A BRILLIANT RING.
We are showing some of the daintiest novelties ever displayed in jewelry. It would be easier to tell you what we haven't got than what we have. If you haven't seen our elegant trifles in gold and in silver, there is a treat awaiting you, and, whether you have purchases in mind or not, you should not miss them. It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the carrying of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

ON THE STREAM'S BRINK
AN AGED LADY'S TERRIBLE FATE.

Mrs. Malvina Kuykendall, Aged 72, Burned to Death Near Her Home on Beaverdam Last Friday Night.
An accident most distressing in its nature occurred on Beaverdam, about 15 miles from Asheville, Friday night. Living alone in a small house, at least a quarter of a mile from any neighbor, was Mrs. Malvina Kuykendall, a widow lady, about 72 years of age. On Friday night while Mrs. Kuykendall was sitting before the fire, by some means her clothing was ignited.
The old lady, realizing her peril, endeavored to reach a small stream of water which runs within about 75 yards of the house, thinking to throw herself in and extinguish the flames.
Mrs. Kuykendall's age and infirmity prevented her from running, and the wind but fanned the flames. When within a few feet of the stream she was overcome and fell to the ground, her feet almost touching the water. She must have died instantly.
About 10 o'clock Saturday morning Mrs. Mary Taylor, a neighbor, went to Mrs. Kuykendall's house for something. She saw evidences of a fire, and learning an accident had happened, returned to her home and sent a messenger to the house of Mrs. Kuykendall's brother, to ask if she had been there.
As the old lady had not been there, search was instituted, and she was found lying as described, with her clothing burned off, and her body horribly injured, especially at the neck and waist.
Coroner B. McInerney was notified, and yesterday morning held an inquest over the body, with the following jurors: W. L. Warren, T. M. Halford, W. E. Brooks, J. M. Netherton and R. M. Warren. They found a verdict in accordance with the facts as stated above.
Mrs. Kuykendall was known by many people in the county, and was respected by all.

AN UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR.
A Forged Letter Causes a Young Man to Leave Home.

PINEVILLE, N. C., March 19.—Brown Rogers, a young man who has been in Pineville about three months attending Prof. Scott's school, left unexpectedly Wednesday night, under rather peculiar circumstances. He was from Van Wycke, S. C., and is a son of Turner Rogers, one of the prominent citizens of that place. A few days before he left he received a letter from his father telling him that he had disgraced his family, and that he never wanted to see him again. The day he left he wrote to his sister, telling her about getting the letter and that he would carry out his father's wishes and that she nor any of the family should ever see or hear from him again. The letter was a great surprise to the family as the father had not written the letter spoken of to his son. It was a forgery.
His family is almost overcome with grief on account of the unfortunate affair and are anxious to communicate with him.—Charlotte Observer.

A DEATH IN ENISON.
"Bud" Collins, 31, murdered Bobbin Morris.
GREENSBORO, N. C., March 10.—Five years ago Messrs. S. S. Ragdale, nurseryman of Jamestown, in this county, had in their employ as a trusted agent Dobbin Morris, of Thomasville, N. C. He was sent to Tennessee on a collecting tour for the company and had met with considerable success, having collected about $500. He wrote to his firm stating that as soon as he could reach a money order town he would send the amount home.
Nothing, however, was ever heard of him until a few days ago, when the firm received a letter from a physician at Sneedsville, Tenn., in which he said he had been attending a physician at the name of Bud Collins, near that place, who, on his death-bed confessed that he and his brother had murdered Morris for the $500. The young man's brother, the doctor added, had been struck by lightning about eighteen months before.—Richmond Dispatch.

A PITIFUL CASE.
Dangerous Condition of Mrs. Osborne in Malloway Jail.

LONDON, March 21.—Friends of Mrs. Florence Ethel Osborne, sentenced recently to a term of nine months' imprisonment for perjury in the great pearl case, have good ground for their fears that she will not live to serve out her sentence. Her condition has been such that before her trial and after her condemnation she was confined in the infirmary attached to Halloway jail. She is in a delicate condition and the surgeon she has brought upon herself and family has proven greater than she can bear. Today it is announced from the prison that she is in a comatose condition.

