

ADVERTISE. But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think.—Byron.

CONGRESS DOING NOTHING

KILLING TIME AND DRAWING THEIR PAY.

The House considered the important matter whether eulogies to dead members shall be delivered on Sundays or during the regular business hours.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—In the senate in the absence of Vice-President Morton who has been gone to New York for a few days, the chair was occupied by Mr. Manderson, as president pro tem.

Among the bills reported from the committee and placed on the calendar were the following:

Authorizing the construction of bridges across the Talapoosa and Coosa rivers. To extend the provisions of the act in relation to the immediate transportation of dutiable goods to St. Augustine, Fla.

The following reported back adversely:

To extend the provisions of the act for the immediate transportation of dutiable goods to Fernandina, Fla.

At the request of Mr. Pasco this bill was placed on the calendar.

At 12:30 the senate proceeded to executive business.

When the doors were reopened the report of the committee on privileges and elections in the case of the Florida senatorship, declaring Call entitled to the seat, was taken up for action, and the report read, closing with the sentence "the appointment of Davidson was an act of mere expediency, which it is not necessary further to notice."

In the house the consideration of the rules having been resumed, Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, offered an amendment providing that eulogies to deceased members shall be delivered on Sundays, and Sundays only, which day the ceremonies shall be opened with prayer by the chaplain. These services, he said, were in the nature of religious services, and no more appropriate day could be selected for giving tribute to deceased members than Sunday.

Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, seconded the amendment. He believed that memorial services were educational and proper and the Lord's day was the most suitable one that could be chosen.

Mr. Ray, of New York, opposed the amendment. It was evident, he said, that the interest of those persons who never attended church but who could come here on the Sabbath day and listen to oratory.

Mr. Reed, of Maine, gave the information that the consumption of time in the first session of the last congress for memorial services was twenty-four days.

HARRIS FOUND GUILTY.

The End of an Exciting Murder Trial in New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Carlyle W. Harris, the young student charged with having murdered his wife, who was known as Miss Helen Potts, was found guilty of murder in the first degree. The case has attracted widespread interest, and has been on trial for some time.

On February 1, 1891, Helen Potts, daughter of a wealthy railroad conductor, of Asbury Park, N. J., who was in attendance at a fashionable boarding school in this city, died after a brief illness. The death at first was supposed to be due to natural causes, and preparations were made for the funeral. Then, in a sudden manner, the name of Carlyle Harris, also of Asbury Park, who was studying medicine in this city, became linked with that of the dead girl. The whispers grew as time progressed until finally the authorities took cognizance of the matter, and an autopsy was held on the body of the young lady, which resulted in the discovery that death was due to morphine poisoning.

Harris was arrested and indicted, and then it leaked out that he and Miss Potts had been clandestinely married. The authorities finally became convinced that he had murdered the young woman. He admitted having prescribed some morphine pills for some affection with which she claimed she was afflicted, but stated that the doses were not sufficiently large to do harm.

The verdict was unexpected by the accused and he broke down completely when it was announced. His mother, who has been constantly at his side during the trial, was very much affected and created a scene. She fell back in her chair, shrieking, "It's a lie—a lie!"

THEY GIVE UP.
The Louisiana Lottery Will Not Accept a New Charter.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4.—A card is made public from John A. Morris, addressed to the people of Louisiana in which Morris, concerning the efforts to obtain the extension of the Louisiana lottery, says:

"Realizing thoroughly, my associates and I, that we have been incorrect in our opinion of the public sentiment on this question of a new charter, and not desiring to see the people of the state of Louisiana involved in strife over my part, and upon the part of my associates, that we would not accept or qualify another amendment (lottery amendment) to the constitution, even were it to be adopted by the people at the general election of April next."

OMAHA QUAKES.

A Light Shock Felt in That City Last Night.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 4.—There was a light shock of earthquake felt here about 10:30 last night, lasting for a few seconds. It seemed most perceptible in the vicinity of the police station and Grand Central hotel at 14th and Jones streets, where pictures were thrown from the wall and crockery and glass were smashed.

A large bank of earth caved in, crushing in a two-story frame house, burying P. H. Green and his wife and two children in the debris. The woman and children luckily escaped unhurt. Green was not so fortunate, being caught beneath some timber and receiving internal injuries. The quake had a peculiar motion, seeming to extend from east to west. For a time it created considerable excitement.

