nominating speeches and the first ballot will be reached tonight.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 9.—The day opened with the leaders of both rival forces still claiming success, but evidently somewhat doubtful of their own prophecies. The night just passed has not been such as to give cheer to the followers of either candidate. The estimates of the past week have, as delegation after delegation has reported, gradually given place to fact until the conclusion now forces itself upon the mind of every conservative man that each of the two leading candidates is from forty to sixty votes short of nomination. So far, all the indications are that the tenth national republican convention is to be a battle royal, and that the nomination is the property of no man, and that the field is practically open to all of the great leaders who have the courage and the chivalry to enter the contest.

It was a sleepless night for those in whose hands had been placed the destinies of the rival chieftains of the republican party. Conferences, immemorially have been held, and all the affairs known to political sagacity held out to the wavering delegates in order to shake their allegiance to the candidate of their choice. The Harrison leaders propose to be still in their resolve to win if they can but go down, if they must, in voting for the distinguished son of the Missouri state, but the prolonged delay in positive developments is having its effect on the sober second thought among the more conservative men in the Harrison ranks as well as those of the Blaine ranks.

The chief anxiety with the Harrison managers now is to force a ballot in order that a test of strength may be had and that the fearful suspense and anxiety of the week may be brought to a close.

The policy of the Blaine managers is still one of procrastination and delay. There is no evidence that their candidate has a vote sufficient to effect his nomination on the first ballot. As their chief hopes in this contest have depended upon enthusiasm, they fear that a failure to nominate their man on the first ballot might result in a reaction, which all the magic of his name would be powerless to stay. There is every probability that the Harrison people will force a contest unless a reconsideration of their intention should change the program. They announced last night with considerable warmth that the leisurely committee on credentials would be forced to accelerate its progress and submit a report today in order that balloting might not be further delayed.

The hall today was oppressively hot for the first ballot, hardly the fault of the hall, however, for outside the saltness was ten fold more oppressive. Big fans were waving through the hall and the delegates and spectators presented the appearance of a forest stirred by the breeze.

Bright sunshine was streaming through the colored windows when the delegates to the national convention slowly strolled into the hall today.

"Prayer will be offered by the Rev. Wm. Brush, chancellor of the University of South Dakota," said Chairman McKinley when the convention was called to order. After prayer the chairman called for the report of the committee on credentials. A round of applause greeted Chairman Cogswell. "The committee is still at work," said he, "and has made diligent progress. It hopes to be able to report tonight at 8 o'clock and asks for further time."

Ex-Gov. Sewell at once moved that recess be taken until 8 o'clock in order to give the committee necessary time, but this was delayed for a resolution of Senator Cullom, of Illinois, endorsing the

LITTLE PROGRESS IN THE CONVENTION.

THE CHANCES NOW FAVOR A DARK HORSE.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 9.—11:33—The convention was called to order at 11:22 and not 11:12. The chairman of the committee on credentials asked for further time, saying he would be able to report at 8 p. m.

Senator Cullom offered a resolution that the Columbian exposition be considered a great national undertaking; that congress take such action as may be proper to carry this out.

11:45—It is now thought that the World's fair and recommending a national appropriation therefor. This resolution was referred to the committee on resolutions and immediately thereafter the Illinois delegates introduced a resolution providing that Grand Army men shall be admitted to standing room in the house and permitted to occupy all the seats remaining vacant thirty minutes after the beginning of each session. This resolution was referred to the committee on rules and order of business.

The question then reverted upon ex-Governor Sewell's motion for adjournment until 8 o'clock this evening, but the Harrison men objected to this and Mr. Lawson, of New York, demanded a vote, and there were cries for a speech from Ingalls and others. Pennsylvania and Ohio were notably in favor of adjourning, while Wisconsin, Missouri, and several other strongly Harrison states were opposed to it. After a careful count of the heads chairman McKinley said: "The yeas are 407 and nays 260 and the convention closes in adjournment at 8 o'clock this evening." [Applause.]

Prominent Men Stop Here on Their Return From Atlanta.

Jacob W. Manning, of Reading, Mass., the oldest nurseryman in the United States, and P. S. Peterson, of Rose Hill nurseries, Illinois, came to Asheville yesterday on their way home from the first convention at Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Manning's son is the receiving forester on the Vanderbilt estate and all of the forestry work is done under his supervision.

The visitors left for their homes today. While here they were the guests of Capt. C. J. McCape. They drove out to Vanderbilt's this morning. What they saw of the city delighted them.

TENAS DELEGATES WANT BOTH BADLY.

Other States Fall Into Line For the Great American Commander—The Feeling in Alabama.

JACKSON, Miss., June 9.—The democratic state convention met here yesterday. Notwithstanding the fact that the delegates selected to go to the Chicago convention go unaimed, the convention was clearly for Cleveland.

BANGOR, Maine, June 9.—The democratic state convention yesterday nominated Charles F. Johnson, of Waterville, for governor, and elected delegates to the Chicago convention. The platform recommends the nomination of Cleveland.

AMARISTO, Tex., June 9.—A special from Lampasas to the News says the democratic state convention adopted a platform denouncing the Force Bill, demanding tariff for revenue only; opposing the sub-treasury; demanding free silver; opposing national banks as banks of issue, and favoring legislation to prevent dealing in futures.

