Free Silver Man's Candidate-

Washington, March 31 .- Ex-Congressman Warner, of Ohio, the well-known free silver advocate, talking on the subject of the presidential nomination, said:

"There is a desperate effort being made to nominate Mr. Cleveland, and it may succeed. His nomination would be equivalent to an anti-silver platform

The politicians are, however, trying to avoid this by the nomination of a candi date on an equivocal platform, whereby the gold men in the cast can say, "Our andidate will veto a free coinage silver bill,' and in the west they can say, 'Our candidate is a red-hot free coinage man.

Wicціта, Kan., March 31.-All the telegraph operators on the St. Louis and of railway telegraphers in the matter of the reinstatement of J. M. Groome, were not complied with by that time. Groome was depot agent and operator at Pied-mont, Kansas, and a month ago failed to deliver a message three miles in the country. Complaint was made and Groome was discharged. A committee of the order of railway telegraphers investigated and found that Groome complied with the rules of both the Western Union and the railway company. Chief Ramsay last night demanded his reinstatement by

BROKE JAIL AT CHARLOTTE.

The Negro Charged With the Bostian Wreck Escapes.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 31 .- Six persons escaped from jail here this morning by digging through a wall. Among the number was Juo. Boyd, a negro charged with the wrecking of the Western North Carolina train at Bostian's NO. 17 NORTH MAIN ST., ASHEVILLE, N. C. Bridge last August when 22 persons were killed.

Peculiar Will Contest. BRIDGEPORT, March 31,-A contest has arisen over the will of the late P. N. Fairchild, the wealthy paper manufactuer. The estate amounts to nearly $250,000. His wife, to whom he willed the bulk of his property, died four days before him while he was unconscious. His brother and two unmarried sisters now claim the estate as next of kin, and have applied for the appoint-ment of an administrator. The heirs of Mrs. Fairchild, however, claim an interest in the inheritance.
