THE FAMINE IN RUSSIA

MORE THAN 14,000,000 PERSONS WITHOUT FOOD.
An Official Statement from Minister Smith as to the Condition of Affairs—Greatest Calamity in the World Within This Century.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—In response to many sympathetic inquiries and proffers of aid received from friends in the United States the department of state has received from Minister Smith at St. Petersburg an interesting report of the actual conditions of the stricken districts of Russia, prepared from evidence of eye witnesses and most trustworthy sources, of which the following is an epitome:
The territory afflicted by the drought comprises thirteen provinces of European Russia, where the famine is general, viz: Kazan, Nij Novgorod, Orenburg, Oufa, Pensa, Riazan, Samara, Saratov, Simbirsk, Tambov, Toula, Viatka, and Voronege. In five other provinces the famine prevails in part, viz: Kursk, Olenok, Orel, Perm and Tauride. One or two others, like Kharkov, have suffered to some extent, but are not included in the official reports.
The first thirteen provinces cover an area equal to the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, and Kentucky. The population is about equal, or about 27,000,000. The five provinces named, if included in the comparison, would equal the combined area of Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and half of Ohio. The total population of these last five provinces is nearly double that of the eleven states. This vast section is agricultural, and ordinarily the most fruitful soil of Russia.

The destitution is not universal, as there are those whose accumulations have saved them from want, and there are some spots preserved from blight by irrigation where a good harvest was reaped, but at the best the estimate of the proportion of suffering is enormous. An official estimate of the number of those without food or means of support who require aid is given as 14,000,000 persons, and this is probably below the true number. Time is a most important factor in the work of relief. One hundred and eighty million pounds of food are necessary. Fifty million more are required every day, but only eleven car loads per day were received Christmas week. The imperial government has up to the present time been unable to do more than to call on the treasury for the work of relief, but the work must still go on. The Russian emperor has personally given enormously and abundantly, and is giving according to their means. The loss to the treasury revenue will be at least 200,000,000 rubles, about $100,000,000, while a conservative estimate of the losses to Russia is placed at not less than one thousand million rubles. Up to the present there have been few contributions from abroad, but the government and the people of Russia are deeply sensible of spontaneous offerings that have been made in various parts of the United States, and the emperor as well as others have intimated as much to Mr. Smith.

THE OSBORNE AFFAIR.

A Pathetic Scene Before the Lord Mayor of London.
LONDON, Feb. 5.—Mrs. Florence Ethel Osborne, who voluntarily surrendered herself yesterday to answer to charges made against her in connection with the theft and sale of a quantity of valuable jewelry belonging to Mrs. Hargreaves, formerly a friend and confidante of the late Lord Mayor Evans, this morning, she appeared to be utterly broken down. She kept her handkerchief to her eyes, and occasionally her whole frame would shake with convulsive sobs. In every way she appeared to appreciate the painful position.

Capt. Osborne was most solicitous and devoted in his attention. He kept his hand on her arm, and tried by word and kindly touch to comfort her and make her feel no matter what happened he would stand her friend to the end of the scene.

There was suspicious moisture in the eyes of some of the court attendants who it would be thought were hardened to scenes of misery and suffering.
At 10:30 o'clock after the usual formalities were complied with, the court was declared open and the formal charge against Mrs. Osborne of obtaining money under false pretense by representing herself as the rightful owner of the jewelry she sold to Spink & Sons was read.

Mr. Osborne and the solicitor arose and announced that Mrs. Osborne had surrendered herself voluntarily to the police in order to meet the charge against her. Lord Mayor Evans said he was unable to proceed with the case until the treasury was represented. Then ensued a long wait, which proved too much for the strained nerves of Mrs. Osborne. She seemed choking and became hysterical. Her husband inquired and gave her a glass of water, but nothing seemed to calm her. Finally the scene became extremely painful and at the Lord Mayor's suggestion she was taken to the adjourned committee room to wait the coming of the representative of the treasury.

