houses who do a credit business.

The secret of low prices is "Spot cash for all our goods—and spot cash before they leave the house." We avoid the necessity of having a bookkeeper and then paying 10 per cent to a collector. By selling for cash

we march to the tune of (Sweet Home)

Cash.

Cho—Cash, cash, good hard cash;

There's nothing so powerful

As clean, solid cash.

Try and be convinced.

A BRILLIANT RING.

We are showing some of the daintiest novelties ever displayed in jewelry. It would be easier to tell you what we haven't got than what we have. If you haven't seen our elegant trifles in gold and in silver, there is a treat awaiting you, and, whether you have urchases in mind or not, you should not miss them. It is difficult to resist going to details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming,

but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

LITTLE FREE SILVER TALK

HAS BLAND GIVEN UP THE FIGHT?

No Resolution Reported For Further Consideration of the Free Silver Bill—No Closure Resolution Possible.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Although the committee on rules would not report a resolution for consideration of the silver bill, yet the galleries of the house were well filled with spectators.

The speaker laid before the house a communication from Representative Joseph McKenna, of the sixth district of California, informing the house that he had sent his resignation as representative to the governor of California. The communication was spread upon the journal.

The speaker laid before the house a communication from D. D. Donovan, of the sixth Ohio district, stating that on page 263 of the Congressional Record he was recorded as voting in the negative on Burrows' motion to lay the silver bill on the table. He was not in the hall when his name was called on this or any other roll pertaining to the silver bill or the physicians had given positive orders that he should not leave the room.

The speaker stated that the correction would be made and the communication spread upon the journal. Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, inquired whether this would make any change in the result of the vote. The speaker replied that it had been stated at the time that it would not.

In the last democratic caucus in which the silver question was discussed, Speaker Crisp announced that he, as one of the members of the committee on rules, would vote for no closure resolution unless requested to do so by a majority of the democratic members. That decision he has reiterated privately and yesterday publicly. A petition asking a report of such resolution has been in circulation, but already thirty-five known silver men have declined to affix their signatures to it and the anti silver men are jubilant.

Today the silver excitement seemed to have entirely subsided when the house met at noon. The attendance, however, relaxed their activity. Bland and his lieutenant, Pierce, were absent and the only leaders of the anti silver men were present when the speaker called the house to order, were Tracy and Harter, whose faces wore an expression of perfect content.

The silver bill is dead in the house of representatives.

Mr. Bland has made public a long statement in which he says that the determination of Speaker Crisp not to adopt the closure resolution, had killed the bill. Mr. Bland says that the speaker, having his great weight and power, and since he has shown a disposition to let the bill lie on the table, members who have confidence in him will go with him, and this leaves us with the bill, having not only the anti-free coinage men, its opponents, but also the speaker, opposed to it, and those who personally follow him.

Speaker Crisp defined the situation to be simply this, if a majority of the democrats in the house desire the committee on rules to make a report which will enable the silver to come to a direct vote on the silver bill, and if they signify that desire, the committee will make a report. If they do not so signify it, the committee will understand that a majority do not desire it, and the responsibility will rest with the majority of the democrats of the house and not with the committee on rules.

The speaker laid before the house a communication from Roger Q. Mills, stating that he had sent to the Governor of Texas his resignation as representative from the 9th district of Texas to take effect today. The communication was spread upon the journal.

The speaker laid before the house a notice that he would on Monday next move to take up the senate bill to provide for the free coinage of gold and silver.

Mr. Hoar: "Where is that bill now?" Stewart: "It is on the calendar, reported adversely."

The Treaty will be Ratified.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Lord Salisbury's last communication to the president stating the grounds upon which he would consent to renew the modus vivendi concerning the Behring sea, has largely removed any doubt of favorability of the senate upon the treaty, and it is the general belief that the treaty will be speedily ratified.

PEACEABLE MEETINGS.

Not Always Allowed in the Effects of Monarchies.

PTAGUE, March 29.—Some time ago preparations were begun in this city by the National Czechs to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of John Comenius, the distinguished educational reformer, born March 28, 1772. After the preparations were nearly completed, the government forbid the celebration. The Czechs, notwithstanding the prohibition, attempted to hold the celebration.

At 8 o'clock last night an enormous crowd surrounded the monument to Poet Halek on the square. The police attempted to disperse the crowd, but met with determined resistance. After a pitched battle the crowd was forced to retreat.

