Order having been secured the reading of the platform was concluded. It was loudly cheered, particularly in its denunciation of the force bill. Applause also greeted the homestead plank and that portion of the silver plank denouncing the Sherman act. The reference to federal officers in the national conventions elicited a terrific yell. The only features of the platform which seemed to call forth a divided sentiment were the tariff and silver planks which were apparently not sufficiently radical to satisfy the delegates with pronounced views.

The following is the financial plank as adopted: "We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard of money of the country and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage, but the dollar unit of account of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted through the international agreement, or by such sub-guards of legislation as shall guarantee the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts; and we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon such policy as especially necessary for the protection of farmers and the laboring classes, the first and most defenseless victims of unstable money and fluctuating currency.

"Section 8. We recommend that prohibitory ten per cent. tax on state bank issues be repealed."

The minority report defeated, on the silver plank identical with the majority plank except that it reads

"through the free coinage of both gold and silver" instead of "through the coinage of both gold and silver."

Col. Jones moved the adoption of the platform. Neal of Ohio, was recognized and gave notice of an intention to present a substitute for the tariff section and offered the following as a substitute:

This was adopted.

"We denounce republican protection as a fraud. The labor of the great majority of the American people is for the benefit of the few. We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the democratic party that the federal government has not constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for the purposes of revenue only, and we demand that the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the government when honestly and economically administered."

After speeches by Neal, Watterson, Vilas and others, and a scene of great confusion the substitute was adopted by a vote of 564 to 642.

The motion of Pattison, of California, for a free coinage of silver substitute was defeated.

Nominations.

Then Governor Abbott, of New Jersey, nominated Cleveland; Hon. J. F. Du-cumbe nominated Boies, and W. C. Dewitt nominated Hill. The balloting resulting in the nomination of Cleveland at 3:30 this morning.

Then Mr. Upshur, of Maryland, moved that Cleveland's nomination be made unanimous. Great confusion prevailed in the hall, people clamoring for the result of the ballot. Throckmorton, of Texas, obtained recognition and changed the vote of that state to three for Cleveland. The chair announced this and that West Virginia, had changed and cast 11 votes for Grover Cleveland. Mr. Morris-son, of Kentucky, announced a change in WASHINGTON, June 23.—[Special.]—The night session of the democratic convention was called to order at 5:14. The committee on platform was not then ready to report, but at 6:24 Chas. H. Jones, of Missouri, chairman of the resolutions committee, presented the report. Mr.

Pattison, of Colorado, announced that a minority report would be presented before the previous question would be put on the adoption of the platform.

[Criers.] Then ex-Secretary Vilas commenced to read the resolutions, but when he reached the phrase "From Madison to Cleveland" there was a quick shout of one voice near the platform. It was lost, however, in a flash, for it seemed as though with one impulse, the entire twenty thousand people leaped upon their chairs and let loose yells and shouts that shook the wigwag. A man in the rear of the delegates hoisted a picture of D. B. Hill. A quick hostile hand ripped it from its standard and tore it up while yells for and against the act swept in a wave all around the hall.

Then came the arena the crimson banner of Iowa. A sturdy Boies undered it aloft and waved it constantly while the mass of sweltering people made a din and storm of sound.

The tempest ebbed and flowed for 10 minutes when Don Dickinson, of Michigan, caused the Michigan banner to be carried into view in order that business might be resumed.

Through all this the Tammany men sat calm and silent, neither hissing Cleveland nor cheering Hill. Their disapproval was perfectly controlled, and they demanded that all paper currency shall be

stable money and fluctuating currency.