The convention adopted a resolution declaring that Cleveland ought to be

DID HE TRY

TO COMMIT SUICIDE?

The train which leaves the Asheville depot at 5:05 was rounding the bend yesterday when a man rushed to the platform and jumped off. His rash act created great excitement among the other passengers—they all thought it was a case of suicide. Ladies fainted, men rushed to the platform expecting to see his mangled form upon the track, but the fact was he had forgotten to put his bottle of "Buncombe Pills" in his pocket and would not start on his journey without them. He took great chances, but he might have taken greater.

"I WOULD HEAD A VINCING."

Gov. Tillman Makes a Remark that Startles His Hearers.

BARNEVELL, S. C., June 7.—Under the grove of trees where eight negroes were brought from the county jail in December, two years ago, and lynched and riddled with bullets, Gov. Tillman made this sensational utterance at the first meeting of the democratic state convention today:

"There is only one crime that should bring on lynching, I as governor, would lead a party to lynch any negro that would assault a white woman."

The remark is the only thing talked about tonight.—N. Y. World.

IN CONGRESS.

Not Much Doing and Not Many There Now.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—In the house immediately after the reading of the journal and the reference of sundry reports, the floor was accorded to the committee on judiciary.

There were even fewer republican senators present at the opening of today's session than there has been since the exodus to Minneapolis set in, but among the half dozen were Sherman, Morrill and Manderson. The chair was occupied by the vice-president. The first thing proposed and agreed to was that adjournment today shall be to Monday.

ANNIVERSARY.

The Knights of Honor to Celebrate on June 10.

The local lodge of Knights of Honor are making preparations for an elegant entertainment on the nineteenth anniversary, to be held in Hilliard hall, South Main street, Thursday evening, June 10.

A meeting of the committee of arrangements will be held in Hilliard hall, Friday afternoon, June 10, at 5 o'clock, and lady members of the household of the Knights are requested to attend.

Fine Piece of Work.

Arthur M. Field, the South Main street jeweler, showed Tim Creeley today a beautiful piece of workmanship in shape of a cap ornament for an officer of the Fourth regiment N. C. S. G. The ornament is made of two miniature crowns, of gold and silver, with screw heads, lock plate and every detail perfectly distinct. The entire piece was filed out of the rough at Mr. Field's establishment. It is a beauty, and is the work of an artist.

The New Oriental Bank Failure.

LONDON, June 8.—Melbourne, Victoria, and Sidney, New South Wales, branches of the New Oriental bank, which failed here yesterday, have suspended. The announcement of the suspension caused no panic in those two cities. The deposits in the two branches amount to $285,000.

Col. Polk Some Better.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—At a late hour last night it was reported that Colonel Polk had rallied slightly and his physicians think it probable that he will live through the day.

Frank M. Weaver and Miss Ella Russell Wedded Today.

MECKLENBURG COUNTY, Va., June 8.—[Special.]—This morning at 8 o'clock a very pretty wedding occurred in this county near the waters of the Roanoke. Mr. Frank M. Weaver, one of Asheville's most popular young business men, was united in marriage by the Rev. W. P. Jordan, D. D., to Miss Ella Russell, daughter of E. H. Russell. The bride, who is formerly an art student at the Asheville Female college, looked very charming in a modest traveling costume of gray cloth. Miss Alice Russell, sister of the bride, was one of the bridesmaids, while Mr. J. W. Pickens, of Asheville, was best man.

Last evening a very pretty reception was given at the residence of the bride's father. After a short wedding trip the happy couple will reside at Dr. Weaver's on Chestnut street, Asheville, where they will receive congratulations.

The following were the attendants: Miss Alice Russell and J. W. Pickens, Miss Fannie Boyd and Jefferson Palmer, Miss Annie Hoskins and J. E. Boyd, Miss Marcetta Hoskins and R. B. Boyd, Miss Lav Harris and H. E. Shaw, Miss Vergie Bracey and J. C. Rose, Miss Cora Emory and E. H. Jackson, Miss Mattie Hendrick and G. Hoskins, Miss Irene Weaver and N. H. Boyd, Miss Sallie Boyd and A. B. Russell, Miss Helen Sessions and R. L. Travis.

PAIS, June 9.—A despatch has been received from Kingston, Jamaica, stating that great excitement has been caused in San Domingo by the announcement that the report that Samora Pava, in the western part of the Dominican republic, the terminus of the San Chelavanga railway, had been ceded to the United States is confirmed.

Terrible Loss of Life.

OR. CITY, Pa., June 8.—The total number of bodies recovered from the flood and fire is 67, of which 23 are not identified. The problem is, where are all the rest? Those who are acquainted with the city continue to estimate the loss of life at 154.

A Campaign Fund for Mr. Blaine.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—It is learned from two or three different sources this evening that a fund, amounting, it is said, to $25,000 has been recently raised among a half dozen or more friends of Mr. Blaine, presumably in his interest, and apparently as a donation for campaign purposes.—N. Y. Sun.

Nominations.

SEBASTIA, Mo., June 9.—Hon. John T. Heard was renominated by the 7th congressional democratic convention.

LAWRENCE, Kas., June 9.—The delegates of the second congressional district have nominated H. L. Moore of this city for congress.
