewalk had been torn up and never replaced; and the result is that East street is a sea of mud.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

H. R. Morrison Arrested in Ruthless Effort for Burning a Gin.

The Greenville, S. C., News of the 19th inst. says:

"Deputy Sheriff Green, of Anderson, returned to the city last night from Rutherford county, North Carolina, where he arrested H. Reed Morrison, a white man charged with larceny and arson. On the night of November 24 the gin house and mill of James Douthit, in Anderson county, were destroyed by fire and six bales of cotton were stolen. Morrison had been an employee of Mr. Douthit and left immediately after the burning. He is believed to have been the incendiary. He admitted to the deputy sheriff that he sold the cotton, but said it was for 'somebody else.' He was put in jail here and will be taken to Anderson this morning."

THE THIRD PARTY.

Congressman Jerry Simpson says There Will be One.

Congressman Jerry Simpson, being asked what the prospect was for the third party people, said that the meeting would be held the 22nd of February at St. Louis. At that meeting methods and plans would be discussed, but no nominations made. An address, however, would be issued, and at a subsequent date a national convention would assemble, and he thought the third party would certainly nominate a presidential ticket. He further expressed the belief that his party would carry a number of states, including Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota and the two Dakotas, and shake things up considerably in several of the southern states.

HIGH REPT FOR A THEATER.

The Grand, of New York, Leased For $50,000.

Henry French has renewed his lease of the Grand opera house in New York for a year from May 1. He has agreed to pay to Jay Gould, who owns the property, a largely increased rental. This ends speculation as to the immediate future of the Grand, which, on the basis of the rent, said to be over $50,000, is apparently one of the most profitable theatres in the country.

Large stock of hats, underwear, and gloves at the Whitlock Clothing House, 48 South Main street.

A NEGRO POSTMASTER.

It is said One Will be Appointed at Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 20.—President Harrison has raised a business cyclone here by his dicker with the negroes to secure the vote of the South Carolina delegation to the republican nominating convention. A. H. Mowry, a white man who was appointed postmaster by Cleveland four years ago, has been re-named mainly through the influence of Mr. Wamamaker, being of supposed nigger tendencies. The republicans endorse W. C. Crum, a colored doctor, for the place, and it is now announced that he will be appointed.

FATAL RIDE IN A SLEIGH

NINE MEN KILLED IN ST. LOUIS LAST NIGHT.

A Party of Twenty-Two Sports Struck by a Train and All But Two of Them Are Either Killed or Injured.

St. Louis, Jan. 20.—Last night a party of twenty-two, made up of members of the Cloverleaf fishing club, started out in a large four horse sleigh. On their return the sleigh was struck by a Wabash special train at Sarah street crossing.

Of the twenty-two in the party, but two escaped unhurt. Nine were killed and eleven badly hurt.

THE BODY REMOVED.

The Dead Duke's Remains Taken From the Parish Church.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The body of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale was removed from the Parish church at Sandringham today.

The miserable weather which had prevailed for several days past and which, in a great degree, is responsible for the abandonment of the plans for a military funeral, had passed away and the day dawned fine and cold.

At 9:30 o'clock a detachment of artillery, with a draped gun carriage drew up at the church gates and the disciplined soldiers and well-trained horses stood immovable in positions assigned to them. The game-keepers and laborers employed on the Prince of Wales' estate, and nearly all villagers residing at Sandringham, with all of whom the dead duke had been a favorite, stood grouped about the gates, while the road from Sandringham hall to the church was lined with school children.

A FRENCH DUEL.

Another Foe and a Wounded Arm the Result.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—One of the outcomes of the disgraceful scene in the chamber of deputies yesterday was a duel fought today between M. Delpech, republican member, and M. Castelin Boalanguist.

During the heated discussion yesterday the men became involved with the result that M. Delpech called the ear of M. Castelin. Subsequently M. Dumartel waited on M. Delpech in the lobby of the house and handed him a challenge from M. Castelin to fight a duel.

The challenge was accepted. M. Delpech as the challenged party selected swords as the weapons to be used. In accordance with arrangements arrived at, the principals met this morning on the field of honor, and the result was M. Delpech was wounded in the arm.

INFANT DAMNATION.

Revision Committee Says the Children are all Right.

NEW YORK, January 20.—The general assembly of the committee on the revision of faith has made very good progress in revising their former revision in accordance with the recommendations of the various presbyteries.

The doctrine of infant damnation is entirely eliminated by the adoption of the following substitute for chapter xii, section ii, which now reads:

"Infants dying in infancy, and all other persons who are not guilty of actual transgression are included in the election of grace and are saved and regenerated by Christ through the spirit who worketh when and where and how he pleaseth. So also are all other elect persons who are not called by the ministry of the word."

IN CONGRESS.

The Mad Rush for Public Buildings in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—In the house several bills were introduced and, finding itself with nothing to do adjourned till tomorrow.

When the senate met Senator Walthall was in his seat and received congratulations from his fellow senators of both parties on his reelection.

Senator George entered the chamber while the business of the morning hour was in progress and was also warmly congratulated. After the introduction of several bills the senate took up the calendar, the first eighteen bills on it being for public public buildings.

SEVERE COLD.

