A VERY INTERESTING SUIT NOW BEING HEARD BY JUDGE SHUFORD.

Mrs. Florence J. Harris, of Denver, Col., endeavoring to get possession of her young son, who is in the hands of his father.

A sensational proceeding is now in progress before Judge Geo. A. Shuford, of the superior court, in Asheville.

Mrs. Florence J. Harris, of Denver, Colorado, upon a writ of habeas corpus, is endeavoring to get possession of her child, David R. Harris, a boy of some ten years, now in the possession of his father, C. J. Harris, of Dillsboro, N. C.

This action by Mrs. Harris is to enforce the provisions of a decree of a Colorado court, rendered on June 3rd, granting her a divorce from her husband, C. J. Harris, and also the custody of her children.

C. J. Harris, now one of the owners and managers of the knoll works at Dillsboro, N. C., in the year 1881 married Miss Florence J. Rusk, a native of Michigan.

At the time of the marriage, Harris was a teacher of Greek in the high school at Colorado Springs, Colorado. He was a graduate of Princeton college, New Jersey, but was poor.

Miss Rusk was the daughter of a wealthy lumberman, of East Saginaw, Michigan, and shortly after her marriage came into possession, in her own right, of over $100,000 worth of property from her father's estate.

Her husband went into a number of business enterprises shortly after their marriage, all of which ultimately failed, and she became impregnated between husband and wife, and in 1889 they separated, and Mr. Harris came to North Carolina.

In March last Mrs. Harris entered suit for divorce in the courts of Colorado, and a summons giving notice of this act was issued against Mr. Harris. This summons was returned, but Harris is not being in the state. Another proceeding was at once instituted by publication, because of the defendant's failure to appear.

Mr. Harris has made money in North Carolina, and as Mrs. Harris' father was an attorney, and a good family socially, the case is of much interest.

The record of the proceedings of the Colorado court were read this morning and then Mrs. Harris was put upon the stand to testify. She testified that an hour she underwent a searching cross-examination conducted by Attorney W. W. Jones.

Mrs. Harris is 38 years of age, remarkably handsome, and her bearing under the circumstances, and the unusually brilliant character of her replies, have not been exceeded in Buncombe's court house in a generation.

At 1 o'clock the court adjourned to meet at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Judge J. H. Harrison, of Asheville, and Walter E. Moore, of Webster, are the counsel for Mrs. Harris, and W. W. Jones, of Asheville, H. E. Ewart, of Hendersonville, J. J. Hooker, of Webster, and Frederick Fisher, of Bryson City, represented Mr. Harris.

The case is a most interesting one, not only as to the evidence, but the law points involved.

WILL PAVE SOME.

The Street Committee to Do a Little Work Without Col. Martin.

Speaking of the Patton avenue paving, Alderman Starnes told THE CITIZEN today that the joint street committee had not been able to see President Martin, of the Asheville street railway company, in an endeavor to make arrangements for the paving between the rails of the street railway on Patton avenue.

Mr. Starnes, stated, however, that the committee had instructed E. H. Britt to put down between the rails the sand necessary to allow the paving contractors to go to work on the remainder of the street. This was begun this afternoon, and it is expected that the paving is now a thing of the near future.

As to the responsibility for the notification of Col. Martin, the following from THE CITIZEN'S report of the joint board meeting of June 17 will be of interest:

"A copy of your resolution of Friday, June 24, in relation to the Asheville street railway company paving immediately on Depot, South and North Main streets, and Patton avenue, was handed me on Saturday afternoon last, under your direction, by your city engineer.

"In response to your notice I regret to say that owing to paving complications of the last few days, it will be impossible for me to pave the streets named immediately, and I desire to state that any action taken by your honorable body looking to the paving of Patton avenue will not be obstructed by me, but facilitated in every way."

No one yet knows what Col. Martin means in the foregoing by "paving complications."

Trouble in the Market.

A disturbance occurred in the market house Saturday evening in which Market Keeper Lynch, Miss McIntyre, a renter of one of the stalls, and P. C. McIntyre's book-keeper figured. Lynch was struck on the head a couple of times by a broom in the hands of Miss McIntyre. The trouble originated over a small wagon belonging to Mr. McIntyre's son, which was standing in one of the stalls and which Mr. Lynch wanted removed.

slipped slippers.

John Hannon, colored, was before Justice Israel today on a charge of stealing a pair of slippers from H. Redwood & Co., on Patton avenue, Saturday night. Hannon was trading in the store and hid the slippers under his clothing. Justice Israel fixed the bond at $100, in default of which Hannon was sent up. The slippers were recovered. Hannon is about 18 years of age.

Webster's Birthplace Marked.

FRANKLIN, N. H., June 25.—In accordance with an arrangement made by the late George W. Nesmith, of Franklin, the exact spot on which stood the house in which Daniel Webster was born has been marked by a huge boulder. By the side of this has been erected a staff fifty feet high, from which on pleasant days a flag will float.

