THE BEST MAN HAS WON

A STRONG NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR

Elias Carr is the Next Governor of North Carolina—R. A. Doughton Nominated for Lieutenant Governor and Octavius Coke for Secretary of State.

FOR GOVERNOR: ELIAS CARR, of Edgecombe.
FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR: R. A. DOUGHTON, of Alleghany.
FOR SECRETARY OF STATE: OCTAVIUS COKE, of Wake.
FOR AUDITOR: ROBT. M. FURMAN, of Buncombe.
FOR TREASURER: DONALD W. BAIN, of Wake.
FOR SUP. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION: J. C. SCARBOROUGH, of Johnston.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 19.—[Special.]—After the speaking-making for the various candidates yesterday, the convention proceeded to ballot.

The first ballot was concluded at 8:30. It stood, Holt 417, J. S. Carr 157, Elias Carr 112, S. B. Alexander 14, G. W. Sanderlin 283, T. J. Jarvis 8.

At the conclusion of that ballot S. B. Alexander was withdrawn in favor of J. S. Carr.

Buncombe's vote on the 1st ballot stood: Holt, 53; J. S. Carr, 14; G. W. Sanderlin, 133.

Second ballot—Holt, 409, J. S. Carr, 149, Elias Carr, 124, G. W. Sanderlin, 312, T. J. Jarvis, 7.

The balloting proceeded with varying appearances of success for one candidate or another till the sixth, at 12:30 this morning, when Elias Carr, of Edgecombe, was nominated amid great cheering by 636 votes.

The nominee appeared before the convention and accepted the nomination in a most graceful speech.

District meetings whose delegates to the Chicago convention are as follows: First district, W. C. Lamb and W. P. Roberts; second, P. W. Barnes and S. B. Holloway; third, W. S. Cooke and Matt M. Moore; fourth, F. H. Pascoe and T. H. Penn; sixth, J. T. Legend and E. S. Lattimer; seventh, W. H. Williams and M. H. Pinnix; eighth, C. B. Watson and R. A. Scott; ninth, Kope Elias and W. M. Furman.

The platform adopted by unanimous vote is practically the same as that of 1890, with slight additions from the Omaha platform.

The convention adjourned immediately after the conclusion of Carr's speech.

TODAY'S WORK.

Completing The Ticket—H. A. Guder Falls of Nomination.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 19.—The convention re-assembled at 10 o'clock. The hall was packed. The first business was the nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

First ballot: R. A. Doughton, Alleghany, 436; H. A. Guder, Buncombe, 307; Lee S. Overman, Rowan, 175; K. Elias, Macon, 29; B. B. Winburne, Hertford, 13; Harry Skinner, Pitt, 9; W. B. Shaw, Vance, 29.

R. A. Doughton, of Alleghany county, was nominated for lieutenant governor on the second ballot.

On the announcement of the second ballot H. A. Guder moved that the nomination of Doughton be made unanimous. Guder was a close second in the race.

Octavius Coke, of Wake, was nominated by acclamation for secretary of state.

H. A. Guder has just nominated R. M. Furman, of Buncombe, for the position of auditor.

The second ballot for auditor stood: Spoinhour, 38; Williams, 78; Furman, 507; Sanderlin, 331; Merritt, 49.

IN ASHEVILLE.

How the Democrats Here Received the News.

About 8:30 this morning, when the telegraph office opened, THE CITIZEN received a special from Raleigh announcing the nomination of Elias Carr.

The news was immediately displayed on the bulletin in front of THE CITIZEN office, and a banner on which was inscribed "Our Next Governor—Elias Carr" was unfurled.

Within a few minutes the sidewalk in front of the office was crowded with citizens, anxious to hear the result, and discuss the situation.

Shortly after THE CITIZEN'S extra was on the streets and the edition was disposed of in short order.

By the large majority of those who discussed the matter the action of the convention was received with satisfaction, mingled with considerable surprise, as Col. Carr's name had not been thought prominently before the convention.

In fact it seems to be the sentiment among the democrats of Asheville, that the convention could not possibly have made a better nomination.

Col. Carr's Life.
Louis M. Bourne, esp., of this city, who has known Col. Carr intimately for years, gave THE CITIZEN the following facts concerning the candidate's life, in an interview this morning:

"Col. Elias Carr, the democratic nominee, and without a doubt the next governor of North Carolina, is about fifty years of age. His home is 'Bracebridge Hall,' at Old Sparta postoffice, twelve miles below Tarboro, in Edgecombe county. His estate, 'Bracebridge Farm,' is one of the finest in North Carolina, and comprises about 2,000 acres. He has been a farmer in theory and practice, all of his life, and has conducted his estate in such a practical way as to have amassed a fortune of perhaps $75,000. He has raised cotton largely, but of late years has given a great deal of attention to dairying and trucking. He also has a summer home in Warren county.

"Col. Carr married a Miss Keatney, of Warren county, and has five children, three sons and two daughters.

