SECOND DAY OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

A LONG WAIT FOR THE PLATFORM COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

THE SILVER QUESTION PROBABLY CAUSES THE DELAY.

CHICAGO, June 22.—The sub-committee on platform was in session at a very late hour last night, the session being prolonged by the sharp fight over the silver plan to be recommended to the full committee. The outcome of the fight was a majority report in favor of a "straddle" on the question and the minority report to meet

MADISON'S BLOODY DAY

THE FEARFUL WORK DONE LAST SUNDAY.

W. M. Shelton Shoots and Kills a Young Man Named Tweed—A Nearly Fatal Fight Between Women.

A gentleman from Marshall who was in Asheville today brought news of one murder and an attempted murder which occurred in Madison county on Sunday last.

The murder was committed by Wm. M. Shelton, his victim being a young man named Tweed. The killing occurred on Spill Corn creek, and was done by a pistol bullet, shot through Tweed's neck, killing him instantly. An old grudge is said to have been the cause.

Sunday afternoon a young daughter of Anson Tweed was passing the house of "Doc" Shelton, on Shelton Lane, Shelton's wife came out and pointed a gun at Miss Tweed. Some words passed and Mrs. Shelton set down the gun and picking up an axe, started towards Miss Tweed.

Mrs. Shelton is said to have attempted to strike Miss Tweed with an axe, but the latter drawing a knife, cut Mrs. Shelton across the abdomen, making a fearful wound, she also cut her across the back.

The wounded woman, although so terribly injured, is expected to recover. Miss Tweed was taken to Marshall on Monday and placed in jail.

A supposed intimacy between Mrs. Shelton's husband and Miss Tweed is said to have been the cause of the trouble.

A WASHOUT.

Engineer Frank Ketchey Discovers It in the Sick of Time.

Passenger train No. 11, which left Asheville at 6:30 last evening was saved from an accident on the Western North Carolina railroad about 7:30 o'clock.

The train was in charge of Engineer Frank Ketchey and Conductor Thomas Murphy. At the hour stated the train was running slowly, the engineer rather expecting trouble by reason of the heavy rains of yesterday. When the train neared the Sandy Mush trestle, near Marshall, the engineer saw that the trestle had been washed out. He applied the brakes instantly and the train on which there were over 100 passengers, was brought to a standstill only a few feet from the washout.

The train returned to Asheville and the passengers spent the night here, delayed on their trip, but feeling gratified to the engineer for saving them from what might have been a serious accident.

The wrecking force of the Western road, which is one of the best in the south, was put to work as soon as possible and the washed out portion of the track was repaired by 1 o'clock this afternoon. The delayed train left here about 11 o'clock.

A SHOOTING.

A Bullet Meant for One Man Strikes Another in the Arm.

An altercation occurred late yesterday afternoon on North Main street between A. A. Featherston, of the firm of Hampton & Featherston, and J. Nicoll, of the wall paper firm of Nicoll & Hunt. Only a few blows were struck.

Featherston returned to his saloon, where he was followed by Nicoll, who had procured a pistol. Nicoll entered the saloon and began shooting at Featherston, firing three shots. Neither of the bullets hit the mark, but one of them struck Thomas Orr, a bartender, in the arm, causing a slight wound which was soon after dressed by Dr. J. A. Burroughs.

Featherston had a hearing before Justice Summey yesterday afternoon and was fined $2 for an assault. This morning Nicoll was before Justice Summey and was fined $50 for carrying a pistol and bound over to court for his assault on Featherston.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

Would-be Thieves at the West End Drug Store.

Shortly after 12 o'clock last night a telephone call was received at police headquarters asking for policemen at the West End drug store, as thieves were attempting to break in.

Patrolmen Nolan, Triplett and Wild went down to the scene in a hurry, but when they arrived they were informed by Mr. Gilkey, the clerk, that the men had gone without effecting an entrance. He gave the officers a description of two men, and the officers knew that they had passed on the way down two men who filled the description exactly.

AN OCTOGENARIAN DEAD

Mrs. Hannah Smith Dies Early This Morning.

Mrs. Hannah Smith died this morning at 5 o'clock at the residence of her son-in-law, I. E. Reed, on North Main street.

Mrs. Smith was 85 years of age and leaves four children. She was a devout member of Mills River Presbyterian church. The funeral services will occur at Mr. Reed's residence tomorrow at 10 o'clock, and the interment will take place at Riverside cemetery at 11:30. The funeral service will be conducted by Rev. A. H. Gamble, pastor of the First M. E. church.

11:40 a. m.—Loud calls for Mills.

11:40 a. m.—The call for Mills continues. The delegates are on their feet cheering.

11:44 a. m.—A committee of two was named to escort Mills to the platform. Mills was too ill to address the convention and was compelled to leave the hall and go to his hotel.

11:47 a. m.—Loud calls for Palmer of Illinois.

Motion that Senator Palmer be asked to address the convention. Carried.

12:58 p. m.—Palmer takes the platform amid general cheering.

12:25 p. m.—Permanent Chairman Wilson has just entered the hall. Great cheering.

12:27 p. m.—Wilson takes the platform amid great cheering.

12:52 p. m.—Palmer said, "Much as we owe to our party we owe more to our country. Democrats should see that legislation is not in the interest of any section but for the whole people." He denounced force and tariff bills sought to be put in operation by the republicans.

12:57 p. m.—The New York people say they are given up the idea of contesting the unit rule and will therefore not prevent the minority report favoring it.

12:40 p. m.—Wilson said the McKinley reciprocity bill is one of the greatest absurdities of the age. He appealed for harmony in the convention and the passage of the convention as a candidate to lead them.

12:45 p. m.—Wilson finished. Great cheering.

12:46.—Convention thanked the temporary chairman for the manner in which he discharged his duties. The committee on rules reported.

12:50 p. m.—The next order of business will be the presentation of the platform; then the presentation of candidates.

12:51 p. m.—Report of the committee on resolutions ordered.

12:58 p. m.—The passage of the report of the committee on rules makes the unit rule hold in this convention.

The committee on platform is not quite ready to report.

12:59 p. m.—It was concluded not to call the roll of the states, but the states were requested to send names to the secretary. The convention is waiting for the report of the committee on platform.

1:15 p. m.—Still waiting for committee on platform. No disposition shown for adjournment.

1:16 p. m.—Gov. Campbell was invited to address the convention.

1:17 p. m.—The band is playing. "The Campbells are Coming;" delegates cheering.

1:18 p. m.—Campbell takes the platform.

1:22.—Campbell returned thanks for

DID HE TRY TO COMMIT SUICIDE?

The train which leaves the Asheville depot at 3:05 was rounding the bend yesterday when a man rushed to the platform and jumped off. His rash act created great excitement among the other passengers—they all thought it was a case of suicide. Ladies fainted, men rushed to the platform expecting to see his mangled form upon the track, but the fact was he had forgotten to put his "Buncombe Pills" in his pocket and would not start on his journey without them. He took great chances, but he might have taken greater.
