A BRILLIANT RING.

We are showing some of the daintiest novelties ever displayed in jewelry. It would be easier to tell you what we haven't got than what we have. If you haven't seen our elegant trifles in gold and in silver, there is a treasure awaiting you, and whether you have purchases in mind or not, you should not miss them. It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

HIS COMING.

The place to buy Groceries is where you will get the right kind of Groceries and get them at the right kind of prices. That's the whole story in a nutshell, and a hundred additions to it wouldn't make it any stronger. The recent reduction we made in Canned Goods has met with such favor with the public that we frequently hear the exclamation, How cheap! How can you afford it? But that is an easy question to answer. We buy them right.

THE SILVER DEBATE ON.

GREAT INTEREST STILL MAN-IFESTED.

It is Believed Now That Free Coinage Will Carry in the House —Filibustering May be Resorted to.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The silver debate in the house today showed the intensity of the public interest in that great question which now faces the 52nd congress for a solution and threatens to become a political issue in the presidential campaign. The speeches were all of a positive character; they are arguments of men who have convictions upon the sides which they respectively represent and who are uncompromising in their declarations of the policy which should be pursued.

Gradually the conviction is forcing itself upon the members of the house that it is to be no drawn battle; that the issue is one which cannot be avoided and that the day is near at hand when the house of representatives must declare on a yes and nay vote its position on the question of free coinage.

The gentlemen who pinned their hopes on the chances of a compromise at the last hour by a substitution of a bill providing for an international monetary congress are losing courage today, and even the indomitable Tracy, of New York, concedes that the free coinage bill will have a clean majority if the final vote is ever reached upon its passage.

The free coinage men anticipate that their opponents will resort to filibustering and are prepared to invoke the aid of the committee on rules at the very outset in that event. Tracy announces that the first motion to be made by the opponents of the bill at the conclusion of the debate and before any disposition to filibuster is manifested, will be in the form of a resolution recommending to the coinage committee with instructions to report a substitute bill providing for an international monetary congress so as to adjust the free coinage problem. If this is defeated all the resources of parliamentary rules will then be invoked to tire out the friends of the bill and prevent a final vote upon its passage.

The galleries were crowded when the speaker's gavel rapped the house to order at noon today, and there was a sublimation of the great interest manifested at the opening hours of the debate yesterday. The floor and lobbies of the house were well crowded with ex-members and senators, and on the sofa in the rear of the hall was seated Hon. A. J.
Warner, well known as one of the favors of the free coinage movement. In the galleries were seated many bankers and financial experts.

After some unimportant routine proceedings the silver bill was taken up. "I desire to give notice," said Chairman Bland at the opening of the debate, that at 2 o'clock tomorrow I shall demand the previous question on the silver bill and the pending amendments."

This means that general debate will then close and that a final vote will be taken on the bill and amendments unless its opponents begin a series of filibustering tactics.

THIRD PARTY CALL.

Both the Old Parties in Arkansas Arraigned.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 23.—The state central committee of the people's party has designated June 21 as the date for the state convention. The committee has issued the following address: To the People of Arkansas:
On the 22nd of February last at St.
Louis 21 organized bodies of producers representing a membership of 500,000 agreed upon a declaration of principles and a plan of co-operation in political matters. This platform demands only simple justice for the men who produce all the wealth of the country and commends itself to every fair-minded patriot.
In the face of the most unexamined production of all the necessities of life our condition grows worse year by year.
The past presents a desolate sea strewn with the wreckage of the fortunes of our people. The future offers nothing better if we are to trust to our present leadership. Eight years of republican party rule bankrupted our state; eighteen years of democratic party rule has resulted in the plunder of the state treasury, the convict lease law and the Arkansas force bill disguised as an election law. We appeal to you as citizens of Arkansas and patriots. Upon your decision lies momentous issues of the pregnant future.

A CRAZY MAN'S CAPITOL.

He Takes Possession of the Mississippi State House.

JACKSON, Miss., March 23.—When the legislature was assembling yesterday, a crazy man named Bryant took possession of the state house for an hour, and ran things to suit himself. Several officers were called to arrest him, but with a big knife in each hand he defied them, and furiously cursed the legislature.
He finally ran down the steps and into the streets, hundreds of people, including the legislature and state officials, defiling before him. After getting out of the crowd, three policemen knocked the crazy man down and landed him in jail. He was recently discharged from the asylum as cured. He will be returned.

ON FOR OKLAHOMA.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 23.—A meeting was held last night in Zion hall, by about 2,000 negroes who passed resolutions condemning the lynching of Moas, Stewart and McJannet on the 9th inst. as a foul and unjustifiable murder and outrage. The negroes are leaving this locality in large numbers for Oklahoma and other points, and a general exodus is apprehended.

Mills the Man.