Cotton Brokers Missing.
MEMPHIS, Feb. 4.—The two brothers, of the firm of Jones Brothers & Co., large cotton buyers, have disappeared.

A REMARKABLE OPERATION.

It is Performed by Dr. Whitehead of the University.

CHAPEL HILL, Feb. 4.—[Special.]—Dr. R. H. Whitehead, instructor in anatomy and materia medica in the university medical school, has just saved the life of a little negro girl nine years old, by producing artificial digestion in the gullet. The girl, who lives in Durham, swallowed a large piece of hard beef with a cartilage attached, and it stuck in her gullet. A local physician pushed it down the gullet with an instrument, thinking to get it into the stomach, but it remained tightly lodged in the gullet, several inches above the stomach. The child was unable to eat or drink for six days, and began to suffer great pain. Her life was despaired of, and she had been snatched at water which she would drink only to throw out again. Her mother took her over to Chapel Hill where the other members of the family lived, expecting her to die at any moment.

Dr. Whitehead heard of the case, found that the obstruction could not be pushed down into the stomach without tearing the gullet, and made an artificial gastric juice by taking pepsin syrup and hydrochloric acid in proper preparations, these being the constituents of the natural gastric juice of the stomach. This artificial preparation was placed upon the gullet. In a few hours the piece of cartilage was vomited up. A few more hours and the beef was so far digested that it passed easily into the stomach.

The child is doing well, and she owes her life to the happy genius of Dr. Whitehead.

TAKE HIS WORD.

S. V. White's Creditors Release Him Without a Written Line.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—S. V. White was formally posted on the New York stock exchange as a candidate for re-admission. The committee will vote on the application today.

The terms of Mr. White's settlement with his creditors were made known yesterday. They have no precedent in the history of Wall street.

In a word, his New York creditors, representing $1,000,000, have taken his word to pay up, with interest, as soon as he is able. All have signed off their claims, and have given Mr. White a full release. They asked for no paper from him in acknowledgment of the claims. Mr. White said to them:

"Gentlemen, I will pay you with interest when I get on my feet again."

This is in evidence before the stock exchange committee. There being, therefore, no claims against Mr. White, his readmission is not disputed.

Wall street men who learned of the action of Mr. White's creditors, said it was the greatest compliment the street had ever witnessed.

NO CAUCUS ON SILVER.

Mr. Harter Thinks That a Caucus is Unnecessary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—No caucus on the silver question will be held tomorrow by the democrats of the house. The caucus held Saturday night increased the number of necessary signatures to caucus calls to thirty-five and Mr. Harter, of Ohio, has decided not to press the caucus at present.

Mr. Harter himself says that his reason for abandoning the move is that democratic sentiment against free coinage is increasing, and that there is now no danger that a free coinage bill will be forced through the house.

CARDINAL MANNING'S WILL.

He Lived Right, and Consequently Died Very Poor.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The will of the late Cardinal Manning was opened today. It shows he possessed less than 100 pounds, which was in consols, and a collection of books. This fact speaks louder than words in showing the benevolence of the Cardinal. The will contains no statement of public interest.

$16,000 Found in a Trunk.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 4.—John Pregel, a workman in a lithographing establishment in this city, died on Friday. In an old trunk, the family found stored away $16,000 in cash, three policies of life insurance, aggregating $6,000, and a building association book calling for $800.

The strange thing about this is that none of his family, with all of whom his relations were entirely happy, had ever been apprised by him of any of the valuable contents of this old trunk.

The President's Salary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Representative Grady, of North Carolina, has introduced a bill in the house to reduce the president's salary to $25,000 a year. The bill also proposes to reduce all other salaries, wages, fees, and commutations exceeding $100 and less than $167 a month by ten per cent., ranging from $167 to $360, fifteen per cent., exceeding $360, except in the case of the salary of the President and other salaries forbidden by law to be reduced, twenty per cent.

Quay is a Presbyter.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 4.—The new Presbyterian church at Beaver, has been dedicated. The church cost $50,000. Senator Quay contributed $2,500 toward its erection and paid $100 for a pew. The Senator's father was for two years pastor of the old Presbyterian church.

Gov. Thayer Will Not Resist.

KEYSTONE BANK AFFAIR

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THIS GREAT FINANCIAL WRECK.

Henry H. Yard is Shown to Have Gotten a Big Slice Out of the Defunct Institution—He is Held in $20,000 Bail For His Further Appearance.

