CLEVELAND & STEVENSON OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION OF THEIR NOMINATION.

A Grand Speech From the Next President—Lower Taxes and No Force Bill the Issues—More Than Thirty Thousand People Are Present. NEW YORK, July 21.—Grover Cleveland and Adlai E. Stevenson have been officially notified that they are the choice of the democracy of this great country to lead it either to victory or defeat. The notification ceremonies took place last night in the presence of a crowd of people that surpassed in enthusiasm and numbers even that vast throng that on September 6, 1888, at the same place, gave greeting to Allen G. Thurman. The great amphitheater of Madison Square garden was crowded as it never has before and a thousand and odd electric lights twinkled in wonder as they looked down from their lofty perches upon the sea of heads and gesticulating speakers. When the doors were opened the people overrode the police, clubs and all. They made one frantic rush for the seats, and in the remarkably short space of ten minutes all the room in the building that remained vacant were the reserved seats on the platform and boxes. Mr. Stevenson was the first to appear, but Mr. Cleveland soon followed. After waiting some time to be heard, and for the approval of the applause to subside, Mr. Cleveland arose and Mr. Wilson notified him in a speech of ten minutes' duration that he had been nominated for the Presidency.

Mr. Cleveland responded: MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN:—The message you deliver from the national democracy arouses within me emotions which would be well-nigh overwhelming if I did not recognize and enthusiastically of which all who have any right to claim democratic fellowship must constantly and persistently labor. Our party responsibility is indeed great. Turning our eyes to the plain people of the land, we see them burdened as consumers with a tariff system, and oppressively and relentlessly demands from them in the purchase of the necessities and comforts of life, an amount scarcely met by the wages of hard and steady toil, while the exactions thus wrung from them build up and increase the fortunes of those for whose benefit the tariff is perpetuated. We see the farmer listening to a delusive story that fills his mind with visions of an advance, while his pocket is robbed by the stealthy hand of high protection.

Our workmen are still told the tale, repeated in spite of its demonstrable falsity, that the existing protective tariff is a boon to them, and that under its beneficent operation wages must increase, while as they listen scenes are enacted in the very abiding place of high protection that mock the hopes of toil and honest industry. Workingmen receive from those made selfish and servile by unjust governmental favoritism. We oppose earnestly and stubbornly the theory upon which our opponents seek to justify and uphold existing tariff laws. We need not ask our attack upon questions of constitutional permission of legislative power. We denounce this theory upon the highest possible grounds when we contend that in the present conditions its operation is unjust, and that laws enacted in accordance with it are unjust and unfair. Ours is not a destructive party. We are not at enmity with the rights of any of our citizens. We are not recklessly heedless of any American interests nor will we abandon our regard for them, but invoking the love of fairness and justice, which belongs to true Americanism, and upon which our constitution rests, we insist that no plan of tariff legislation shall be tolerated, which has for its object and purpose a forced contribution from the earnings and income of the mass of our citizens to swell the accumulation of a favored few; nor will we permit a pretended solicitude for American labor, or any other specious pretext of the benevolent care for others to blind the eyes of the people to the selfish schemes of those who seek, through the aid of an unequal tariff law, to gain unearned and unreasonable advantages at the expense of their fellows. We have also assumed in our covenant with those whose support we invite, the duty of opposing to the death, another avowed scheme of our adversaries, which under the guise of protecting suffrage, covers but does not conceal the design thereby to perpetuate the power of a party afraid to trust its continuance to the untrammelled and intelligent votes of the American people. We are pledged to resist legislation intended to complete this scheme, because we have not forgotten the saturnalia of the theft and the brutal control which followed another federal regulation of state suffrage, because we know that the managers of the party which did not scruple to rob the people of a president would not hesitate to use the machinery created by such legislation to revive corrupt instrumentalities for partisan purposes; because an attempt to enforce such legislation would rekindle animosities where peace and hopefulness now prevail; because such an attempt would reduce the progress of activity with discouragement and dread throughout a large section of our country, and would menace, everywhere in the land, rights reserved to the states and to the people, which underlie the safeguards of American liberty. I cannot, therefore, forbear reminding you and all those attached to the democratic party or supporting the principles which we profess, that defeat in the consummation of the legislative schemes our opponents contemplate, and accompanied by such other incidents of their success as might more firmly fix their power, would present a most discouraging outlook for future democratic supremacy and for the accomplishment of the objects we have at heart. Moreover, every sincere democrat must believe that the interests of his country are deeply involved in the victory of our party in the struggle that awaits us. Thus patriotic solicitude exalts the hope of partisanship, and should intensify our determination to win success.

