The secret of low prices is "Spot cash for all our goods—and spot cash before they leave the house." We avoid the necessity of having a bookkeeper and then paying 10 per cent to a collector. By selling for cash we march to the tune of (Sweet Home) Cash.

Chic—Cash, cash, good hard cash; There's nothing so powerful As cash, solid cash. Try and be convinced.

It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

BEFORE THE PRESIDENT

COLORED MEN IN WASHINGTON WITH A GRIEVANCE.

Harrison Tells Them That For Him to Interfere Would Only Make Matters Worse—Collect Statistics.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The New York delegation of colored men sent to Washington to memorialize the president in regard to the outrages perpetrated upon the negroes of the south arrived here this morning at 8 o'clock and were entertained at breakfast by Hon. Frederick Douglass and William E. Matthews. The delegation were introduced to President Harrison at 10 o'clock by the Hon. John R. Lynch, fourth auditor of the treasury.

Dr. William B. Derrick, of New York city, stated the purpose of the delegation to the president and presented resolutions which were adopted at a recent mass meeting at Cooper and Co. In his reply President Harrison explained to the gentlemen just how far he could exercise his authority under the constitution, stating very clearly the difference between state and federal authority in regard to the crimes committed in any particular state. The New Orleans lynching matter was taken as an example.

The federal government, he said, clearly had a right to provide for the protection of Italian subjects, as that was a matter of treaty rights, but it has not been done; no legislation has been enacted, and neither the federal courts nor the president could interfere even in that case.

Mr. Harrison advised the delegation to collect in detail the facts concerning lynching in the south for a year and present them to him and to the public press and said that upon these facts he would assist, as far as he could, in creating a public sentiment against lawless methods of punishment of colored men in the south.

While willing to do everything he could in behalf of all the citizens of the country he explained clearly how any attempted interference with state authority by him would do more harm than good.

The delegation were very much pleased with the president's speech and attitude.

TEMPTATION OF MCKINLEY.

He Won't Talk About Accepting the Presidential Nomination.

COLUMBUS, O., April 18.—Gov. McKinley is evidently afraid that any question concerning his candidacy is loaded and apt to go off at both ends.

His presidential boom in Ohio was started by enemies in his own party and he fears anything of this sort now emanates from the Foraker people.

This question, typewritten, was handed to Gov. McKinley today.

"In view of the fact that there is a disposition in many quarters not to renominate President Harrison and that your name is most frequently mentioned in connection with the nomination (with Harrison eliminated), would you accept the nomination or allow your name to go before the convention?"

The governor read it carefully and then said: "You do not expect me to answer a question like that, do you?"

The response was the affirmative. "Well, my dear friend, I am waiting for a question when his wife is waiting for him," said the Governor, with a laugh. "I think you had better come in again."

Major McKinley seemed suspicious and determined not to answer the question directly. His entire manner, however, was at the farthest extreme from "Satan, get thee behind me,"—N. Y. World.

A LONDON SENSATION.

The English Railway System In Vites This.

LONDON, April 19.—A tremendous sensation has been caused by the accusation against Hon. Patrick Emmelin John Greville Nugent, brother of Baron Greville, and deputy lieutenant and high sheriff of the county of Westmeath, Ireland, of having indecently assaulted a lady in a first class carriage on the Brighton railway. The evidence at the Westminster police court today was of a very strong character against the defendant, who, if the story told not only by Miss Price herself but by the guard, is true, deliberately pursued the woman, and changed carriages for the purpose of assaulting the woman.

The hearing of the case occupied about two hours, and the counsel of Nugent suggested that it was a case of black-mail.

WEDDING BELLS.

W. A. James and Miss Clemmie Fackler Married Last Evening.

The Central M. E. church, south, was crowded last evening on the occasion of the union in marriage of W. A. James, of Salisbury, and Miss Clemmie S. Fackler, of Asheville.

The church was profusely decorated for the occasion. Rev. C. W. Byrd performed the ceremony. The ushers were: D. W. Newell, Asheville; B. F. Lindsey, Bristol; Tenn. W. H. Horst, Morganton; and L. C. Perry, Asheville. Chas. D. Blanton was best man, and Miss Mattie James, Salisbury, bridesmaid. The other attendants were: H. C. Trout, and Miss Ida James, T. S. McElwee and Miss Jennie Gill, T. P. Houghton and Miss Wynn. Misses Katie Newell and Florence Tamm were the flower girls, and Master James Cooper, page.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Lillian Warner, of Salisbury, assisted by H. G. Chandler, of Asheville, on the violin.

After the ceremony a number of invited friends accompanied the couple to the Glen Rock hotel, where Proprietor Connolly and Mrs. Connolly tendered an elaborate banquet.

Mr. James is a popular engineer on the Western North Carolina railroad, and his bride is one of Asheville's best known and most admired ladies.

The presents received by the happy couple were numerous. Several of the groom's radical friends gave a silver tea service; a silver berry service was presented by the members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and Mayor Blanton gave a silver salt service.

Mr. and Mrs. James left this morning on the 8:15 train for Savannah, Ga. From there they will go to New York. After a stay in the metropolis they will return to Asheville, coming via Louisville, Ky., Miss James' former home.

THE VANDERBILT ESTATE.

Items of Interest About the Mansion and Grounds.

Mr. Sinclair, of New York, the head of the great steamship establishment bearing his name, is at the Rockwood Inn.

