Great Spring Medicine!

ROYAL

BEEF, WINE AND IRON

THIS PREPARATION IS MADE FROM THE WORLD-RENOWNED LEIBIG'S EXTRACT OF BEEF, CITRATE OF IRON and PURE SHERRY WINE.

It combines in a pleasant form the valuable nutritious tonic and stimulating properties of its ingredients. Prompt results will follow its use in cases of sudden exhaustion, arising either from acute or chronic diseases, and will prove a valuable restorative for all convalescents. As a nutritive tonic, it would be indicated in the treatment of impaired nutrition, impoverishment of the blood, and in all the various forms of general debility.

DOSIS—For an adult, one tablespoonful between meals, and when suffering from fatigue or exhaustion. For children, the dose should be reduced according to age.

A BRILLIANT RING.

We are showing some of the daintiest novelties ever displayed in jewelry. It would be easier to tell you what we haven't got than what we have. If you haven't seen our elegant trifles in gold and in silver, there is a treat awaiting you, and, whether you have purchases in mind or not, you should not miss them. It is difficult to resist going into details—we are strongly tempted to describe some of the exquisite products of the season's art, some of which show that the caprices of fashion are apt to be wonderfully charming, but you'll get a much better idea if you come and look for yourself.

THE JURY TERRORIZED

PARIS ANARCHISTS NOT TO BE GUILOTINED

Their Friends Threat of What They Would Do Saved the Necks of the Villains—A Brave Prosecutor.

PARIS, April 27.—When the jury in the case of the anarchists, who were on trial in the Seine assize court, returned at 3 o'clock this morning and rendered a verdict of "guilty with extenuating circumstances," against Ravachol and Simon, these two persons did not in any way show that they expected anything different. After Judge Gues had scented their thought to penal servitude for life they shouted "Vive la anarchie!" "Vive la revolution sociale!"

The verdict occasioned much surprise, but it is the general opinion that the "extenuating circumstances" part of the verdict was due entirely to the fear of the jurors that if the prisoners were condemned to death the jurors would fall victims to anarchist vengeance.

After the proceedings were ended and the condemned had been removed the court room and the adjacent corridors in the Palace of Justice were the scenes of great animation. Those who had attended the trial were joined by others and the case was discussed by everybody. Some held that the jury had shown a weak lack of courage in returning the verdict they did, while others held that the explosion in M. Verry's restaurant showed that the friends of the prisoner were fully capable of carrying into execution their threats to kill the jurymen if any of the prisoners were sent to the guillotine. The former were therefore justified in returning a verdict that would prevent themselves from becoming objects of the revenge of the anarchists.

The Journal Des Debates, commenting upon the result of the trial, says today that it is to be regretted that the jury failed to perform their duty in the same noble manner that the officials performed theirs. The public generally condemn the verdict. No one doubts that the jury was terrorized, and the result is a triumph for the dynamite. The fearless conduct of M. Duhaime, public prosecutor, is warmly commended.

LIMESTONE DEMOCRATS.

They Endorse Hon. H. A. Gudgeon for Lieutenant Governor.

T. C. Hunter, secretary, sends THE CITIZEN the following particulars of the democratic primary in Limestone township last Saturday:

Pursuant to a call made by T. O. Lambert, jr., chairman of the democratic executive committee for Limestone township, the democrats of this township met at Arden on Saturday, April 23, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention to be held in Asheville on Saturday, April 30.

J. A. Lance was made chairman pro tem, and T. C. Hunter, secretary. After a few remarks by the chairman explaining the object of the meeting, the following delegates were appointed to the county convention:

M. L. Shuford, T. O. Lambert, jr., N. L. Frady, T. L. Rickman, T. F. Johnston, Wm. F. Hunter, chairman, the chairman and secretary were added to the list of delegates.

The following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the time for another election is approaching, and believing that Buncombe is entitled to at least one man on the state ticket, therefore be it

"Resolved, that we unanimously endorse Hon. H. A. Gudgeon as the nominee of the democratic party for lieutenant governor of North Carolina; and be it further

"Resolved, that a copy of these proceedings be sent to THE CITIZEN and the Democrat for publication."

The meeting then adjourned.

JUST A SQUABBLE.

The Pension Scandal Develops Bad Temper.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The special committee investigating the conduct of the pension bureau had been in session today but a short time when Prosecutor Enloe put to Commissioner Kaun an inquiry as to whether or not Kaun himself had not furnished Special Examiner Greenwalt with $15 to be used for the purpose of entrapping an attorney named Poote, of Kalamazoo, Mich., suspected of being engaged in buying forbidden information with reference to pension cases.