A Skeleton of a Sea Cow.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 24.—The special treasury agents, just returned from the Russian seal islands on the Siberian coast, have brought back a perfect skeleton of a sea cow, an animal extinct 100 years. The only specimen is owned by the czar. The skeleton is thirty feet long and twenty high and was purchased for $150.—New York World.

"It Does Not Always Follow."

WRECKED THE BUILDINGS ONE HUNDRED THROUN BY AN EARTHQUAKE.

The People of Guadalajara Terribly Frightened—A Volcano in Eruption—Several Persons Injured.

GUADALAJARA, Mex., June 27.—The people of this city and the surrounding country have been in a state of terror for the past two days on account of repeated shocks of earthquake. The first shock occurred Friday night and lasted eighteen seconds, the vibration running from southwest to northeast. Glass in the windows was broken, and the plastering in many buildings cracked. Hundreds of people took refuge in the streets.

At daylight Saturday the second shock occurred, causing a great disaster; no less than one hundred buildings were completely wrecked. Several persons were seriously injured, but none were killed.

Since then several shocks have been felt.

A volcano south of here is in active eruption and is throwing out great volumes of sulphurous smoke and lava.

STEVENSON'S DEMOCRACY.

Proud Record of the Party's Nominee for Vice-President.

BLOOMINGTON, June 25.—Two republican commissioners came to town today to look into the record of Adlai E. Stevenson and gather material for attacks. They met with a warm reception, for wherever they went republicans and democrats assured them that the record of Mr. Stevenson was absolutely unimpeachable.

It was ascertained that the guilty person was a woman and that the missile was a large piece of hard ginger bread. The ginger bread struck Mr. Gladstone on the nose, just beneath the left eye, and then glanced upward, grazing the eye and causing Mr. Gladstone much pain.

When he arrived at the headquarters of the Liberal club two doctors were summoned, who made a careful examination and found that the injured eye was considerably inflamed and that the skin on the nose was grazed. They applied some alleviating remedies and succeeded in moderating the pain.

THE OUTRAGE AVENGED.

Dramatic Scene in a New York Court Room.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Max Clerget who was before the bar today in the court of General Sessions to answer to a charge of rapping 15 years old Sarah Divin was shot through the heart and instantly killed by the girl's brother, Edward Divin, 25 years old. The utmost excitement prevailed in court for a time and the scene was dramatic in the extreme.

Pledges Tammany Support.

NEW YORK, June 25.—District Attorney Nicoll, who was among the delegates who arrived from the Chicago convention, was asked if Tammany would support Cleveland during the coming campaign.

"Cleveland will get the hearty support of Tammany," said Mr. Nicoll. "There are a great many men in Tammany hall with whom Cleveland was the first choice in the convention. Tammany will support him next November. If his election depends upon Tammany he will be elected. I think that Cleveland's majority in this city will be the largest received in a number of years, and I should not be surprised if it ran as high as 70,000."

Third Party Ticket.

DALLAS, Tex., June 25.—The people's party in Texas yesterday nominated the following state ticket: governor, T. C. Nugent; lieutenant governor, Maric Martin; ex-democratic congressman from east Texas, comptroller, J. P. Drake, of Seguin; treasurer, P. E. McCulloch; land commissioner, J. D. A. Duncan; superintendent of public institutions, C. L. Ammons.

Whittier Will Write the Ode.

AMESBURY, Mass., June 26.—It is now a settled fact that the poet Whittier will write the opening ode for the World's Fair at Chicago. When the matter was first broached to the poet he was unable to give a definite answer, but improved health will permit him so to do. The title is still a secret to every one except Mr. Whittier.—N. Y. World.

A DESPERATE SITUATION SUCH IS IT THAT THE REPUBLICANS ARE IN.

President Harrison Drives Clarkson From the Chairmanship of the National Republican Committee and Clarkson Cheerfully Accepts the Dismissal.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—At a meeting of the republican national committee this morning all the members were present either in person or by proxy except those from Nevada, Wyoming and Oklahoma. J. Sloan Fassett, of New York, took the floor and placed in nomination Gen. J. S. Clarkson as permanent chairman of the committee. He said that when the doors closed on the Minneapolis convention they closed on a bitter party; that the friends of Clarkson were disappointed, but today they are earnest supporters of the nominees of the convention and would be found at the front till the close of the campaign.

"We are entering," Fassett said, "upon a campaign which is no holiday excursion. The democrats have nominated their strongest man, and while the situation is desperate, every republican who is really a republican will do everything in his power to win the fight in November."

Fassett paid an eloquent tribute to Clarkson.

Mr. Clarkson took the floor as Fassett concluded and said that he had received personal individual tenders of support for the chairmanship of the committee from 42 members of the committee, yet he had learned this morning that the candidate for the presidency (Harrison), preferred another man. He therefore cheerfully declined to be considered a candidate.

At noon the committee took a recess until 8 p. m., in order that President Harrison might indicate his preference for chairman of the committee.

HOUSE AND SENATE.

Both Bodies Down to Work—Bills Reported.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—In the house today Mr. Sayers, of Texas, asked consent to vacate the order for the yeas and nays on the final passage of the general deficiency appropriation bill; but Mr. Watson, of Georgia, objected. However the bill passed, yeas, 185, nays, 4.