A Child Frozen to Death in Ottumwa, Iowa.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Jan. 20.—All trains from the south and west are badly delayed by the extreme cold weather. The thermometer indicated from 28 to 30 below yesterday, coldest in this vicinity for many years. One child is reported frozen to death in this city and much suffering resulted.

The Pope at Right.

ROME, Jan. 20.—The report that the pope is suffering from an attack of influenza was pronounced today at the Vatican to be unfounded. The officials at the Vatican say that instead of being ill, his holiness is enjoying good health, and that he today received the daily reports made by them.

Miss Jennie Snyder is now in the employ of the New French Bakery, 51 College street, where she will be pleased to greet her friends.

Florida oranges, wholesale and retail, Michael Emanuel, 25 North Main street.

FREE COINAGE OF SILVER

IT WILL BE VOTED ON FEBRUARY THE TENTH.

It Looks as if Free and Unlimited Coinage is Likely to Pass the House—The Free Silver Men Are on Top Now, Anyway.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Three weeks from today at 11 o'clock a.m., the house committee on coinage, weights and measures will, by terms of a resolution agreed upon in the committee this morning, vote upon the question of reporting to the house a bill for the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

This decision was reached harmoniously and after the meeting the anti-silver men realized that they were in a minority on the committee and the free-silver men, confident of their strength, were disposed to meet the other side half way in an arrangement that would bring the matter before the house within a reasonable length of time, so that a decision as to the hour of voting was unanimous.

The proceedings in the committee indicate that it is very likely the committee will report to the house a bill for the free and unlimited coinage of silver with the recommendation that it do pass.

SENATOR QUAY TESTIFIES.

He Says He Was Not Connected With the Bardsley Steal.

BEAVER, Pa., Jan. 20.—Senator Quay and David Martin, of Philadelphia, were the most important witnesses examined in the Star libel suit. Martin testified that he came to Quay for campaign funds, and received $1,000 in cash and the senator's personal note for $9,000. The note could not be discounted at the time, and Quay gave him a personal check for that amount. It was discounted later, and John Bardsley gave him a certificate of deposit on the Keystone bank. He gave the certificate to Quay at Washington.

Senator Quay testified that he was asked to give money to the campaign fund, and related the transaction as stated by Martin. He could not swear to his endorsement on the certificate, but swore to the signature on his check. He said he had met John Bardsley but once. He admitted that he was really liable for $18,000 to the Philadelphia company for campaign purposes.

When asked whether he was connected with the Bardsley steal, he replied: "That is false." It was developed that Quay sent the certificate to the Beaver bank, but had not indorsed it. His assistant cashier, S. P. Stone, stated on the stand that he had done it for him. State Chairman Andrews and Senator Porter were also examined, but nothing startling was elicited.

DEALING IN FUTURES.

A Bill to Stop Gambling in Agriculture Products.

Representative Alexander, of North Carolina, has introduced in the house a bill relating to "gambling in agricultural products." This gambling, according to the bill, is defined to be a contract to sell for future delivery corn, wheat, oats, rye, barley, etc., the contractor or seller not being the owner at the time of the making of the contract.

The bill excludes from mails any letters, postal cards, or circulars, concerning gambling in agricultural products and checks, drafts, bills, money, postal notes, or money orders for use for such a purpose. It also excludes from the mails, newspapers, circulars, pamphlets, or publications of any kind containing advertisements, telegraphic reports or other articles giving quotations of any market relating to gambling in agricultural products. A tax of $2 per word is levied on each interstate telegraph or telephone message used for or in aid of the gambling referred to in the act.

THE SNOW FALL.

Maj. Wilson Says It is Greatest at High Point.

Maj. James W. Wilson, chairman of the railway commission and one of the most observant men in North Carolina, says that he has for thirty-five years made observations of the weather, and finds that the greatest snow fall in the state is in the vicinity of High Point, and the second in point of quantity is in the section near Littleton.

R. & D. Officials.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The recently elected Directors of the R. & D. met and re-elected the following officers: Second Vice President A. B. Andrews, Raleigh; Third Vice President, Jno. A. Rutherford, of New York; Gen. Manager, W. H. Green, of Atlanta, Ga.; Traffic Manager, Solomon Haas, Atlanta.

Collapse of a Bridge.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 20.—As a procession of the clergy and people was crossing an arm of the Kura river at Tiflis, on the occasion of the blessing of the waters Monday the temporary bridge in use collapsed.

Many were drowned or crushed to death and a large number were injured.

An Old Citizen Dead.

MORRISTOWN, Tenn., Jan. 20.—Mr. Thos. Read, of Grainger county, died at his home in that county Sunday. He was the father of Mr. J. S. Read, secretary and treasurer of the Morristown Loan, and also a large stockholder in the Lookout bank in this city.

$70,000 Offered for Advertiser.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—It is rumored here that a syndicate of Iowa horsemen has offered Senator Stanford's representatives $70,000 for Advertiser, who as a three-year-old last season trotted 2:17.

Mr. Cleveland's Contribution.

MADISON, Ind., Jan. 20.—The Madison Hebrew Congregation Anath-Israel has received a letter from ex-President Cleveland inclosing a donation of $10 towards repairing their synagogue.

Bowman the Man.

WASHINGTON, January 20.—The president has nominated A. A. Bowman for collector of internal revenue in the second district of Tennessee.