Later there was another collision with the police and finally the crowd started for the Jewish quarters to vent their fury on the inoffensive Jews. The police learned of the proposed attack and a detachment of mounted police was sent to head off the rioters. The crowd marched out, shouting and yelling, until they unexpectedly found the route blocked by the police. Spurring their horses they dashed into the crowds heedless of whom they rode down, slashing whoever was in way with swords. The mob held their ground for a while, but finally broke and ran in all directions. The city is quiet today and no further trouble is anticipated.

RAILWAY COMMISSION.

In Chattanooga and Nashville to Hear Complaints.

CHATTANOOGA, March 29.—The interstate commerce commission met here yesterday with Commissioners Morrison, Veazey, McMill and Clements and Secretary Mosely present. The first case taken up was that against the Cincinnati and Texas and the Alabama Great Southern railroad, the Chattanooga board of trade being prosecutor. The petitioners complained that they were being discriminated against in the rates above named to their injury in the business, being charged more than their competitors; that they had in many lines been driven from the trade to which they were entitled to at least a fair share, and that they were being grossly discriminated against in favor of Cincinnati. Two wholesale grocers gave evidence, being questioned at some length.

The commission gave the defence ten days to present rebuttal evidence and adjourned to meet in Nashville.

TWO KILLED.

Fatal Fire in London on Victoria Street.

LONDON, March 29.—Fire broke out in a restaurant on Victoria street early this morning resulting in the death of two inmates of the building, and the injuring of another. The flames spread so rapidly that the staircases were burned away before everybody could leave the building. A man and woman who were on the top floor of the building became crazed with fear, and before the fire broke could make any attempt to save them, they jumped from the window. The man was instantly killed, and the woman so badly injured that her life is despaired of.

There were many exciting scenes during the progress of the fire, and the firemen deserve great credit for their heroism. After the fire was extinguished search was made in the various rooms and in one was found a woman who had evidently been overcome by smoke before she could reach the window. Her body was burned almost beyond recognition.

Six Children, All Boys.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss., March 29.—Mrs. C. K. Smith, wife of a white laborer living on a farm near this city, has given birth to six babies, all boys, well developed, and weighing, in the aggregate, forty-five pounds. Mother and babies are doing well. They have been named Lec, Jackson, Van Doren, Grant, Sherman and Bull.

Moonshiners Discharged.

DUCKTOWN, Tenn., March 29.—The moonshiners who are said to have killed Deputy Marshal Stuart were arrested and given a preliminary hearing before a justice of the peace in Cherokee county, N. C., a few days since, but as no notice was given the witnesses to the killing they were discharged.

Couch's Murderer Convicted.

WICHITA, Kas., March 29.—The trial of J. C. Adams, for the murder of Capt. W. C. Couch, the noted Oklahoma boomer, resulted in a verdict of manslaughter. Sentence has not yet been pronounced.

COULDN'T SING "AMERICA"

MEN WHO DON'T THINK IT "SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY."

So They Sang "John Brown" Instead—Meeting of 1,000 Negroes to Denounce the Memphis Lynching.

CHICAGO, March 29.—One thousand negroes assembled at Bethel M. E. church last night to "consider the recent southern outrages upon their race." The first sensation of the evening came when, after a short address, the pastor Rev. Geo. W. Gaines, asked the audience to join him in singing "America." As one man in the audience refused to sing that song until the country is what it claims to be, "Sweet land of liberty," the pastor substituted "John Brown."

Several addresses followed the singing. Among the speakers were state representative Morris who urged the colored people to organize into leagues and associations to resist by united efforts the "outrages by the whites." A Mr. Barnett, speaking on the recent Memphis lynching, said: "Memphis calls itself the Queen City of the south, and boasts of its intelligence and honor. Its inhabitants have all the wealth, all that intelligence, all that power or cowardice could suggest, and yet, thus fortified, the city permits the men of honor and business integrity to be cast into jail for defending their property and lives. This 'queen city' stands for its defense and utters no word of protest."

The jailor in charge of the Memphis jail at the time of the lynching was severely scored, as was also the "white press" which, admitting that it was an unfortunate affair, warned the negroes that an attempt to retaliate might become serious.

The speaker closed