Republicans Downed.
RALEIGH, March 19.—The republicans have been whipped by a lady—Miss Hoke, the postmaster at Lincolnton, who secures that position against all foes. A republican named Mullen got the appointment and returned to Lincolnton to displace her. He hired help and made all his arrangements. But Miss Hoke made a trip to Washington and checked him. When the republicans found they were foiled they held a meeting and adopted resolutions vigorously condemning the administration for keeping democratic postmasters in office so long.—Richmond Dispatch.

German's Ministerial Crisis.
BERLIN, March 21.—Chancellor von Caprivi, who was yesterday summoned by Emperor William to a conference at Hubertusstock, returned to Berlin last night. The chancellor called upon Dr. von Boetticher, vice president of the Prussian council and conferred with him on the ministerial crisis.

A Young Prussian Hero.
HALLE PRUSSIAN, SAXONY, March 21.—The hotel at Drechbanen was destroyed by fire today. Two boys were burned to death. A boy of 17 heroically rescued two girls at the imminent peril of his life.

THE FIAT GOES FORTH.
Sheriff Reynolds Closing on the Delinquents.

Sheriff D. L. Reynolds is a man of exceeding patience. He has never been known to "pinch" the taxpayers of Buncombe, but he now says time's up, and he proposes to go in for the collection of taxes in the only way left for him. That is the way provided by law—the sale of property.
Sheriff Reynolds has waited as long as he can, and is now determined that the delinquent shall pay him. He will give them until March 31 to come up and settle. If settlement is not made he will proceed to advertise and sell property of such delinquents, without regard for race, color, or previous condition. This advertising will begin on the first day of April, now less than a week off.
This is no idle talk of the sheriff's. He means it every word. He is under bond for the collection of these taxes, and while he dislikes to take this severe step, it remains his only recourse.
The sheriff's authority in this matter is given a clear definition in the Machinery Act of North Carolina. Section 53 of the act provides that the sheriff shall give notice to such delinquents of the sale through a newspaper for four consecutive weeks, and also by mail. The section says further as follows: "The notice shall contain a notification that all the lands on which the taxes of the preceding year, naming it, remain unpaid, will be sold, and the time and place of sale, and said notice must contain a list of the lands to be sold and the amount of taxes due thereon."
And so on. The authority for this sale is absolute, and it may be well for the tardies to call on Sheriff Reynolds at their earliest convenience. A published list of the delinquents would make interesting reading.

HOW ABOUT THIS?
Will Two Regiments Be Allowed To Encamp Here?

Josh James, the editor of the Wilmington Review, on hearing that two regiments of the state guard would encamp at Asheville, wrote to Gov. Holt, intimating that there might be some obstacle in the way of this encampment at Asheville. Gov. Holt replied:
"I have noticed an article in your issue of the 9th inst., headed 'Two Encampments.' I do not say that the subject of the next encampment was mentioned to me once and only once, and that by General Glenn, who said that two of the regiments desired to go to Asheville. I asked him if the contract with the state and citizens of Wilmington stood, and he replied that he thought not. This is all I have heard or said about the matter. I would be glad to see a copy of that deed, or contract, on or before the 22nd of this month, so as I can see and judge for myself."
It may be said in this connection that as the news has gone out that two regiments would encamp in Asheville, it will be very much against their wish if they have to go to Writtsville. In fact, so says the Review, is informed, members of two of the companies in the First regiment have expressed their intention of coming to Asheville or going nowhere, if any of the regiments are allowed to come here.

ABOUT GOODSON.
One of His Counsel at Marion Says He is a Demon.

The following, taken from the Marion Record, may give some pointers to the authorities who have charge of the case of Goodson, now in jail for the murder of Andrew Welsh, the colored boy.
"We learn from Mr. W. F. Craig that the negro boy Clarence who drives the hack for Mrs. Witter, told him three weeks ago (it seems before the discovery of the crime) that Goodson had murdered a boy in Buncombe. If the Asheville authorities would take Clarence in custody he might throw some light on the foul deed. Goodson is a most heartless demon, totally devoid of any sensibility. The day before he thought he was to be hung here he was perfectly indifferent. Col. J. F. Morphey and the writer were named as counsel for him. He asserted his innocence all the while, yet we thought him guilty and it was hard work to defend him."

