CHEER CAMPBELL'S NAME

OHIO DEMOCRATS IN CON-VENTION.

A Retch on the Silver Plank in the Platform--There is But a Small Crowd in Attendance--A Stride Proposed.

COLUMBUS, O., June 15.--The democratic state convention convened at 9:30 this morning. The heat is extreme and notwithstanding the limited capacity of the house, the indications are that its seating capacity will not be taken. In point of numbers it is one of the smallest state conventions of either party which has assembled in Ohio for many years.
An effort will be made to dispose of business at one continuous session instead of adjourning over to afternoon.
The delegates feel that the limited business can be disposed of in a brief time after the disposition of formalities.

The single session will depend upon the progress made by the several committees appointed yesterday. The committee on resolutions held a protracted session last night, lasting until early morning, and then the duty of making up a platform was delegated to a subcommittee of five. This committee continued its session this morning with out reaching agreement. The hitch is on the silver plank. Gen. Finley and other silver democrats insist on the free silver plank of last year, but there is an effort being made to straddle the question. A tariff reform plank has been adopted and summary legislation discounted.

NOOK--On calling the convention to order Chairman Jas. A. Norton of the state central committee referred to the important work of the convention which was the selection of delegates to Chicago, and which, he said, should be done with the greatest fairness. His mention of Chicago was received with much enthusiasm, which grew as he reached the names of Hill, Whitney, Gorman and others on the list. When the speaker reached the name of Gov. Campbell the convention assumed a wild scene of demonstrations. The applause continued for several minutes, giving strong evidence that the ex-governor had a big following in the convention.
Hon. Jas. E. Neal, chairman of the convention, came from a sick room to preside and was received with much favor. He was frequently applauded in his utterances. Permanent committees were announced on the call of districts, and at 10:40 the convention took a recess of 30 minutes to give the committees opportunity to prepare reports.

THE LYNNING QUESTION.

It Comes Up in the Senate--Silver

Again.

WASHINGTON, June 15.--In the house today after the transaction of some routine business the house went into committee of the whole on the fortification bill, Breckinridge, of Kentucky, in charge of the bill, briefly explained its provisions. It appropriated $2,412,376, being $1,202,427 less than the amount of the bill of last year--and authorizes the secretary of war to make contracts for certain work to be done at the fort of Mifflin, Pa. An appropriation of $1,376,600. An appropriation is made for the enlargement of Watervliet arsenal, and for finishing ten and twelve inch sea coast guns for that arsenal.

In presenting a petition in the senate today from Riley county, Kansas, in opposition to the prevalence of lynching, Mr. Plafieff stated that, from the newspaper reports, the practice was growing in all parts of the country, north, south, east, and west, many people, particularly colored people, being hanged or shot to death when merely suspected of crime.
It was time, he thought, for the American congress to take action in that matter and he hoped that the judiciary committee, to which the petition was referred, would report promptly.

TO PREMIER AT CHICAGO.

Watterson, Stevenson and Campbell for Temporary Chairman.

CHICAGO, June 13.--Among the few democrats of prominence who have arrived here there is considerable speculation as to who will be temporary chairman of the national convention. Secretary L. F. Sherin, of the executive committee of the national democratic convention, said today that the name he had heard mentioned in connection with the office were Henry Watterson, Adlai Stevenson, ex-assistant postmaster general, ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, and Governor Abbott, of New Jersey. He added, however, that he had not heard the matter discussed much, as it would hardly be settled before the meeting of the national committee at the Palmer house next Monday--N. Y. Herald.

DEMO-ALLIANCE.

That Is What Won In One Kansas District.

EMPORIA, Kansas, June 15.--Congressman John G. Otis, of the fourth Kansas district, was defeated for re-nomination yesterday by E. W. Wharton, physician, of Yates Center, Woodson county.
Wharton was a democrat before he joined the alliance. Otis is a straight-out farmers' alliance man. The democratic convention which was in session at the time Wharton was nominated had given it out that they would fuse on almost anybody except on Otis. His ballots were taken before the nomination was made. The democratic convention immediately endorsed Wharton's nomination. Then both conventions adjourned.

EXCOMMUNICATED.

A Lot of Polish Catholics Scored by Their Bishop.

CLEVELAND, O., June 15.--Bishop Horstman last evening took a step which will probably stop the turbulence in the Polish parish of St. Stanislaus, caused by a recent change in priests.
He appeared in the church at Vesper service, and in a short address excommunicated those who had participated in the attacks upon Father Rosinski until they shall have publicly repented of their sins. He scored the turbulent Poles unmercifully and they appear now to be thoroughly cowed.

ELIAS CARR.

farm, in the county of Edgecombe, near the village of "Old Sparta," and was the son of James Carr. He is now about fifty-one years of age. He has a large and influential family connection, whose careers are associated with much of the most honorable history of North Carolina. He was prepared for entrance into the University of North Carolina at the Bingham school in Orange county. He pursued his course at Chapel Hill for some time, but eventually finished his education at the University of Virginia.
That education he applied to the practical purposes of agriculture so as to become regarded as one of the best and most successful farmers in the state; and he lived as a farmer, with simple devotion to his calling, until called forth to lead his fellow agriculturists in their latter aspiration after that justice of equal recognition so long denied them.