Capt. Osborne supported her on one side and a stalwart Jeter on the other. They were compelled almost to carry her and as they neared the door of the committee room she placed her arms around her husband's neck and would have fallen from the floor had not the detective supported her. As she was carried through the court room there was a murmur of pity from the people. It was without doubt the saddest scene ever witnessed in a London court room and the abject misery and helplessness of the unfortunate woman touched all hearts.

BUDGET FROM BINGHAM'S

WHAT GOES ON AT THE BIG MILITARY SCHOOL.
"The Citizen's" Regular Correspondent Talks Some on the Weather, and Tells How One of the Cadets Got Fired.
BINGHAM HEIGHTS, Feb. 5.—[Special.]—The Asheville climate during October, November and December, when our first acquaintance began, your correspondent thought that it was no wonder people should come from far and near to enjoy such delicious air and sunshine and such lovely scenery; and the denying Peters and the doubting Thomases, who had it all their own way last winter. I hear, and were happy, could grumble only because there was nothing in air, earth or sky to grumble at. But "every dog has his day," and the growing species of canines, for a little while, had an opportunity of wagging their heads, and saving "ai ah" as if the storm god never flapped his wings over any place but Asheville, and as if there were no mud anywhere. For in fact, we hear of mud weather everywhere, and as for snow—while we hear of eight inches one week and ten another from Memphis to Morehead City, there has not been enough on our hill to track a rabbit, or make a decent snow ball, much less a real snow fight which the boys always enjoy.

Our Reading Room.
Our two literary societies, the Kalithenic and the K. E. Lee, have each established a reading room, supplied with the best monthly magazines and weekly and daily papers. The committees, of which Cadets Collier and Langston are chairmen, deserve great credit for their judgment in selecting reading matter, and their taste in getting up the rooms. When your sanctum fails to supply you with sufficient information upon the topics of the day, come over to our reading rooms on the Heights and rest, refresh and inform yourself.

Our Discipline Illustrated.
Every now and then some boy breaks over the rules and regulations and has to be "fired," and when one breaks over he knows exactly what is coming—and it comes. But we had a case of discipline last week which justified school's discipline, and we claim to be the best school in the South. The "American Knight" as it has often been called, from the very high standard of honor which prevails among the boys. We don't claim to be sinless, but we do claim to be the best school in the South. Boys will be boys and they ought to be boys and most of them have more talent for pie than for poetry. But we seem a liar as we do a thief. In the next train took the offender from the school, a cadet told a teacher a falsehood about violating an order. That same night the cadet officers met, summoned him before them, heard the evidence carefully and patiently, convicted him by a unanimous vote and asked for his expulsion from the school. The faculty cordially affirmed the verdict, and the next train took the offender from the school. We are put upon our honor more than in other schools in the country, and there is more honor here to put us upon than anywhere else—as far as any of us know other schools. N. X. Y.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Speaker Crisp So Hoarse That He Can Scarcely Speak.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Mr. Fithian, of Illinois, sent to the speaker for reference, a bill placing firm implements upon the free list. He wished to have the bill printed in the Record, but the speaker declined to recognize him for the purpose of making that request at the present time.

Mr. Crisp is very hoarse and his voice is hardly audible. The calling of the committee for reports, which is usually made by the speaker in person was delegated to one of the reading clerks, the speaker being desirous of saving his throat as much as possible. Finally he left the chair and yielded the gavel to Mr. McMillan, of Tennessee.

THE MISSISSIPPI LEGISLATURE CONSTITUTIONAL.

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 5.—Representative Freiton, upon the arrival of the New Orleans papers yesterday, offered the following resolution, which was passed:

"Whereas, the house of representatives of the state of Mississippi has just learned that the Louisiana Lottery company, which has been fighting for a recharter in view of the recent decision of the supreme court shutting it out of the courts has announced its unconditional withdrawal from the contest, therefore be it Resolved, That this house, speaking for the moral people of this great commonwealth, greet with the warmest congratulations the country that the days of the lottery are numbered."