PHILADELPHIA Feb. 4.—At the hearing of Henry H. Yard, who was involved with ex-City Treasurer John Bardsley and President G. W. Marsh in the wreck of the Keystone bank, some evidence was introduced by United States District Attorney Reed which created a decided sensation and promises to unravel the mystery of the disappearance of the bank's entire capital.

Government expert A. R. Barrett testified from his examination of the bank books that Yard's indebtedness at the time of its closing in March last was $493,785, including over drafts of $278,611. Of the remainder there are four certificates of deposit amounting to $5,000 each issued to Yard without being charged against him, action on which is barred by the statute of limitation, the notes outstanding at the time of closing amounting to $119,273, a $10,000 certificate of deposit issued like the others to Yard and others amounting to $65,900, some of which are charged against Yard on the books, although in no instance did the latter make a deposit to meet the certificate.

The $10,000 check was not charged to any account of Yard's but on the following day he turned it over to the bank with $15,000 of foreign checks, receiving in exchange a clearing house check for $25,000, thus paying the bank with its own funds. The due bill in question was shown to have been turned over to Spring Lake and Sea Girt company, of which Yard was president, and used to meet its obligations. The certificates were issued directly to Yard, except in one or two instances, when the name of W. S. Jackson is used "per Yard."

The ledgers of the bank for 1888 and 1889 were produced and the leaves were found to be torn out where Yard's individual account would have explained had any been entered. The false certificates given Yard were issued between March, 1889, and June, 1890, when his overdrafts ranged from $150,000 to $250,000.

At the conclusion of the hearing Yard was held in $20,000 bail for trial.

BLOODY WORK

A Mob Shoots at Two Negroes, But Kill Their Mother.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 4. Another bloody chapter has been added to the Berry barn burning in Martin county, near Hendersonville. Five of the negroes tried last fall at Gallitzin were acquitted. They were Martin negroes and were warned by all that they had better leave the country. They returned Christmas and were again warned.

Last night a mob of men, names unknown, heard they were in the cabin of their mother and went there and called to them to come out, which was refused. The mob then shot through the window and the old mother was shot and killed instantly. The Martin negroes remained in the cabin until about daylight, when they fled. The excitement is great.

Spurgeon's Funeral Service.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The funeral service over the remains of the Rev. C. H. Spurgeon occurred today at the tabernacle, beginning at 11 a. m. The burial occurred at the Northwood cemetery, at 2:30 p. m. The principal officiating was Rev. Dr. Medhurst, who was Spurgeon's first pupil.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

HOME.

It is said the river and harbor committee of the house will make a large cut in last year's appropriations.

The indications are that the senate finance committee will recommend adverse action on Mr. Stewart's bill for the free coinage of silver.

It is believed the friends of President Harrison will insist on Mr. Blaine writing a letter withdrawing from the presidential race or making some formal declarations of his intentions.

In the United States senate, Senator Voorhees vigorously denounced the Philadelphia correspondent of the Philadelphia Press for charging him with an attempted coalition with Senators Quay, Cameron and Higgins, by agreeing to vote against the confirmation of George M. Dallas, of Pennsylvania, for circuit judge, provided they would reciprocate and vote against the confirmation of Judge Woods, of Indiana. The senators named emphatically asserted that Mr. Voorhees never made a suggestion to them of the kind indicated by the correspondent of the Press.

FOREIGN.

The drying room of the new smokeless powder factory in Pressburg, Hungary, caught fire and an explosion followed quickly, in which three men were fatally injured and the factory badly wrecked.

The American School of Archaeology has completed the excavations at the theatres at Sikyon and Eretria, Greece. It has obtained a concession to dig at Heracleum and Argos, and the exclusive right to dig for four years at Sparta, Amyklæ and Lakonia.

At Exeter, England, Lord Salisbury, in addressing a great meeting of Devonshire conservatives, declared that Ireland remained the burning question in British politics, and on the parliamentary measures affecting would rest the issue not only of the next election, but perhaps of others.

A bottle found floating near Lerwick, a burg of Scotland and the chief town of Mainland, one of the Shetland Islands, contained a message from Fowla, an island of the Shetland group, eighteen miles west of the other islands of the group, stating owing to the absence of communication with the other islands, weather being exceedingly stormy, that the inhabitants of Fowla are on the verge of starvation. They had at the time the bottle was thrown into the water only a few potatoes and a little meal left.