Mr. Sinclair is down on business in connection with his firm's contract to dress the stone to be used in George W. Vanderbilt's mansion near this city.

A complete plant is to be put up, for the sawing, splitting and planing of the blocks of stone, every one of which has to be perfectly dressed before it can be put in the building. The buildings to enclose the plant are being erected and the machinery will soon be in position. Derrick and car tracks will deliver the blocks from the plant to any part of the building.

The cottage erected by Mr. Vanderbilt for his gardener, is nearing completion. This building will have cost when finished near $5,000.

A three-span stone bridge is to be built across the French Rock river, in full view from the mansion, for the purpose of continuing the drives laid out on the estate. There will be about 60 miles of these drives.

THE V. M. C. A.

It Receives a Useful and Liberal Donation.

Rev. W. S. P. Bryan has made the Young Men's Christian association a liberal donation of useful books. Among them are some twenty odd volumes of the old Scribner magazine before it went into the Century, bound; the American Cyclopaedia and a large number of Century magazines and the Nation. Mr. Bryan has been a staunch friend of the association since its organization here, and his gift will continue to do good.

The meeting this evening at the V. M. C. A. will be held by J. S. Moody, Secretary. "The building that will stand," Matt. 7: 24-27; James 1: 22; John 13: 10. All men invited.

IT WAS ALL CLEVELAND

GREAT ENTHUSIASM AT INDIANAPOLIS.

The Ex-President Endorsed and His Name Given a Magnificent Demonstration—Gray as a Second Choice.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 21.—The state convention assembled today. The platform received much applause, but the greatest demonstration was reserved for the presidential resolution declaring for ex-President Cleveland, but endorsing Isaac P. Gray as the choice of Indiana should the ex-president's nomination become impossible.

At the mention of Cleveland a thousand people arose simultaneously to their feet and one mighty cheer rose from their throats. Handkerchiefs were waved enthusiastically. Another cheer greeted the declaration of Cleveland as the "logical candidate" and this manifestation inspired the Gray people to attempt to rival Cleveland followers in an expression of enthusiasm.

A POLICE STRIKE.

It May Give the Anarchists an Opportunity.

PARIS, April 21.—The outlook for May day took on a new aspect today which gives promise of affording the anarchists and other lawless characters an opportunity to make trouble. The police threaten to strike. A newspaper today published a proclamation, signed by a number of policemen in which they detail at length their grievances and threaten to strike on the eve of May day, unless their wages are increased. The anarchists are in high glee at this development, and some of the more enthusiastic of them claim it would take little argument to induce many of the policemen to join their ranks.

It is hardly believed any trouble will occur with the police. On the contrary it is thought some matters of which they complain will be corrected and that they will give their usual good services on May day if they are called upon to suppress disturbances. In any event no apprehension need be felt, for the government has arranged for the presence of a military force in Paris and the immediate vicinity that will be strong enough to down any outbreak short of a general revolution. The police are believed by many to have taken advantage of the feeling of uneasiness to make a claim that at any other time they would not have thought of.

AN INFAMOUS BILL.

Frank Confession of a Republican Senator.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—In the course of his speech in the senate yesterday, Mr. Teller devoted much time to describing the circumstances that attended the passage of the bullion purchase law of 1890, and in conclusion said: "That brings me to another question. There came from the house of representatives of the last congress a bill which was commonly dubbed the 'force bill.' Nearly two years have since elapsed. I have read that bill with care and attention more than twenty times. I have read it in the light of calm consideration, and I repeat, that if it were presented to me now, with the alternative of party support or party dismissal I should not vote for the bill. A more infamous bill, in my judgment, never passed the threshold of the doors of the senate. Avowedly in the interest of good government, it was instituted, in my judgment, by men whose interest it was to prevent the free expression of the will of the voters at the polls."

NOYES-ROCKWELL CASE.

A Democrat Voting to Seat a Republican—A Change.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The first speaker in the Noyes-Rockwell contested election case today was Mr. DeForest, of Connecticut, who supported the claims of the contestant, regretting, however, that he would be obliged to cast his vote to seat a republican and to unseat a democrat who had earned the esteem of his colleagues during his service on the floor.

There was a great deal of noise in the hall and O'Ferrall put in an emphatic protest against it. "I do not like," he said, "to make charges; but it seems to me that there are some gentlemen on this floor who, whenever any one is addressing the chair in favor of a majority report, endeavor to divert attention from his remarks by confusion and disorder."

SOME LOSS OF LIFE.

A Cyclone Mows Down Thousands of Fruit Trees.

LONG VIEW, Tex., April 21.—A cyclone of fearful velocity struck near Gladwater, twelve miles west of here on the Texas Pacific railway yesterday morning and demoralized everything in its path. Fortunately, however, the country over which it swept is sparsely settled and the loss of life is small. Forest trees were blown down by thousands.

Another Obituary.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—In the temporary absence of Vice-president Morton, the chair was occupied today by Mr. Manderson, president pro tem of the senate. Mr. Gorman gave notice that on Friday, May 6, he would ask the senate to consider a resolution relative to the death of his late colleague, Mr. Wilson.

Trying to Burn Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 21.—Seven attempts were made to burn the city last night. In four hours fifteen buildings were destroyed and a loss of $15,000 estimated.

Died Sulling.

FAVETTE, Miss., April 21.—Coleman Blackburn was hanged here yesterday for wife murder. His features throughout the ordeal bore a happy smile.
