A LITTLE HIGH.

That is the way some people like their game. However, few people want even a picture of Asheville that way. Appreciating that fact and ever desirous of saving the people money (while making some for ourselves) The CITIZEN has purchased the exclusive right to sell the VIEWS of Asheville (which have been sold at $5 each) for a paid-in-advance subscription to The DAILY CITIZEN. That is, you pay us $3 for THE DAILY CITIZEN for six months, and we will give you a superb . picture of Asheville

FREE.

That's a telling ofter-or ought to be. You get THE CITIZEN at the usual rate and the picture besides, and we get the interest on your $3 and the pleasure that comes of being liberal. If you want extra copies of THE PIC-TURE to send away that matter can probably be arranged at the business office of THE CITIZEN. But first we must have the paid-in-advance subscription of $3. That's fair.

N. B.—You can take your choice of the pictures, those on thin or those on thick paper. The former are best to send away; the latter are the best to frame.

bacco are carefully looked over and goods are only shipped to those parties well rated and known to be solvent.

The policy of the company is conservative. The directors meet once a month to audit accounts and transact all necessary business. Since the formation of this stock company it has obtained control of the only eigarette machine in America outside of the cigarette trust that is, "The American Tobacco Company."

The profit in machine made eigarettes is large, varying from about fifty to one hundred per cent. The business is practically cash, as eigarettes are sold for eash or on short time. The Asseville Tobacco Works can selial the eigarettes they nake at a handsome profit offers have come from responsible parties to take the whole output. These fingers are pointing to the fact that 75 acres of land just outside the corporate limits of Asheville, with a magnificent view of the city and the French Broad river, can now be purchased at figures so low that no one expecting to buy a home in Asheville, can afford to let the opportunity for buying pass. In a few months the street cars will be running within five mirutes' walk of any portion of this land. Will be sold as a whole or in lots to suit, and on easy terms. Address, for full particulars, P.
