

ADVERTISE.
But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think.—Byron.

Asheville Daily Citizen.

ADVERTISE.
Many a man has attributed his success in life to peculiar talents and business capacity, when the fact is he sailed to prosperity on the wings of an advertisement.

JEALOUSY, GREEN EYES.

Both are found in business as well as in love. When a business man finds out that a competitor is jealous of his success the successful expects a display of fire works which naturally and to the irritation of the envious illuminates the horizon and causes that success and the reasons thereof obvious to all. People who conduct a legitimate business and perform the same in a legitimate manner usually succeed.

THE HOSPITAL'S REPORT

A YEAR'S WORK AT THIS IN-STITUTION.

Miss Fannie L. Patton, the Secretary and Treasurer, issues the Yearly Statement. Together

With the Physicians' Reports,

Etc.

THE CITIZEN is glad to be able today to print extracts from the report of that noble institution the Mission hospital.

The report has just left the hands of the printer. While it is not as satisfactory as the friends of the good work would desire, still there is cause for gratification, and the hope that another year's report will show a greater degree of appreciation on the part of the good people of Asheville. This is the sixth anual report of the hospital work up to December 31, 1891. In presenting the report Miss Fannie L. Patton, the secretary and treasurer says:

"The bright prospects, with which the year opened, of a large, new and thoroughly equipped building, presided over by trained nurses of highest attainments in their professions, have been cruelly blighted by the action of the mayor and the board of aldermen in stopping the work. While we consider ourselves unjustly treated, we have borne ourselves with dignity and patience, resting our cause in a higher power, and believing that all things will work together for good in the end.

"In looking over the list of our contributors it will be found that a large proportion of our citizens are not represented. The support this year has been allowed to fall upon the few faithful old friends who never fail to send their gifts.

Without these staunch and loyal few, we would have fared badly this year, but as long as these remain in Asheville we feel confident of being able to pay our way.

But why is this good work left to so few? Even a small sum from a majority of our citizens, who can well afford it, would make this the grand work it ought to be.

"We have met with a loss in the removal from Asheville of Dr. F. T. Merri-wether, who was our coadjutor for so long. We have had the pleasure of adding to our medical staff the following gentlemen: Drs. W. D. Hilliard, Chas.

Jordan, C. E. Hilliard, T. P. Chesbrorough. We feel that their names are sufficient guarantee of the work of the hospital, especially when associated with our faithful old fellow workers.

"We earnestly pray that God will give us wisdom and understanding, and that this Christ-like work shall neither falter nor fail through our unfaithfulness.

Report of Sick.

Dr. S. Westray Battle, chief of the hospital medical staff, in his report to the board of managers says:

"I have the honor to present herewith the sixth annual report of sick for the Mission hospital for the year ending

December 31, 1891.

Remaining from 1890, 7; number admitted 1890, 87, (67 white, 20 colored); total number sick days 2,653; daily average of patients 7,78-365; number of deaths 8, (6 white, 2 colored); number of patients remaining 5.

"While the work done has not been overwhelmingly great, it has been quite up to the means at our disposal, and the results excellent under the conditions.

We have not the new and complete home for the sick we had a right to expect, but we cannot have everything we want and just when we want it. . . .

THE ST. LOUIS MEETING

STREETER, OF ILLINOIS EX-

PRESSES HIS VIEWS.

He Fears that Politicians May Interfere With Their Plans—Miss

Willard's Ideas on Consolidation With Other Parties.

St. Louis, Feb. 23.—Col. Polk said they expected to get through in two or three days. The sub-treasury scheme and the Ocala platform would be in-doorsed. He believed a plank will be inserted in the platform asking that the federal government stop interfering with state regulation of the liquor traffic.

The hopes of those who have been instrumental in the bringing of the conference together, was shown by an interview with A. J. Streeter, of Illinois, who also sees that the contemplated plan is not without obstacles.

"One of our great difficulties," he said, "will arise from the fact that there will be present at the conference men who are interested in the old parties.

These men have no right to be present, but they will be there, and they will try to manipulate affairs. The reform element is anxious to organize a new political party, comprising all those who object to present conditions.
