treat awaiting you, and, whether you have purchases in mind or not, you should not miss them. It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

WHAT IS IT

You Need to Make Your Home

COMPLETE.

Is the china crating and looking bad? Are the cooking utensils wearing out? Are the lamps smoking their pipes? Are you replete with all the little household articles, dishes, etc? If not, look down this line and see if you are not wanting something.

CHINA—sets and odd pieces; Haviland, etc.

THRASH has them, all new and pretty.

GLASSWARE—Every kind, cut and pressed.

THRASH the place—new stock arriving.

LAMPS—Princeton, Rochester, B. & H.

and Student;

THRASH is lighting the world with them.

CUTLERY—Prices reduced.

THRASH keeps the best—Rogers, our own brand, etc.

TINWARE—Janned and bright.

THRASH keeps it, together with blue and agate ware.

COFFERS and Trunks. No space here to tell you about them, but

THRASH has 'em—very cheap.

HOWEVER—No space here to nothing left of

TO THRASH go. He keeps all from the best whips to refrigerators, and prices

whole story in a nutshell, and a hundred additions to it wouldn't make it any stronger. The recent reduction we made in Canned Goods has met with such favor with the public that we frequently hear the exclamation, How cheap! How can you afford it? But that is an easy question to answer. We buy them right.

TIE VOTE ON FREE SILVER

THEN SPEAKER CRISP VOTES

FOR THE BILL.

Fillustering Followed However, and No Vote on the Merits of the Bill Was Reached—But It

Will Come Again.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—At the close of the debate on the silver bill yesterday evening Mr. Bland demanded the previous question.

Mr. Burrows moved to lay the pending bill on the table. The speaker declared that this motion had precedence, and then, amid intense excitement, the clerk began to call the roll on Mr. Burrows' motion, which brought the question to a square test vote. The vote stood: yeas, 148; nays, 147. Recapitulation being completed, the speaker rose from his chair to announce the result, but before doing so, directed the clerk to call his name.

"The clerk called 'Mr. Crisp, of Georgia,' and 'Mr. Crisp, of Georgia,' cast his vote in the negative, amid deafening applause of advocates of the measure.

Motions to reconsider and to adjourn were then made and after a scene which rivalled the stormiest time of the fifty-first congress the motion to reconsider was carried by a vote of 150 to 148.

Speaker Crisp announced that the motion to reconsider had been lost by a tie vote of 148 to 148, but several anti-free silver men demanded a recapitulation.

The result of the recapitulation was to add two votes to the affirmative side, and make the vote 150 to 148.

The chair stated that the question then was on the motion to lay on the table the pending bill.

Mr. Burrows "The motion I made to lay on the table?"

The chair replied affirmatively and after a time order was restored and the call proceeded. After another scene of tremendous excitement and disorder the vote was announced—yeas, 145; nays, 158 and the motion was then taken on the motion of Mr. Fitch to adjourn in order to cut off a vote on the Bland bill.

Mr. Fitch's motion to adjourn was lost by a vote of 80 to 202.

The anti-free silver men, under the lead of Messrs Tracy and Warner, of New York, and Kayser, of Maryland, then began filibustering. A vote taken shortly after midnight upon a motion to reconsider the vote by which the motion to adjourn until Saturday was defeated, developed no quorum, and at midnight, exactly, a call of the house was ordered.

Two hundred and eleven members responded to their names, and then Mr.

Bland, stating that it was evident no quorum could be taken upon the silver question tonight, moved an adjournment, which was carried at 12:35.

After the storm, calm. Not fifty members were present this morning when the speaker's gavel called the house to order and not more than 100 spectators looked down upon the arena of yesterday's battle. But the calm is only temporary. The strength which the anti-silver men manifested yesterday was as much a surprise to them as to the advocates of the bill. Of both sides there is a feeling of confidence which requires but a spark to set it into a blaze.

Harter, of Ohio, is exultant at the result of the contest, but Bland, of Missouri is confident that the silver men will be ultimately successful. He says that the silver bill will be made the order of business as soon as Catchings, of the committee on rules, returns to the city, which will not be later than Monday next.

Mr. Bland will call upon the committee on rules by resolution, or otherwise to report an order, setting apart a day, or a number of days next week for further consideration of the silver bill and naming an hour when the question shall be put on the final passage of the bill and no intervening motions shall be entertained until said vote is taken. The anti-free coinage men are preparing to appear before the committee on rules and insist that if the silver bill be taken from the calendar of unfinished business and forced to a vote, the special order shall also contain a provision for the protection of the minority by providing for a vote upon certain motions to be offered, including one