He has been for fifteen years a member of the board of county commissioners of Edgecombe county, and for some time a member of the board of managers of the A. and M. college, and is also a member of the World's Fair commission. Mr.
Carr was married in 1859 to Miss Eleanor, daughter of Mr. William Kearney, of Shoem Springs. He will be known now as he deserves to be. The people will be true to so worthy a leader.--Raleigh Chronicle.

THIRTY MEN DROWNED

TEMPORARY BRIDGE WORK
GIVES AWAY.

There Was Too Much Weight and the False Work Was Unable to Stand the Strain--Several Persons Severely Injured.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 15.--The false work of the new bridge over the Licking river between Covington and Newport, Kentucky, fell this morning, and thirty workmen were drowned.
Sixteen bodies have already been taken out. Assistant Superintendent Wm.
Wilson's back was broken. He is still alive. Wm. Flack, of Covington was hurt about the head. Jno. O'Neil, internally injured, and is dying.
The work was erected by the Baird brothers, of Pittsburg at their own risk.
They were putting on beams for the floor of the bridge proper, when their weight caused the temporary structure to give away.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

Fatal Result of the Breaking of a K. C. G. & L. Trestle.

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., June 15.--[Special.]--In a wreck on the Knoxville, Cumberland Gap and Louisville railroad yesterday Thos. Allison, engineer, James Shelton, conductor, Frank Sargent, engineer, and Geo. Cline, conductor, were killed.

Allison and Shelton were from Waynesville and Cline was from Hickory.
The accident in which the men lost their lives was caused by the breaking of a trestle, on which there was a heavily loaded train drawn by two engines.

Cline was known in Asheville, where he lived for some time while running as freight conductor on the Western North Carolina division of the Richmond and Danville road. He went to the K. C. G.
& L. road only a few months ago.
He was about 23 years of age, and unmarried.

Sargent was for several years an engineer on the Western road. He was perhaps 38 years old and was married.
The Knoxville Journal of this morning, not agreeing entirely with THE CITIZEN'S special, gives the following list of dead and injured: L. T. Allison and J. R.
Shelton, killed outright; F. A. Sargent, badly bruised; J. Duckworth, perhaps fatally injured; Harvey Ogg and C. O.
Pringle, slightly injured; James Gillespie, Wm. Finster and S. Luckey, colored brakemen, slight injuries.

No Alliance Necessary.

ST. PAUL, June 15.--It has been definitely announced by Marshall Campbell, chairman of the Minnesota democratic central committee, that there would be no fusion between the democrats and alliance men. He said the democrats were so confident of getting a plurality this fall that they did not care to make any alliance.

Baltimore Warehouse Burned.

BALTIMORE, June 14.--The big warehouse of the Bay line of steamers at the foot of Union dock burned yesterday afternoon. It was totally destroyed with its contents, including 5,000 hales of cotton, and over 1,200 barrels of whiskey intended for foreign shipment. The loss will reach nearly $1,000,000.

To Extend the Use of Silver.

WASHINGTON, June 15.--All the governments of Europe with the single exception of Russia have accepted the invitation issued by the president to participate in the monetary conference looking to the more extensive use of silver money.

PART OF A TOWN WRECKED

A CHURCH CONGREGATION
IMPRISONED.

Nearly Every Business House on the Main Street of Galva, Ill., Unroofed--The Place Demoralized--One Fatality.

GALESBURG, Ill., June 15.--There passed over the northeastern part of this (Knox) county about six o'clock Monday evening a most destructive tornado. It seems to have made its appearance northwest of Galva about 7:30 o'clock.
Its course was southeast through that city and the main body of the storm passed along the main street of the city. It came with so much suddenness that the citizens had no time in which to fly to places of safety.

In the Free Methodist church there was assembled a congregation. In the rick there was gathering a committee to arrange for a Fourth of July celebration.
The church was quickly a mass of ruins and the congregation was imprisoned.
A number were injured, one dangerously.
The rick was also blown down but those inside managed to escape without injury.

The roar of the storm is described as terrible. It was accompanied by midnight darkness and an awful sweep of wind that carried everything before it.
Nearly every business house along the principal street was unroofed and stocks of goods were badly damaged by floods of water following the tornado.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy round house was totally wrecked. The Barnett elevator near by was unroofed and ten thousand bushels of grain deluged with water. The Rock Island and Peoria elevator and part of the depot were next. The tall steeple of the Baptist church was cut off as clean as if by a knife and was hurled into the street. The congregational church was also badly injured.

The saddest feature occurred at August Olsen's house. There was in the house at the time Mr. and Mrs. Olsen, Chas. Olsen and four others. The residence collapsed killing Olsen instantly.
The others escaping as by miracles.

The place today was in a state of demoralization. Business was completely suspended, streets were filled with debris of every description and stores were empty or less in ruins.

The damage is estimated at $200,000.
The following delegates at large have been elected to Chicago: J. H. Rogers, R. W. Fordice, H. H. Brown and Jno. G.
Fleming.