The Man Personally.
"Personally Col. Carr is a quiet, unassuming man. He weighs perhaps 170 pounds. His eyes are blue, his hair dark brown, short beard of a sandy hue and long moustache of the same color. He dresses plainly, but always in good taste. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He is a large hearted, liberal man.

His Public Life.
"Col. Carr has been in public life very little. For twelve years past he has been a commissioner of Edgecombe county. For two terms he was president of the North Carolina state farmers' alliance, succeeding Syd. B. Alexander, of Mecklenburg.

"He is an extremely modest man, and his nomination is certainly a case of the office seeking the man. Only a short while ago he wrote a letter to John L. Bridgers, chairman of the democratic executive committee of Edgecombe county, in which he stated that he did not wish to have his name brought before the convention as a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination.

No Third Party in His.
"Col. Carr is a democrat and an alliance man, but will have nothing whatever to do with the third party. He was on the committee that formulated the Omaha alliance demands. A month or more ago he wrote a letter to the Tarboro Southerner, repudiating the demands of the St. Louis conference, known as the third party demands. [The letter is republished in THE CITIZEN today.]

"The selection of Col. Carr is an admirable one, and his election is assured as that the sun shines."

MORE LYNCHINGS.

Relatives of "Best Families" Indulge Themselves.

WILMINGTON, Del. May 18.—A Clayton, Del., special to the Every Evening says: James Taylor, a negro who assaulted Nellie Wilcox, at Kennedyville, Md., was taken from the Chestertown jail at 9:30 o'clock and lynched. From fifty to three hundred persons guarded the jail all day yesterday. Five hundred persons engaged in the lynching, some of them being connected with the best families of the town. They broke in the jail put a rope around the prisoner's neck, dragged him to a tree a hundred yards away and hanged.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 18.—About 10 o'clock last night a telegram was received in this city that a mob of sixty citizens had organized at Tullahoma, Tenn., seized an engine and was preparing to go to Manchester to take a negro from jail and lynch him.

At two o'clock yesterday morning a negro was discovered in the bedroom of a daughter of Col. W. C. Baird, post-office inspector. The young lady screamed and the negro fled. Information is that the negro is doing. The jail can easily be broken into, as it is only an ordinary wooded structure.

MANCHESTER, Tenn., May 19.—At 2:30 this morning thirty men entered town and going to the jail demanded Charles Everett, the Tallahoma negro. The sheriff had spirited him away to a barn in the suburbs. After thirty minutes search he was found, carried to the railroad bridge just above town and hanged. A. Y. Smith of Tallahoma announced himself as the leader of the mob and willing to assume responsibility for the deed. The son of a young lady relative of Mr. Smith was entered by the negro Monday night for the purpose, it is believed, of assault, although the negro claimed that robbery was his object.

ATLANTA, May 18.—At Clarksville, Habersham county, yesterday a mob of two hundred men took from the jail three negroes charged with the murder of Night Policeman Carter at Toocoo. The negroes all protested innocence but they were hanged.

A TRAGEDY OF ERRORS.

Shot at a Calf and Killed a Man That Proved to Be a Woman.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, May 16.—William Dampson, a miner at Grace Creek, has for some time been missing a great deal of rich amalgam from his sluice boxes. He kept a watch for several nights, and noticed that a small calf came about the same time every night to drink from the sluice-box.

Last night he fired at the calf in sheer wantonness. Why the calf staggered up on its hind legs, then fell to the ground. Running up, Dampson discovered he had shot and killed a girl about eighteen years of age, who had been about the camp for some time dressed as a man—New York World.

ALL HARMONY.

Cleveland and Anti-Cleveland Bury the Hatchet.

RICHMOND, Va., May 18.—The anticipated trouble between the two factions in the state democratic convention today, known as the Cleveland and anti-Cleveland followers, was happily adjusted this morning. The meeting of delegates at large, nominated last night by the opposing sides, has just been held, at which it was determined that they would all withdraw and allow the convention to select two delegates at large from each side.

California for Cleveland.

FRESNO, Cal., May 19.—The democratic state convention adjourned last night after electing four delegates at large to the national convention and ratifying the nominations of the seven district conventions. The delegates at large are all in favor of the nomination of Grover Cleveland. The convention adjourned with three cheers for Cleveland, and in fact the entire delegation is expected to support the ex-president at Chicago.

Cleveland and Free Silver!

GUTHRIE, O. T., May 18.—At the democratic convention at King Fisher yesterday morning the Cleveland men captured everything at the start and remained in the lead. The delegates were instructed for him and the resolutions endorsed Cleveland and his administration, while declaring for the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

For Congress.

CINCINNATI, May 18.—The sixth Ohio democratic convention at Cleveland, O., yesterday nominated Hon. John M. Pattison for congress.

GEORGIA FOR CLEVELAND

TREMENDOUS TRIUMPH FOR GROVER.

