JEALOUSY, GREEN EYES.

Both are found in business as well as in love. When a business man finds out that a competitor is jealous of his success the successful expects a display of fire works which naturally and to the irritation of the envious illuminates the horizon and causes that success and the reasons thereof obvious to all. People who conduct a legitimate business and perform the same in a legitimate manner usually succeed.

We are showing some of the most brilliant novelties ever displayed in jewelry. It would be easier to tell you what we haven't got than what we have. If you haven't seen our elegant trifles in gold and in silver, there is a treat awaiting you, and, whether you have purchases in mind or not, you should not miss them. It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

Burned Down in New Jersey.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Feb. 26.—The plant of the Union cloth company, at Elizabethport was destroyed by fire at 10 o'clock this morning. The flames had their origin in the boiler room and consumed the entire works, which consisted of frame buildings occupying a block on Third avenue.

The company was a co-operative organization composed of a dozen Philadelphia merchants and members of the Knights of Labor who were locked out by their employers in that city six years ago. Table cloths were made there. There was no insurance.

Berlin's Unemployed Workmen Make a Big Demonstration But Are Repulsed By the Police—Strike in New Orleans.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—A body of two thousand unemployed workmen held a meeting today with the object of deciding upon some course of action that would improve their condition. Upon the conclusion of the meeting a procession was formed and marched down the Unter den Linden singing the "Marseillaise." When the procession reached the castle of the emperor it was met by a body of soldiers. The officer in command ordered the procession to make way for the soldiers, but the workmen refused to do so. The police then charged the crowd and a free fight ensued. After a short struggle the workmen were dispersed and the leaders were arrested.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—At an early hour this morning menacing crowds of workmen began to assemble in Unter den Linden. A strong police force kept the crowd moving. By noon the crowds were so great the police felt it to be dangerous to allow them to remain in the streets especially as the threat of looting of the shops had been made. They therefore charged the crowds, but met with determined resistance and repeated charges were necessary before they were dispersed. The crowd in Kaiser Wilhelm Strasse especially was determined to hold their ground. The police had no effect whatever and the police were compelled to withdraw, some having been quite severely hurt by the sticks and stones of the mob. The police then drew swords and charged, slashing right and left. The mob still held its ground, but finally began slowly to give way, entering every inch of ground. The police enraged at the resistance, rallied, made another charge, and after a hard scuffle the crowd broke and ran in every direction.

3:30 P. M.—Many things have been said for and against Emperor William, but he has never been accused of cowardice. Though he is no doubt greatly disturbed by the events of yesterday and today, he does not show any anxiety in the face as to what the final outcome will be. There was great excitement in the vicinity of the castle at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, when his majesty, attended by one aid and preceded by two mounted policemen, emerged on horseback from the castle court yard, and rode slowly through the streets, notwithstanding that they were packed by excited masses of people.

He was loudly and enthusiastically cheered by the masses through which he proceeded. He rode along Unter den Linden to Thiergarten and everywhere was the recipient of a most hearty welcome from the excited people.

Some of the emperor's most legislative measures may be bitterly opposed by the people, but their action this afternoon showed that personally he is a great favorite. His appearance on the streets during a time like the present is apt to have a good effect in the direction of cooling the anger of the excited workmen.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 26.—The strike of Longshore men is on, and 2,000 men are out of work. Their demand is an hour's pay for fractional parts of an hour. A number of new laborers have been obtained and it is proposed to put them to work. The trouble with the Longshoremen is anticipated and the mayor has been asked for protection.