NEW ORLEANS, March 23.—Apart from the balloting for United States senator yesterday, the proceedings of both houses were of no general importance.
The ballot of senator resulted as follows:
In the senate, for Mills, 37; Wash Jones, 1; J. D. Sayre, 1. In the house, for Mills, 93; Chilton, 3; Culbertson, 1; Barnett Gibbs, 2; J. H. Bailey, 5.

W ONE MONEY IS IT?

The People's; Hence It is Spent Freely.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Army and navy officers are always desirous of getting Washington details, as they have an easy time, their duties being light and congenial and performed in the most luxurious surroundings. There are six assistant adjutant generals, each of whom occupies a large room, beautifully furnished and luxuriously curtained and carpeted. They are fitted up with electrical lights and call bells and costly toilet arrangements, and each official has a messenger outside his door waiting to obey his orders. Even in the private office of the secretary of war there are few more luxuries and comforts than are enjoyed by these minor officers who are on department duty. One man, who is only a major, has a suite of rooms for his private occupancy that would fill a downtown cabinet minister with envy.

It is something of a mystery where all the money comes from to fit up these luxurious quarters, for they are constantly being remodeled to suit the whim of new occupants. As soon as an order is issued assigning an officer to duty, painters, decorators, plumbers, gasfitters, electricians, and carpet stretchers are set to work to put the rooms in shape for the new officials, whose duties are purely clerical, and could just as well be performed by an ordinary clerk. It is a remarkable fact that there are as many as assistant adjutant-generals on duty today as there were during the war, although there is plenty of work for them to do in the field.

CAPRIVI HAS RESIGNED.

The Emperor May Decide He Can't Do Without Him.

BERLIN, March 23.—There is no room for doubt as to the resignation of Count Caprivi, although every effort is made in high political circles to keep the facts of the cabinet crisis absolutely secret. Had the chancellor not thrown the whole weight of his personality on the side of the school bill he might have escaped the embarrassment of his position in the last few days. He has announced so repeatedly in and out of parliament recently his opinion so persistently against the moderate advice of his rival in the cabinet, Dr. Miquel, that the emperor's tendency toward the course recommended by the latter left him no alternative.
It is thought by the best informed politicians here that the emperor will not accept his chancellor's resignation, on the ground that the school bill, as a purely Prussian matter, is not closely connected with Caprivi's record as chancellor of the empire.

MARRIED IN HASTE

Here's Hoping They'll Never Repent of It.

CHARLOTTE, March 21.—J. R. Thompson, aged 64 years, a member of the Atlanta police force, was married in this city today to Miss Lydia J. Henry, 22 years old, daughter of Mr. John Henry, of Ireland county.

It appears that Policeman Thompson advised for a wife. The Ireland county lady opened a correspondence with him.
They exchanged photographs and arranged to meet each other here today.
Policeman Thompson arrived on the morning train from Atlanta. They had never met, but as the passengers got out on the train, the people in the train yard saw a good looking young lady rush up to a first-rate looking man and throw herself into his arms. It was the first meeting of Mr. Thompson and Miss Henry.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Outrage in Chatham County.

RIALTO, Chatham Co., March 21.— A band of disguised men near here broke into the house of Jay Atwater, a worthy young colored man, blindfolded him, tied his hands behind him, and brutally whipped and otherwise treated him.
It was done because he is a witness in a case between two white men, and it was intended to drive him off to prevent his evidence. The offenders are known and warrants are out for their arrest.—State Chronicle.

Left 16,000 in a Bath Room.

CHICAGO, March 20.—Senator Bowen, of Colorado, became suddenly ill in a Palmer House bathroom, and hastily donning his clothes went to a drug store.
Five hours afterwards he missed $12,000 in cash and $3,000 worth of diamonds. Subsequently a buckskin under-vest, which contained all the valuables, was found by a negro servant in the bathroom and returned to the owner.—

Fined the Judges.

KANSAS CITY, March 22.—Late yesterday afternoon Judge Phillips, of the United States court, called W. F. Ray, B. R. Land and B. F. George, three judges, to the bar of the court and sentenced them to jail until they should make some arrangements for the payment of bonds voted by Cass county, in aid of the Tebo and Neosho railroad.
He also imposed a fine of $500 on each.

Wisconsin's Apportionment.

MADISON, March 22.—The supreme court declares the assembly senatorial and congressional apportionment made by the last legislature to be unconstitutional.

The Oakland Heights Sanatorium.

Has received the following very flattering and voluntary notice from the pen of Dr. Henry M. Field, in the New York
Evangelist:
A PLEASANT PLACE TO WINTER IN.
Though the winter has been mild thus far, there is no certainty that it will continue so, and many of our readers are doubtless planning to spend a few months in the south. Asheville, in Western North Carolina, is famed for beauty of situation and evenness of climate, and in Asheville the most delightful place of residence for the traveler is certainly the Oakland Heights Sanatorium. Everything is done in this house which can contribute to the comfort and cheerfulness of the visitor. No consumptives are admitted, and the visitor is therefore spared that spectacle which wrings the heart of the guest of almost every southern hotel, of men and women dying from the most dreadful of all diseases. On the other hand, the house is quiet, homelike, free from the excitements of a hotel, and therefore just the place for those who are nervous, or who are debilitated by influenza, or suffering from any sort of chronic ailment.