LET US TELL THE PEOPLE PLAINLY AND HONESTLY WHAT WE BELIEVE AND HOW WE PROPOSE TO SERVE THE INTERESTS OF THE COUNTRY, AND THEN LET US, AFTER THE MANNER OF TRUE DEMOCRACY, RELY UPON THE THOUGHTFULNESS AND PATRIOTISM OF OUR FELLOW COUNTRYMEN.

It only remains for me to say to you in advance of a formal response to your message, that I obey the command of my party, and confidently anticipate that an intelligent and earnest presentation of our cause will insure the popular endorsement of the action of the body you represent. The next speaker was ex-Lieutenant-Governor Steven M. White, of California, notifying General Stevenson of his nomination. General Stevenson had no doubts in his mind as to the enthusiasm of a New York audience they were completely effaced by the reception he got. He delivered his speech, which was a ringing and splendid one, with effect. "The meeting is now adjourned," said Mr. Wilson. It lasted just one hour and three minutes. It is no exaggeration to say that probably never has there been in the history of New York city such an immense crowd gathered under one roof. An idea of the crowd can be had when it is known that the seating capacity of the Madison Square garden is in the neighborhood of 8,000 and that between 25,000 and 30,000 were there assembled. Sheehan and Harris First. NEW YORK, July 21.—At ten o'clock this morning ex-President Cleveland was driven to the Fifth Avenue hotel where he held a reception. Among the first callers were Lieutenant Governor Sheehan and Wm. T. Harris.

A MILLIONAIRE'S DAUGHTER. John D. Rockefeller Refuses a Clergyman Son-in-Law.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 21.—The Rev. L. A. Crandall refuses to make any statement concerning the romantic story that he was forced to leave Cleveland, O., owing to a love affair between himself and Miss Alta Rockefeller, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate. Miss Rockefeller is twenty-two years old. Dr. Crandall's wife died two years ago. He has two grown children. He is forty-eight years of age. He finally arranged for a marriage with Miss Rockefeller, but when the subject was broached to her father he became indignant and told the clergyman he must resign or the Rockefellers would withdraw. Dr. Crandall resigned. He came here this week to accept the charge of the Memorial Baptist church. He was seen by a correspondent today and said: "I have absolutely nothing to say to the papers. This matter is not the business of the public." "Do you not desire to have the story denied if untrue?" Asked the correspondent. "There is no use in prolonging this interview," said he. "I will not say anything—positively nothing." Miss Rockefeller is the second daughter of Mr. Rockefeller, and it is said that the disparity in age added to the ire of the girl's father when the news of the proposal of marriage came to him.

PARALYZED BY LIGHTNING. Several School Children Killed and the Rest are Helpless.

AGUSTA, Ga., July 21.—The colored school in Brickhead Village was stricken yesterday by lightning. The school was filled with pupils, fifty in number, and two teachers. The whole number sat paralyzed and unable to save themselves from danger. The people rushed to the burning school house and began to drag out the pupils, a great majority of whom had been rendered unconscious by the stroke. One of the teachers, Miss Willie Butler, will die. Sydney Stanfield and George Turner were killed outright. Two other pupils cannot live the night through.

STARVATION IMMINENT. The Result of the Drought in South West Texas.

BATESVILLE, Tex., July 21.—The people of Seaville county, through a petition prepared by their county judge, have called on the governor and people of the state for assistance as a result of the drought still prevailing. In that portion of southwest Texas, the country is without grass or water, and crops are a total failure. The live stock industry has sustained a heavy loss. It is stated that unless assistance is given the people, starvation will result.

TENNESSEE MINERS. Big Celebration at Briceville Over the Release of Convicts.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 21.—The miners of East Tennessee did not work yesterday. There was a big celebration at Briceville in remembrance of the release of the convicts from the mines a year ago. Among the speakers of the occasion was B. A. Jenkins, president of the Tennessee coal mining company, who is now running the mines on the co-operative plan with the miners.

AFFAIRS AT HOMESTEAD THE LAST DAY ALLOWED EMPLOYEES TO APPLY.

