It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

MR. SPRINGER IS GRITTY
AND GRIT IS CERTAINLY A WONDERFUL HELP.
The Illinois Congressman Is Better Today and There Are Now Some Strong Hopes of His Recovery.
WASHINGTON, March 4.—There is unquestionably improvement in the condition of Congressman Springer this morning. The erysipelas which has been affecting the brain is rapidly subsiding and the doctors express the belief that all danger of death as the direct result of erysipelas is passed. The only menace to the patient's life now lies in great prostration and loss of vigor which has resulted from the ravages of the malady. An affection styled by the physicians "a nervous cough" still continues to be the most dangerous symptom.
The term "nervous cough," by no means expresses this affection to unprofessional men. It is a spasmodic convulsion of the entire frame, which only resembles a cough in that it has its apparent origin in the lungs and chest. There does not seem to be any obstruction in the air passages and nothing is expelled by this series of spasmodic gasps and strains. The physicians say that this cough, as they term it in the absence of a better name, has its origin in the brain and in the unbalanced condition of certain nerves which communicate with and control the lungs and indeed the entire system.
The physicians this morning authorized the statement that their patient is better and that the crisis is rapidly passing. No change for the worse takes place during the day they believe that he will recover unless something unforeseen should cause a relapse. The purple swelling in the face and head has so far subsided that in another day Mr. Springer's features will almost have assumed their normal appearance.
Mr. Springer is also more restful, and at intervals is able to get a few minutes of apparently peaceful slumber. These symptoms augur well but the most favorable thing of all is that the patient has once more taken a hope and is now battling vigorously for life. Yesterday he had quite given up, and expressed the opinion in confidence to his wife and family that death must ensue, but this morning he frequently announced his conviction that he had "got a new hold," as he expressed it, and that the battle is not lost yet.

THE NEW ORLEANS CASE
A Bill to Give the Federal Government More Power.
WASHINGTON, March 4.—In the senate today among the bills reported from the committees and placed on the calendar were the following: to authorize the Norfolk and Western railroad company, of Virginia, to extend its line of road into the District of Columbia; to authorize the sale of a site of St. Francis Barracks Flat, and to provide for a new site and construction of suitable buildings thereon; to establish lineal promotion through the several lines of artillery, cavalry and infantry of the army.

MISUNDERSTOOD.
Two Brakemen Killed in a Rail Way Wreck.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 4.—A fatal wreck occurred near Dausville, 14 miles west of here, last night on the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham. A work train was run into from the rear by a fast freight. The engine and several cars were demolished, and two brakemen, names unknown, killed. Five other trainmen are reported hurt. A misunderstanding of telegraphic orders caused the wreck.

An Indian for Her Husband.
MONMOUTH, Ill., March 1.—Honey C. Holt, a full-blooded Winnebago Indian, was married in this city today to Miss Maude C. Williams, of New Boston, Ill. The couple met and loved while he was traveling with a number of his tribe advertising a patent medicine. He is not a bad looking young man, and is fairly well educated. The bride is a pretty girl, and could have selected a husband from among a dozen thirty young Indians, but preferred to become the wife of the red man, who she says, has not a single bad habit.—New York Sun.

Perils of the Folding Bed.
SLATER, Mo., March 1.—Josiah Baker, jr., one of the wealthiest stockmen of Central Missouri, and his wife were nearly smothered to death at their home in this place last night by the closing up of a large folding bed, weighing about 500 pounds. The means of Mr. Baker brought his children to the rescue, and their utmost efforts were needed to save the lives of their parents. Mrs. Baker is in a precarious condition. Mr. Baker will sue the manufacturers of the bed.

Richmond Terminal Affairs.
NEW YORK, March 4.—The Herald says: The Richmond terminal reorganization plan which was to be issued this week will not be ready for another week.

NOAH PORTER DEAD
A Great Educator Passed Over to the Majority.
NEW HAVEN, March 4.—Noah Porter died this morning.
Dr. Noah Porter was born at Farmington, that State, in 1811. He was twenty years old when he was graduated from Yale. From 1871 to 1886 he was president of that college, and it was during his incumbency of this office that the noble college buildings which are the special pride of Connecticut, were erected.
Dr. Porter is best known to the people as the principal editor of some revised editions of Webster's Dictionary. He has written much on abstract subjects, and ranks high among the philosophical authors of America. "The Human Intellect," one of his works, is used as a text book at Yale and other institutions of learning.

FURMAN'S PHEASANT.
A Practical Joke on an Asheville Editor.
Editor Furman, of the Democrat, is ordinarily "up to snuff," and hard to be caught napping. He is fond of everything, eatable or drinkable, and if there is anything he prides himself on more than another, it is his sound judgment in the matter of game meats. In fact, he claims to be nearer infallibility on this point than on questions of politics, and everybody knows where to go when political pointers are wanted.
But Col. Furman is unhappy now, and some of his neighbors assert that he has suddenly contracted the habit of staying snugly by himself, and when night comes on he breaks into melody after this fashion: "Too-hoo! too-hoo!"
And this is how it happened:
Furman has a staunch friend in B. B. Freeman, one of the most agents on the backwater branch, and as game is abundant along that line, the Colonel imported Freeman to bring him a few birds, a pheasant or two—or even an opossum or ground hog would beat nothing.

