BIG DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

ALL PARIS PANIC STRICKEN BY THE ANARCHISTS

They Blow Up a Restaurant, Injuring the Proprietor—His Wife Goes Insane—To Terrorize Ravachol's Jurymen.

PARIS, April 26.—The restaurant of Very, who on March 30th delivered Ravachol, the anarchist, into the hands of the police, was utterly wrecked at 9:40 last night by a bomb explosion. Since Ravachol's arrest, Very has frequently been threatened with such a disaster. The force of the explosion was terrific and widely felt and an enormous crowd quickly gathered about the shattered building. The police on entering found Very with one of his legs broken. He is still alive. A granddaughter of Very was also injured and two ladies living in rooms located over the restaurant were badly shaken and bruised. Very's wife was not injured.

It is the general opinion that the explosion was perpetrated mainly to terrorize the jurymen who will be on duty at Ravachol's trial.

PARIS, April 26.—The people of Paris are panic stricken at the audacity of the anarchists, and the feeling of fear is heightened by the apparent impotency of the police to prevent the anarchists committing outrages when and where they please. The Gaulois and the Matin this morning openly reproach the government with incompetency and demand that something be done and done immediately to put an end to the outrage.

So strong is the feeling of fear that many residents of the city and foreign visitors are leaving or making hurried preparations to leave.

The scene in the vicinity of the explosion at the Cafe of M. Very surpasses description. Throughout the night and morning excited crowds sometimes numbering 20,000 filled the streets and surrounded the wrecked restaurant. The affair was discussed in loud and angry voices by everybody joined in condemning the outrage. The police were utterly powerless to keep the crowd back. Thousands of people were anxious to procure souvenirs of the explosion, and shattered pieces of wood in front of the place were eagerly seized upon by relic hunters.

Finally the crowd became so large and unruly that it was necessary to call upon the military for assistance in handling it. A force of infantry was dispatched to the scene and the presence of troops soon resulted in the restoration of order. The opinion seemed to prevail among the crowds that the anarchists, not only in France, but elsewhere, are resolved to force the world to take serious notice of their existence and their doctrines. It is very likely that the methods they are pursuing will secure their end, but it is the general opinion that when they succeed in their object it will be so much the worse for them.

There were signs among the crowd that gathered last night that boded ill for the murderous villains who hold nothing sacred and who, to gain revenge upon some one who has offended them, do not hesitate to maim and kill innocent women and children. Ominous words could be heard from the groups of excited men standing everywhere about the scene of the explosion. The crowds talked openly of forming vigilance committees and performing the duties of teaching the anarchists a lesson that they will never forget. Other men in the groups told their listeners of the work done by the vigilance committee in San Francisco years ago when the lawless element threatened to take full possession of the place, and it was urged that unless the government speedily took some action to put down the anarchists, people would themselves take the matter in hand, lynch the leaders and drive the swiftest from the country.

The people in the vicinity of the cafe are in a state of terror and many are making preparations to change their places of abode. M. Very is still alive and his recovery is possible. Both his legs were amputated.

Not to be a Cardinal.
London, April 22.—The Central News has this despatch from Rome: "The Pope has definitely refused the request that he elevate Archbishop Corrigan of New York to the Cardinalate. It is thought that this decision is the consequence of the antagonism between the archbishop and Cardinal Gibbons."

FREE SILVER CONVENTION

Promising a Bull if the Old Parties Don't Suit.

DENVER, Col., April 26.—The state convention of the Colorado silver leagues met here yesterday, representatives to the number of 500 being present. Delegates were selected to the national silver convention at Washington, May 26, and resolutions were adopted, that in the event of the democratic and republican national conventions failing to nominate a president and vice-president men with pronounced silver views, it will be the duty of the voters to support any party that may promise a speedy reinstatement of silver.

It is also resolved that "this silver convention, representing as it does the people of Colorado, irrespective of party, pledges our faith and unequivocal support in favor of the political party that will faithfully carry out the purpose of the free coinage of silver."

It was also resolved, as the sentiment of the convention, that the Colorado state convention should instruct their delegates to the national convention to withdraw from the conventions if they do not succeed in getting free silver plank in their party platforms.

A LIVELY RIDE.

W. Seward Webb's Trip Over the Western N. C. Railroad.

Yesterday afternoon a special train was brought over the Western North Carolina railroad from Paint Rock. The train consisted simply of an engine and car, the car being one of the finest in the United States, and occupied by William Seward Webb, vice-president of the New York Central railroad, and party, who stopped over to look at Mr. Vanderbilt's estate at Biltmore.

The car has an indicator which automatically registers the speed at which the train is running. The engineer, Locke Aldrich, did not know that the occupants of the car were keeping "tab" on him until informed by Conductor Luke Mills. Aldrich smiled to himself and with a wink told Mills to go back and watch the indicator. The lever was dropped over a notch or two, and the indicator began "picking" up. The indicator hand moved up until it reached an interesting point on the dial, about fifty miles an hour.

The train was moving at this speed when Montford siding, near Pearson's bridge, was reached. At this point the rails sprang and one side of the engine left the track. For just a few seconds the engine was off, then mounted the rail and the trip was made in safety. When the track was examined it was found that the engine had run over forty-two ties between the time it left the rail and mounted it again. The occupants of the car knew nothing of the occurrence.

The ride was a lively one, and the indicator had everything its own way.

THE WYOMING TROUBLE.

Preparing to Prosecute the Guilty and Relieve the Innocent.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 26.—Governor Barber has written a letter to the prosecuting attorney of Johnson county wherein the cattle trouble occurred. The governor states that the men who surrendered to the commanding officer at Fort McKenny are confined at Fort Russell and will be held until the prosecuting attorney has a reasonable and sufficient time to prepare and commence in the district court of his county the criminal proceedings against any of them which, upon consideration, he shall deem justified and warranted by evidence.

The governor urges the district attorney to make such investigations as may be deemed proper with all due diligence and institute in the district court appropriate criminal prosecutions, so that those against whom there are no criminal accusations may be released and the others prosecuted for crimes or violations of the law committed by them. In conclusion he says the prisoners will be delivered to the civil authorities whenever the status of the prosecutions, in the judgment of the court, require it and order is so restored and the excitement subsided as to render it safe to do so.

IDEAL ANARCHY.

From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

Lynch law is anarchy, and is as severe an attack upon the social order as the deeds of a Ravachol. A community ruled by a mob—or these communities where lynchings are frequent most certainly are—the ideal condition of anarchy.