MAY REJECT THE TREATY

NEW HERRING SEA CORRES-PONDENCE.

It Was Sent to the Senate Today—
John W. Foster and Senator Sherman in Consultation With the President on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Among the president's earliest callers this morning were John W. Foster, who is assisting him in the Behring sea negotiations, and Senator Sherman, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations. One of the questions under consideration was the advisability of the prompt transmission of the correspondence to the senate of that has passed between this country and Great Britain since the 8th inst. in regard to the protection of seal pending the settlement by arbitration of the jurisdictional rights of the United States in Behring sea.

It is said that the attitude of Great Britain on this point will have a most important bearing on the senate's action on the pending treaty of arbitration. It is broadly intimated that the implied disposition on the part of Great Britain to resist any interference by this government with vessels flying the English flag engaged in pelagic sealing in Behring sea would undoubtedly result in the rejection of the treaty in its present form.
The correspondence consists of two notes, the first being Lord Salisbury's cabled note of the 9th and the reply from the president dated yesterday. Neither of the notes is of great length, and all the correspondence was sent to the senate today.

A NARROWING TALE.

The Inhabitants of Sandy Mush Intensely Agitated.

This morning's Gazette contained a long and harrowing account of the finding of footprints in the sand on Sandy Mush, at a ford of the French Broad.
The imprint was apparently made by a woman who wore a No. 4 shoe. The trail was followed into the bed of the river, where, the Gazette says, the imprint of a form could be seen in the sand.
This speaks well for the quality of the Sandy Mush sand—but that is neither here nor there. The fact remains that the people in the Sandy Mush bailiwick are much wrought up over the matter.

It is learned today from people who are interested in the matter that the woman supposed to have suicided was Annie C. Doyle, of Culpeper, Va. The Gazette says: "The only theory that will support itself is that on the evening previous the train was quite late and that the woman came up on it and she walked from Marshall or Alexander, a distance of at least five miles to the river where she committed suicide." The woman, presumably, was tired of riding and in order to get a little exercise just before her taking off, walked five miles, in the shade of evening, to get to this particular spot, which she had doubtless selected while in a hypnotic state in her far-away home.
Developments are anxiously awaited.

BUTLER WANTS A MEETING.

The Day Before the State Convention—Maj. Robbin's Challenge.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 21.—There is much talk tonight in regard to the following official notice, signed by Marion Butler, president of the state alliance, published in the Progressive Farmer:
"I desire to have a conference with one true representative alliance man, or more, from each county in the state. At your next meeting elect one man to be in Raleigh, May 17, to meet in conference with me. Elect your best and truest member and empower him to act upon his best judgement for you in a representative capacity on any matter that may come up for the good of the organization and the cause of reform."

Very significant that this conference is called one day before the meeting of the democratic state convention here.

Notice is also given today by Butler that he accepts the invitation to meet Hon. W. M. Robbin, the democratic speaker, at Statesville, April 9th.—Charlotte Observer.

SUSPECT ARRESTED.

A Man Charged With a Grave Crime Taken up at Biltmore.

Letters were received today by Chief of Police McDowell and Sheriff Reynolds by D. P. Yount, chief of police of Newton, Catawba county, asking the arrest of George Whittenberry, colored. Whitten-berry was wanted for a rape committed near Newton, on the night of the 20th.
Deputy Sheriff J. M. Morgan went out to Biltmore and found a man who filled the description exactly, but the fellow gave a different name. He admitted, however, that he was in Catawba county about the time the crime was committed. The man will be held until an officer from Newton, who has been telegraphed for, can come here and identify him.

RAILWAY WRECK.

Many Persons Injured, Some Fatally—In Illinois.

OSIN, Ill., March 24.—A wreck is reported on the Ohio and Missouri. Many persons were injured, some fatally.

Colored Men on Election Boards.

HYATHIA, Kan., March 23.—For the first time in the history of Kansas colored men have been appointed judges of elections. Mayor Brewster has selected four colored men, one from each ward to serve on the election boards.

An Inverted Rainbow.

FORT DODGE, Ia., March 20.—Jefferson, a town near here, reports an inverted rainbow. It made its appearance at sunrise just above the horizon. Local scientists are unable to offer any explanation of the phenomenon.

Respectful.

DALLAS, Tex., March 23.—Al. Rogers, a murderer sentenced to be hanged Friday, has been respected to April 15th by Gov. Hogg.