SOME RAILROAD CONTRACTORS APPEAR ON THE SCENE AND WANT 300 UN-SKILLED WORKMEN—THE CARNEGIE MILLS NOW PRESENT A DESOLATE APPEARANCE. HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 21.—This was the last day of grace allowed by the Carnegie management for the striking steel makers and other employes at Homestead mills to apply for reinstatement. Scores of workmen were putting in applications for work, but it was not at Carnegie's office. Work was to be had for the asking at the rooms of the amalgamated association advisory board, and headquarters of mechanics and laborers further down the street. Dwyer and Ingel, a firm of railroad contractors had made requisition at both places for at least three hundred workmen and as many more as wished to come, to help grade the new branch of the Pennsylvania line near Mill Vale, a short distance from Homestead. The boon was readily accepted, chiefly by unskilled workmen and the vicinity of Carnegie offices presented a more deserted appearance than ever. PITTSBURGH, July 21.—Hugh O'Donnell and Hugh Ross against whom warrants were issued came to this city this morning and held a consultation with their attorney, W. G. Brennan. At the close of their talk with Brennan the two workmen proceeded to Alderman McMaster's office and gave themselves up and were by him remanded to jail. Attorney Brennan at once entered application for the release of Ross and O'Donnell on bail. This request must be made to the judge of the county court, who has been asked by Attorney Grant for an early hearing. O'Donnell in an interview expressed his confidence in being released on bail and his ability ultimately to prove his innocence of any crime.

HAD CROPS DID IT A North Carolina Farmer Blows His Brains Out.

WIXOM, N. C., July 21.—James Monroe Butler, a prominent farmer of this county, aged 63, committed suicide at his residence, two miles distant from town, by shooting himself through the left temple with a pistol. Mr. Butler was a hard-working, industrious man, and had accumulated some property. He served four years in the Confederate army during the late war. He leaves a wife and six children. His neighbors think that the bad outlook of the crops throughout his section caused him to lose his mind.

EVIDENCES FOUND BY A UNITED STATES OFFICER. CATALDO, Idaho, July 21.—Lieutenant Smith came in yesterday from Fourth of July canyon where he had been sent to search for traces of murders supposed to have been committed. In one gulch a large area was just burned over, and in this area what had the appearance of a funeral pyre. Closer inspection disclosed evidences of a human sacrifice. Ashes resembling bone ashes, and some, which were in the form of bones, crumbled upon being touched. The ashes were brought here for scientific examination.

REAPPORTIONMENT. New York City Divided Into New Assembly Districts.

NEW YORK, July 21.—The board of aldermen have reapportioned the city into new assembly districts. The new plan gives thirty instead of twenty-four districts. There are twenty-four of the districts certainly democratic, three certainly republican, and three doubtful. The democrats gain six members by the reapportionment.

LORD STANLEY MAY RESIGN. The Earl of Aberdeen Mentioned as Canada's Governor General.

TORONTO, July 21.—A special dispatch from Ottawa to the Globe says: "It is probable that Lord Stanley will place his resignation in Lord Salisbury's hands before the Premier leaves office." OTTAWA, Ont., July 21.—It is probable that if Mr. Gladstone is in power next June, that the Earl of Aberdeen will be appointed governor-general of Canada.

YELLOW FEVER IN VERA CRUZ. CITY OF MEXICO, July 21.—The yellow fever scourge continues unabated at Vera Cruz, and the rate of mortality is alarmingly large. In the foreign colony there have been many deaths. W. W. Apserson, United States consul at Vera Cruz, has arrived here, having just recovered from an attack of yellow fever.

HILL NOT THERE. WASHINGTON, July 21.—Senator Hill was not present at the democratic notification meeting in New York last night. He would not enter into an extended explanation as to why he did not go, but briefly stated that he found it necessary to remain here until the close of the session.

DID HE TRY TO COMMIT SUICIDE?

The train which leaves the Asheville depot at 3:05 was rounding the bend yesterday when a man rushed to the platform and jumped off. His rash act created great excitement among the other passengers—they all thought it was a case of suicide. Ladies fainted, men rushed to the platform expecting to see his mangled form upon the track, but the fact was he had forgotten to put his bottle of "Buncombe Pills" in his satchel and would not start on his journey without them.