SUNDAY SCHOOL SCHOLARS.
But They Didn't Follow in the Steps of Washington.

There were six boys, five white and one colored, before Recorder Miller this morning on a charge of gambling on Sunday. The boys set up a stake on the sidewalk, and then "dipped" up nickels, the boy whose name was nearest the stake to take the "pot." The recorder gave the boys a long lecture on the evils of gambling, and advised them that they would better have been at Sunday school. His surprise can be imagined on hearing one of the little culprits say he had "just come from Sunday school." On account of the boys' ages the recorder made the fine $2 each. The boys paid up and promised to do better hereafter. Four drunks were fined $5 each.

Handsome Cigarette Boxes.
Manager Hull, of the Asheville Tobacco works, this morning showed THE CITIZEN the proofs of the designs which will ornament the cigarette boxes to be used by the company. There are two brands, "Asheville Air" and "Junaluska." The boxes of the former brand have a view of Pisgah and the French Broad, while a winged cherub hovering in the clouds calmly pulls a cigarette, the smoke from which, Capt. Hull says, assists largely in making the Asheville air so healthy. The design for the "Junaluska" boxes shows an Indian warrior in front of his tent spending the time in watching the smoke from wreaths in the air about him. On the back of every box is a unique monogram, "A. T. W." The boxes are handsomer than any others in the market.
Rev. A. C. Dixon Coming.
Rev. A. C. Dixon, who has lately had such an interesting tith with Col. Bob Ingersoll, will preach in the audience room of the First Baptist church in this city on Tuesday night, May 10. Mr. Dixon has numbers of friends here, having been pastor of this church for two years, by all of whom this announcement will be greeted with genuine pleasure. The church will be packed.

ARE BESEIGED BY BLACKS
A TOWN OF MOZAMBIQUE BESEIGED.

A British Torpedo Boat and a Portuguese Gun Boat Ordered Thence to Subdue the Revolt—People Armed.
MOZAMBIQUE, March 21.—A despatch Oullimane, which town is besieged by a force of 6,000 natives, states that the blacks have assumed a most menacing attitude and momentarily threaten an attack upon the place. The most intense excitement prevails. Every man and boy in Oullimane capable of handling a gun has been armed, and the inhabitants are prepared to hold the place to the last extremity. The outskirts of the town are closely guarded, to prevent the natives from making one of their rushes en masse that distinguish their methods of warfare. The guards are expected, should a rush be made, to break the mass and prevent a combined attack upon the town itself.
The British torpedo cruiser Mohawk, mounting six guns, has been ordered to Oullimane from Mozambique, a Portuguese gun boat with 100 soldiers on board, has already been despatched to Oullimane, and if the natives postpone their attack until the warships reach there it is believed they can be easily outdone.

TO THE "RECORD" EDITOR.
Some Instructions, Growing Out of a Well Known Abuse.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Prayer was offered in the house this morning by Rabbi Emil G. Hirsch, of Chicago, Ill. Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, offered a resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for a list of all persons employed in the coast survey, whose salaries were increased or decreased during 1890 and also for a list of those who were dismissed or who resigned during that year. After some discussion the resolution was adopted.
Mr. Richardson of Tennessee, from the committee on printing, submitted a report of the committee on the resolution offered by Williams of Massachusetts, to expunge from the Record that portion of the speech of his colleague (Walker) which was published in the Record, but not uttered by him on the floor. The report, which reviews the speech in detail, ends with a resolution declaring that the house hereby expresses its disapproval of the unparliamentary language used by Hon. Jos. H. Walker, representative from the state of Massachusetts, in that portion of his speech printed in the Record of the 17th inst. but not delivered on the floor, and ordered the public printer to exclude from the permanent Congressional Record all of that portion of his speech beginning with words "Hot shot for pugwump" etc., to words, "for car-marks are on it."

He Should Now Stay There Long Enough to Get Acquainted.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The southern tour of Senator Hill came to a close by the arrival of the party in this city at 11 o'clock yesterday. Numerous invitations have been received by Senator Hill within the past week to visit various western and southern cities and he is being strongly urged to make a tour later through the west and southwest.