Mr. Wheeler, of Alabama, submitted the conference report on the military academy bill.

In the senate the house bill amending to the census act (as to general and special schedules of industries) was reported by Mr. Hale from the committee on the eleventh census. Passed.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was reported by Mr. Allison, who gave notice that he would call it up at the close of the morning business today. The house amendments to the senate bill as to the circuit court of appeals were non-concurred in and a conference asked.

FORTIFICATION PLANS.

A Member of the American Legation in Paris in Trouble.

PARIS, June 27.—The American legation here has called to Washington asking the authorities to recall Captain Borup, a military attaché, accused of having procured plans and descriptions of French fortifications for illegal purposes from a clerk in the naval department. Captain Borup has apparently lost his head and has given several contradictory versions of the affair in the interviews he has had with newspaper reporters. A French detective in citizen's clothes sits on a bench in Avenue Marceau watching the residence of Captain Borup and the doors of the American legation.

OUT ON $500 BOND.

The Case Against E. M. Spencer Continued to Friday.

Deputy Sheriff H. C. Jones returned to the city this morning having in his charge E. M. Spencer, who was arrested in Roanoke, Va., about ten days ago on a warrant charging him with obtaining money under false pretences in this city.

Mr. Spencer was taken before Justice A. T. Summey at 1 o'clock this afternoon, when a prayer for continuance was granted until Friday. Bond was fixed at $500, which was given and Mr. Spencer was released. His bondsmen were J. M. Kay, F. Stickleather and C. W. Wynn. Moore & Merrick represent the plaintiffs and Jones & Webb the defendant.

FOURTH OF JULY.

How Kentworth Inn Proposes to Spend That Day.

Preparations are being made at Kentworth Inn for the Fourth of July program at that resort. On the Fourth a morning german will be given, beginning at 10 o'clock. In the afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock there will be interesting sports, ranging in importance from a greased pig race to a baseball match. In the evening, beginning at 9 o'clock, will occur the grand opening ball of the season.

The hotel orchestra, an exceptionally fine one, will arrive Saturday and remain during the season.

Gresham and the People's Party.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 25.—Gen. Weaver, who has been mentioned as a possible candidate for president at the Omaha convention, said today in regard to the report that Judge Gresham would accept the nomination:

"There can be no question of the nomination of Judge Gresham at Omaha if he assures the committee that he will accept on the St. Louis platform. I suggested his name to confidential friends in Kansas and Des Moines more than a year and a half ago, and have never seen any cause to change my opinion of the propriety of his candidacy. It will rest entirely with Judge Gresham.—N. Y. Sun.

Whittier Will Write the Ode.

AMESBURY, Mass., June 26.—It is now a settled fact that the poet Whittier will write the opening ode for the World's Fair at Chicago. When the matter was first broached to the poet he was unable to give a definite answer, but improved health will permit him so to do. The title is still a secret to every one except Mr. Whittier.—N. Y. World.

DID HE TRY TO COMMIT SUICIDE?

The train which leaves the Asheville depot at 3:05 was rounding the bend yesterday when a man rushed to the platform and jumped off. His rash act created great excitement among the other passengers—they all thought it was a case of suicide. Ladies fainted, men rushed to the platform expecting to see his mangled form upon the track, but the fact was he had forgotten to put his bottle of "Buncombe Pills" in his satchel and would not start on his journey without them. He took great chances, but he might have taken greater.

GRANT'S PHARMACY.

In purchasing medicines don't try experiments—the first and only consideration should be genuineness. Buncombe Pharmacy has stood the test of several years and today it is in greater demand than ever. Over five hundred bottles sold this spring, a triumphant proof of popular approval. For sale at

GRANT'S PHARMACY.

BUNCOMBE LIVER PILLS are mild, yet efficient; do not cause pain or griping, and act upon the liver and bowels. They are especially valuable as after dinner pills, and readily cure constipation and costiveness, nausea, distress in the stomach, etc.

They are purely vegetable and we believe they are the best family pill yet prepared and offer them with perfect confidence, believing that whenever used it will be with the happiest results. Try them and judge for yourself. For sale only at

GRANT'S PHARMACY.

"SYRUP OF TAR AND WILD CHERRY" as manufactured at Grant's Pharmacy is the best cough medicine you can use for yourself or your children—it is a positive cure and we guarantee it to contain no opiates in any form, it is entirely harmless. For sale only at

GRANT'S PHARMACY.

Years ago people regarded cold cream and camphor ice as the ultimatums for chapped hands and all similar skin troubles, but many persons find that the application of either of them aggravates their trouble. To such "CAMPHOR-GLYCERINE COMPOUND" is a boon—it is a positive cure for chapped hands, chafing, sunburn, etc., and an elegant face dressing after shaving—it contains no mineral or noxious ingredient, is elegantly perfumed, will not soil the most delicate fabric, is entirely harmless and safe to use on the most delicate skin and contains nothing greasy or sticky.