The Delegation Goes Uninstructed, But Three-Fourths of Them Are For "The Logical Candidate"—The Platform Demands Free Silver.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 19.—The hosts of Grover Cleveland marched through Georgia yesterday with the early dawn. They came from the four quarters of the state and invading Atlanta, the citadel of the opposition, they met the enemy in the state convention and carried the day in one glorious triumphant assault. The anti-Cleveland men have capitulated and accepted the result with resignation.

When the convention met the opposing forces seemed about equally divided but the great tidal wave of the Cleveland sentiment that had its birth in the convention of little Rhode Island, that gathered strength in Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois and other great states of the north, swept over the convention with resistless force, carrying all before it, and brooking no opposition.

Grover Cleveland has three-fourths of sixties delegates to the national convention and that the unit rule was not commanded was due only to a skillful and persistent contest conducted by the opposition under the leadership of Patrick Walsh.

The delegation goes uninstructed.

The platform demands the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver on a parity with each other.

KILLED FOUR WOMEN.

Series of Terrible Tragedies in Dennison, Texas.

DENISON, TEXAS, May 19.—Tuesday night was a night of horror in Dennison. Between 11 o'clock and 3:30 in the morning an assassin shot and killed four women, two of them leaders of local society.

The first victim was Mrs. Haynes, wife of Dr. Henry F. Haynes, prominent in business and social life. Mrs. Haynes, a young and very attractive woman, was assassinated while alone in her room, or else taken forcibly into it and put to death by her captor outside and near the house.

Five hours later in the heart of the city a beautiful young lady, Miss Jennie Hawley, was shot and killed by some unknown person. Miss Hawley was killed almost without a word of warning in the privacy of her room in her mother's cottage home.

Between the hours when these murders occurred, in a distant section of the city two women were laid low by an assassin's bullet. The last two were inmates of houses of ill fame.

These murders have created intense excitement which is increased by the fact that it is believed that all were committed by one man.

CAPT. YEATMAN DEAD.

His Demise Occurred Suddenly Last Night, of Old Age.

Capt. J. P. Yeatman, a well known citizen of Asheville, where he has lived for years, died suddenly last night at the residence of his sons, T. R. and C. H. Yeatman, on Bearden avenue.

Mr. Yeatman was 75 years of age, and had been in feeble health for some time. Shortly after supper last night he lay down, saying he was very tired. A few minutes later he died, a general breaking down of his system being the cause.

The deceased was a native of Virginia. During his residence here he made many friends, all of whom will regret his death. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity. The remains will probably be taken for interment to Lynchburg, Va., the old home of the deceased.

FRENCH BROAD BAPTIST.

The Good Work Goes On Under Rev. Mr. Simmons' Preaching.

There was a good crowd out at the meeting at the French Broad Baptist church last evening, notwithstanding the heavy rain storm, and the after meeting was a precious season of grace to those who remained to it.

The meetings are growing in power and interest, and many have professed faith in Christ. There are two services a day at 3:30 and at 8 p. m. The song service is a special feature of these meetings and the people are now enjoying the rare privilege of hearing two of the finest gospel singers in this country. Mr. Simmons is preaching the gospel with great power. All are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

SAD, OH, SO SAD!

The Footballs Will Bring a Goose-Egg Back to Asheville.

The Asheville football team met a large sized Waterloo at Charlotte yesterday afternoon, and it was all caused by the Wake Forest team. The score stood: Wake Forest, 40; Asheville, 0, commonly called a goose-egg.

Frank A. Sumner, of this city, received this dispatch yesterday afternoon from an Asheville boy in Charlotte: "I am here doing no good at all. The Asheville boys not in it. Send me a coat and a pair of pants. I have socks of my own."

DAN SEVIER LED THE FIELD.

But the Asheville Riders Withdrew After an Unjust Decision.

CHARLOTTE, May 19.—[Special.]—The Asheville riders withdrew from the tournament with Dan Sevier ahead of the field on account of an unjust decision against Nat. Chambers. George Mosley then took first money. E. B. Lewis.

We Can Spare Some.

VIENNA, May 18.—The counting of the silver currency of Austro-Hungary shows the entire stock to be of a value of fifteen million sterling, which is much less than was generally believed. It is probable that, instead of any being sold, silver will have to be bought to meet the demand for small coin.

Ten Persons Drowned.

MORRILTON, Ark., May 19.—By the capsizing of a boat yesterday Hamp, Wilson, colored, four women and five children were drowned.

DID HE TRY TO COMMIT SUICIDE?

The train which leaves the Asheville depot at 3:05 was rounding the bend yesterday when a man rushed to the platform and jumped off. His rash act created great excitement among the other passengers—they all thought it was a case of suicide. Ladies fainted, men rushed to the platform expecting to see his mangled form upon the track, but the fact was he had forgotten to put his bottle of "Buncombe Pills" in his satchel and would not start on his journey without them. He took great chances, but he might have taken greater.

GRANT'S PHARMACY.

In purchasing medicines don't try experiments—the first and only consideration should be genuineness.