EGAN'S HOUSE GUARDED.

Is It Possible for the Chilian Question to be Reopened?
LONDON, Feb. 5.—The correspondent of the Times at Valparaiso says: "A police guard has been placed at the house of Egan, United States minister at Santiago, maintained by the Chilian authorities with a view of preventing any attack at the instance of the tough element. This fact the correspondent says threatens to bring about a reopening of the difficulty with the United States. The correspondent further says that the police judge at Valparaiso has increased the severity of the sentences imposed upon the assailants of the United States steamer Baltimore. This course was demanded by the procurator. The prisoners may appeal from the extra sentences.

HALL TO HANG.

An Attempt to Rescue Him Is Thought Probable.
BOSTON, Tenn., Feb. 5.—Tallent Hall has been sentenced to hang March 14. Hall's counsel will apply to the circuit court for a stay of execution. Excitement runs high in the neighborhood of Gladstone and an outbreak is expected at any time. Hall has given up all hope and says he does not think a new trial will do any good, that the next jury will do just like this one, so he has asked that his wife and children be sent for, that he may bid them good bye. At a late hour last night no attempt at his rescue had been made, but there is no telling what may come.

SUCH ACCOMMODATIONS!

THE LATEST MOVE OF THE R. & D. ROAD.
A Spirited and Just Protest Against the Taking Off of the Two Night Trains on the Western North Carolina Road.
EDITOR THE CITIZEN.—The intended action of the railroad authorities to discontinue two passenger trains out of the four now running to and from this city, on the main line of the Western North Carolina road, must present itself to every one who has the interest and future development of Asheville at heart, as a serious step in the wrong direction, and one that should be fought, and if possible be prevented, by every means at command. Taking in view the immense increase and the large amount of business this line has received from the people of this city during the past few years, it would seem as if the officials of the railroad, instead of curtailing the not too liberal accommodation, would in their own interest do nothing more, seek to extend them, and by so doing reap their share of benefits arising from the increase of travel and settlement and the resulting prosperity of the section of country through which their line passes.

On the facilities, comforts and accommodations presented by the established lines of railroads the growth and prosperity of every community largely depends, and keeping this fact in view, this city, owing to the large number of invalids, the many tourists, and the temporary visiting place, is more dependent on the railroad than any other place on the line, and when you deprive them of the means of easily and comfortably reaching their destination, you divert a large portion to other more accessible points. The officials of the railroad no doubt think by taking away one-half of the accommodation now extended by them to their patrons, the traveling public, they are economizing. Poor economy, gentlemen, and one that will eventually result to your own disadvantage. It is not to the interest of the railroad to encourage by every means in its power the growth and advancement of the section of country in which it operates the lines, then the quicker it steps down and the better for the stockholder and the better for the surrounding country. Can taking away 50 per cent. of an already limited accommodation be considered a mark of encouragement? This action on the part of the railroad authorities is not only a blow to a thriving city like Asheville merely a one-horse station is, to say the least, gross and unequal for ingratitude to the many public spirited citizens who have invested their capital and weaned their brains to build up and improve this city. The very corporation that has reaped the benefits from their risks and labors, turns around and deals a blow at their prosperity which they were entitled to, as a reward for their push and energy.

THE EXPRESS MESSAGERS.

Brotherhood Still Being Ruined by Express Companies.
St. Louis, Feb. 5.—Despite the denials of the local officers of the Adams Express Co., it is positively asserted that several discharges of old messengers, said to belong to the Brotherhood, have taken place during the past few days. On the Ohio and Mississippi between St. Louis and Cincinnati, five messengers have been dismissed, while others on this run are expecting their walking passes every minute.

NEARLY AN ACCIDENT.

A Scaffolding Falls and Two Men Are Killed.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 5.—A horrible accident occurred at the Stoss Inn yesterday afternoon two men being killed outright and six badly injured.