The commissioner said that he had not given Greenwalt money. Mr. Enloe became intensely excited and hotly exclaimed: "You are a liar, you did say so, I rose to my feet and made a movement to get at the commissioner."

Members of the committee and Mr. Cooper seized Mr. Enloe and forcibly prevented him from proceeding further, and in the confusion the commissioner shouted: "I want no difficulty with you or anybody else; but the man don't live that I fear!"

Mr. Enloe renewed his struggles, but his efforts to get away were unavailing. The commissioner reiterated that "the man don't live that I fear," and the next instant, to avoid trouble, he hastily took his hat and marched out of the room.

BATTERY PARK CONCERT.

A Good Audience to Hear Master Cyril Tyler.

The concert given at Battery Park hotel last night by Master Cyril Roderic Tyler, assisted by the hotel orchestra, was unusually enjoyable.

Master Tyler is nothing less than a prodigy. His voice has a range and power that is truly wonderful. The expression thrown into his singing by the child artist indicates a perfect appreciation of the sentiments and feeling contained in the music, showing a precocity of mind that marks him as a genius.

Messa, Garratt and Pearson gave some charming instrumental numbers. Prof. Pearson showed himself a genuine artist upon the violin, his execution being especially brilliant in the piano and violin duo from Fra Diavolo.

There was a good audience present, and all were pleased. Master Tyler was heartily encored after each number, and gave two responses. There will be another concert tonight, at the same place.

VERY ENCOURAGING.

Was Sure to Have a Soft Thing As Long as He Kept His Head.

He (nonchalantly)—Ah, how I envy Dodson! He has such a soft thing of it. She (regretting his presence)—I would not be envious. You'll always have a soft thing as long as you keep your head.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Frank Goodson, Suspected of Murder, Discharged Today.

In the criminal court, in the case of state vs. James Wolfe, for maintaining a nuisance, in the shape of a slaughter house, the defendant was found guilty. The plea for a new trial will be argued by Chas. A. Moore, esq., counsel for the defendant, on Friday morning.

State vs. J. B. Ingle, assault; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. A. J. Ricker and James Kizer, larceny; not pros with leave.

State vs. Joe McAcie, assault; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. T. J. Dillingham and others, affray; ordered that J. Yancey Dillingham, a witness, who had proved attendance, show cause why his ticket should not be canceled, as he was one of the defendants in the case.

State vs. Adolphus Boone, J. A. Reed and Will Reed, affray; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Lum Lytle, assault; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Frank Goodson, murder; the evidence sufficient to send a true bill, and the prisoner was discharged.

State vs. George Johnston, gambling; submitted in five cases. Ordered that the defendant pay all costs, over $100, and give bond in the sum of $200 for appearance at next term and abide judgment of the court.

J. F. Johnson, affray; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. J. P. Woodbury, maintaining nuisance; guilty.

State vs. Deprato and Moneriel, larceny from freight cars on W. N. C. railroad; defendants called and failed.

State vs. F. P. Munnigh, affray, appeal from recorder's court. The court held that in this case the recorder had no jurisdiction, and the defendant was discharged.

The case of 75 jurors for the trial of the case against Will Erwin, for burglary, is summoned for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the case will be taken up. The work of the court will be concluded Saturday or Monday.

THE LYCEUM.

Discussion on the Negro Problem Last Evening.

The Lyceum was called to order at 8 o'clock sharp last evening by President Starnes.

As it had been determined to discuss the subject of the "Negro in America," a paper was read which had been prepared by Gen. W. C. P. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, for delivery in Charleston, S. C.

In it he took the ground that neither the negro or the southern whites had much to do with the negro's coming, but that it had been permitted for wise purposes. He felt sure that these purposes would soon appear, and not be thwarted, if it could be understood that the settlement of all questions growing out of it were left to the whites and blacks most interested.

For the people of any locality to allow the settlement of such important questions by the consciences of people of other localities for prudential regard for the opinions of parties having little interest and less knowledge, would be a cowardly neglect of a clear duty, productive only of evil. White and black here are alike interested in the satisfactory settlement of all these questions. His whole argument came from the heart and head, and was the reasoning of a statesman and a Christian.

A paper giving the views of Bishop H. M. Turner, of the A. M. church, was also read.

Mal. T. C. Westall, Maj. W