A few days ago there was a brighter smile than usual on the face of the editor of the Democrat, and inquiry developed the fact that the long expected had arrived. A plump, brown plumed pheasant with its speckled breast, had been sent in by Freeman, and great drops of expectation were hanging from the Colonel's mouth.
There was one singular feature about the appearance of the bird, and that was that its head and feet had been cut off, but Furman did not specially fancy those choice parts, and was none the less happy.
The bird was skillfully cleaned and roasted to a delicious brown, rivaling in color the plumage of the stately bird, as it stepped majestically among the peaks of old Balsam.

RAIDED THE BAKERIES
HERLIN'S UNEMPLOYED IN A FERMENT.
Falling to Get Work They Break Into Shops and Help Themselves to Food For Their Wives and Children.
BERLIN, March 4.—Since the disturbances of last week in this city the unemployed workingmen throughout Germany have been in a state of ferment that would require but little to cause an outbreak. At Danzig today, in obedience to notice, 800 men proceeded to the landing stage in expectation that they would be conveyed to municipal sewage farms and put to work. The officials picked out 220 and said they were unable to furnish work for others.
Those refused employment were bitter in denunciation of the truck, as they termed it, and some made violent speeches, calling on the crowd to help themselves to food. The mob left the landing stage and rushed through the streets of the city hurling imprecations on the authorities, declaring they would steal before they would starve. Every baker's shop was raided, and some of the scanty, pale faced men devouring the spoils in a manner which showed they had not tasted food for a long time. Others put the food under their coats to carry home to their wives and children.

AT HILLS HOME!
The Democrats Badly Defeated All Through.
ELMHURST, March 1.—The charter election today resulted in a complete turn over. The regular democratic nominee for Mayor was Frederick Collins, a prominent lawyer and member of the noted firm of Reynolds, Stanchfield & Collins. The opposing candidate was David C. Robinson, son of the late Governor Lucius Robinson, who was nominated by the republicans and independent citizens.
The contest was waged on the lines of indorsement or condemnation of the city administration and was fought with unusual vigor and determination. The result was an overwhelming defeat of the democratic ticket and the election of Colonel Robinson by the unprecedented majority of 1,248.
The republicans and citizen candidates for aldermen were elected in every ward, and also a majority of the supervisors in the city, both justices of the peace and all the constables.—New York Herald.

BOYD THAYER.
The Contest Not Settled, it Would Appear.
LINCOLN, Neb., March 4.—When the Boyd-Thayer case comes up in the supreme court today on the remaining order of the United States supreme court, an answer will be filed by ex-Gov. Thayer's attorney, and the result will be virtually another contest for the gubernatorial seat on the old grounds.

Old But Good Is Palmer
MURKIN, Ill., March 4.—The democratic convention of this, Jackson county, is the first to instruct its delegates to the national convention to vote for Senator Palmer for president this having been done yesterday.

Robbed of $20,000.
COLDWATER, Mich., March 4.—The Coldwater bank was robbed of $20,000 last night. The job was undoubtedly done by experts.
J. G. Jr., Not Exonerated.
From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.
Mr. Blaine may indulge his paternal fondness to the extreme, but he cannot make the rest of the world exonerate James G. Blaine jr., under the baby act.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.
FOREIGN.
The Parnell estate at Avondale will be sold at auction.
The report that Emperor William will visit the World's fair is denied.
HOME.
Rhode Island has elected a solid Cleveland delegation to go to Chicago instructed to vote for him.
The Virginia house of delegates passed a bill appropriating $25,000 to the World's fair, and the senate agreed to it.
Senator Aldrich said at Providence that he believed a free coinage bill would pass both houses of the present term of congress, and that the president would veto it.
The supreme court of Ohio has ousted the Standard Oil company from the right to make certain trust agreements set forth in the attorney-general's petition and of the power to perform the same.
The Lima National bank, of Lima, Ohio, has been closed by Examiner G. H. Ford on the order of the comptroller of the currency. The trouble was brought about by the speculations of the president, B. C. Fawcett.
Preparation of the river and harbor bill has progressed far enough to show that its total appropriation will be considerably larger than was expected by those who anticipated a smaller aggregate than was carried by the bill passed by the last congress.
The Oakland Heights Sanatorium
Has received the following very flattering and voluntary notice from the pen of Dr. Henry M. Fitch, in the New York Evangelist:
A PLEASANT PLACE TO WINTER IN.
Though the winter has been mild thus far, there is no certainty that it will continue so, and many of our readers are doubtless planning to spend a few months in the south. Asheville, in Western North Carolina, is famed for beauty of situation and evenness of climate, and in Asheville the most delightful place of residence for the traveler is certainly the Oakland Heights Sanatorium. Everything is done in this house which can contribute to the comfort and cheerfulness of the visitor. No consumptives are admitted, and the visitor is therefore spared that spectacle which wrings the heart of the guest of almost every southern hotel, of men and women dying from the most dreadful of all diseases. On the other hand, the house is quiet, homelike, free from the excitements of a hotel, and therefore just the place for those who are nervous, or who are debilitated by influenza, or suffering from any sort of chronic ailment.