A hot blast stove was being erected and the men were working on a scaffold in the interior of the walls, fifty-eight feet from the ground. Suddenly the scaffold gave way and four men with all their implements and the large forge fell to the ground in an undecipherable and horrible mass.

THE FIRST CONTEST.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The house committee on elections today decided the first election case it has considered, and decided it in favor of contestant Craig, democrat, who has been contesting the seat of Stewart, republican, from the 24th congressional district of Pennsylvania. The vote stood 10 to 3; Hauger and Doan, republicans, concurring with the democrats in their finding.

LOUISIANA REJOICES.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5.—Artillery salutes of 50 or 100 guns have been fired in New Orleans, New Iberia, Thibodaux, Morgan City, and other points of the state over the decision of the United States supreme court approving the validity and constitutionality of the anti-lottery postal law.

RI HMOOD FIRE.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 5.—The plant of the Transparent Ice Works, owned by Herman Schmidt, was partially destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is estimated at $11,000; insurance, $6,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. The factory was not in operation.

WEDDED IN GREENSBORO

E. C. CHAMBERS AND MISS CLARA ALBRIGHT.
GREENSBORO, Feb. 4.—[Special.]—West Market M. E. church, in this city, was the scene of a beautiful marriage ceremony tonight—the union of Miss Clara Albright, of Greensboro, and Mr. E. C. Chambers, one of Asheville's popular business men. The decorations were elaborate and beautiful—all the work of the West End circle of King's Daughters and their friends, under the skillful direction of Mrs. Lucy Robertson. The bride has been president of this circle of King's Daughters since its organization until last week when she tendered her resignation. All the bridesmaids except Miss Brower, of Mount Airy, are members of the West End circle.

The ushers were R. M. Albright, H. W. Wharton, Jno. Wheeler and M. S. Sherwood. The following were attendants: Mr. P. A. McIlroy, of Asheville, and Miss Rosa Andrews, Mr. Jas. E. Mann and Miss Pattie Caldwell, Mr. Jno. N. Wilson and Miss Laura Doubt, Mr. E. D. Monroe, of Asheville, and Miss Sue Gregory, the bride, Miss Clara Albright, and Miss Mary Brown; the groom, Mr. E. C. Chambers and Mr. F. M. Weaver, of Asheville. The pages were Masters Waldo Porter and Vivian Blackburn. The bridesmaids, Misses Andrews, Gregory and Brown, were attired in yellow silk, chignon trimming; Misses Doubt and Caldwell in white silk, chignon trimming. The bride wore white brocade satin, chignon trimming, diamond ornaments, a present of the groom, and the Matinee cross, the badge of the King's Daughters. The little pages were resplendent in white and gold.

HARD ON HARRISON.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Senator John J. Ingalls of Kansas said that the suppositions trouble with Chili was manufactured by people who have direct interest in securing a big appropriation from congress to build an expensive, useless, unnecessary navy. It was the annual war scare which is gotten up by those same people just about the beginning of every congress.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

HOME.
An effort is being made in Philadelphia to secure good men for the city council. Seven mail pouches were stolen on their way from New York to Hoboken. Subscriptions for the Russian famine fund in Philadelphia yesterday amounted to $2,000.

Senator Hill is criticized for devoting so much time to New York politics to the exclusion of his duties in the United States senate.

FOREIGN.

Mr. Patrick Egan is quoted as saying that he invites the fullest inquiry into the charges against United States minister to Chili.

Paris papers today say that Finance has been arrested for stealing 1,500,000 francs. His relations found bail for his release.

LIVING QUESTIONS.

are most esteemed by every intelligent man and woman. Derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels speedily present to us the living question of obtaining relief. It is at once found in Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure sick headache, constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, etc. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, they are unequalled as a specific for the complaints named. One tiny, sugar-coated Pellet a dose, in mild, 25 cents. Carry them in your vest-pocket.

GOOD COOKING.

Is one of the chief blessings of every home. To always insure good cooking, puddings, sauces, etc., use Gail Borden's "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk. Directions on the label. Sold by your grocer and druggist.
