AND IT CERTAINLY IS HOT EVERYWHERE EXCEPT IN ASHEVILLE.

The Mercury Touched 100 Degrees in Several Parts of the Country and There Were Many Prostrations From the Heat.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., July 24.—This was the hottest day of the season, the thermometer registering 95 in the shade.

CINCINNATI, O., July 24.—This was the hottest day known in Cincinnati in five years and within a few degrees of the hottest in fifteen years.

STANTON, Va., July 24.—The weather was the warmest here today for years. The mercury registered one hundred in the shade.

DETROIT, July 26.—Fifteen cases of heat prostration have been reported. At two o'clock yesterday the thermometers registered 102 in the shade.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—The signal service thermometer yesterday showed a temperature of 95 degrees. In various localities the instrument recorded from 96 to 102.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Mercury 94. Three deaths from heat have been reported in Cincinnati, Covington and Newport.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The mercury reached 94.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Six deaths resulted from sunstroke yesterday making a total of fourteen since Saturday.

KALAMAZOO, N. C., July 26.—Excessive heat has prevailed here for two days past and yesterday the thermometer at the experiment station registered 92 degrees, although several private thermometers registered several degrees higher.

CHATTANOOGA, July 26.—Yesterday and today the heat was oppressive. The maximum temperature yesterday was 99.

DAYTON, O., July 26.—The thermometer was 104 yesterday, and 100 today.

CONGRESS. Dragging Its Slow Length Along to Little Purpose.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In the senate today as soon as the journal of yesterday was read and a few departmental communications laid before the body by President pro tem Manderson, a motion was made by Quay to go into executive session.

THE HOUSE TODAY resumed consideration of the general deficiency bill. Yesterday it refused to lay upon the table the motion made by Mr. Holman that the house recede from its amendment for payment to the widows of the deceased members of the house of the balance of the salaries they would have received.

THE HOUSE is now considering the conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill which contains the World's Fair appropriation.

TO ENCAMP HERE. Knights of St. Patrick Coming to Asheville.

Capt. A. J. Renkl, Syl. Mura and J. P. May, of Augusta, Ga., who have been spending several days here, left for their home today.

THE COMMITTEE was greatly pleased with Asheville and decided to hold the encampment here. Several sites have been offered, but no location has yet been settled upon.

THE KNIGHTS will come thirty strong, and will be accompanied by probably one hundred of their friends from Augusta.

THE KNIGHTS camped last year at Saluda. They will probably make Asheville their permanent camping place.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PRESIDENT MARTIN'S KINDNESS. Capt. Frank O'Donnell, of Asheville Hose Company No. 1, in talking to THE CITIZEN on the undoubted success of the firemen's tournament held here during Gala Week, and the splendid manner in which everybody made things pleasant for the visiting firemen, referred to the kindness of President J. G. Martin, of the Asheville street railway.

NEW CLOTHING STORE. Between August 1 and 15 a Mr. Briles, of Charleston, S. C., will begin business in the Hilliard building on South Main street, the store recently vacated by Brown, Northrup & Co.

BROAD FIELDS OF ASHES

A LOSS OF A MILLION AND A HALF OF DOLLARS.

Forty Blocks in the City of Bay City, Mich., Burned Over—The Firemen Had to Run to Save Their Lives.

DETROIT, July 26.—A special from Bay City to the Journal says: The terrible fire which started yesterday afternoon continued to rage all night and the sun arose this morning on a field of ashes extending over 40 blocks.

It was impossible to check the flames carried before the gale until everything in their track had been consumed and it is estimated at least 500 buildings are in ruins, representing a loss of probably $1,500,000.

Soon after the flames started in Miller & Turner's mill it was seen that this end of the city was doomed.

The first alarm was quickly followed by a general one, calling out every fire apparatus in the city.

The firemen would no sooner lay their lines of hose than the fire would be upon them and they would be compelled to flee for their lives.

Burning boards were carried 200 feet in the air and wherever they dropped some house or store would at once add its fuel to the conflagration.

TRYING TO SAVE COL. KING. He Will be Taken Before the United States Court.

MEMPHIS, July 24.—The attorneys of Col. H. Clay King, condemned to be hanged on August 12 for the murder of David H. Poston in this city on March 10, 1891, have applied for and have received a writ of habeas corpus, citing Sheriff McLendon to produce the body of H. Clay King before the United States circuit court, Judge Howell E. Jackson, at Nashville, Tenn.

During the trial of King in the lower court which lasted over a month and occurred in the midst of the heated term, the officer in charge of the jury took them on an excursion across the river on a ferryboat.

The trip was taken merely for fresh air and recreation. The jury was kept apart from other passengers, and the usual precautions were observed.

THE BOAT touched Arkansas soil, and the defence made of the incident its chief reliance for a reversal in the state supreme court.

There were numerous other exceptions taken and argued, but of all the grounds for a new trial offered, none was dwelt upon with such stress as that trip to Arkansas.

THE CLEVELANDS AT HOME. A Quiet Trip to Buzzard's Bay in Mr. Benedict's Yacht Onaida.

Buzzard's Bay, Mass., July 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland and Baby Ruth embarked in Mr. E. C. Benedict's steam yacht Onaida at Greenwich early yesterday morning and steamed up the sound to Buzzard's Bay.

The launch steamed out around the point and into the Clevelands' harbor at Gray Gables, and all went ashore. Their arrival was not known up in the village until dusk, and then only to a few.

Mr. Cleveland's accumulated mail of five days is a mammoth pile. Private Secretary O'Brien has been carting the mail across the brook from the village post office ever since his arrival yesterday.

THE SEATS COLLAPSED. Eighty Persons Hurt at a Theatre Performance.

PARIS, July 26.—During a theatrical performance Kueli, a town of about 8,000 inhabitants, in the department of Seine et Oise, last evening, the seats occupied by those who assembled to witness the performances were arranged in tiers rising toward the rear.

Through the efforts of a few who retained their presence of mind, aided by the police, order was restored and the work of extricating the injured from the wreck pushed forward.

RECEIVER OF THE M. AND C. NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 26.—Yesterday Judge Howell E. Jackson of the federal court appointed C. M. McGhee, of Knoxville, joint receiver with Henry Fink of the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

THE EARTHQUAKE COUNTRY. SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt in this city a few minutes after 2 o'clock this morning.

FRICK IN NO DANGER NOW

ANOTHER PARTY TO THE ASSAULT ARRESTED.

The Last Suspect Sent Money to Bergman—Head of The Anarchists Arrested—Troops Being Withdrawn from Homestead.

PITTSBURGH, July 26.—No dangerous symptoms have developed in Frick's case and the danger is believed to be over.

A baker named F. Mallick was arrested this morning at Long Branch. He is charged with being a party to the attempted murder of Frick and is supposed to be the person who sent a package of money to Bergman, the would be assassin, while he was at Allegheny City.

INSPECTOR STEERS received a telegram today from J. O. Brown, superintendent of public safety at Pittsburgh, stating that the warrant which had been issued for the arrest of Mallick was on its way here and asking the inspector to hand it over to Chief Omara.

THE WITHDRAWAL of soldiers from Homestead has commenced. Wildly enthusiastic cheering today among the hundreds of white tents on Shanty Hill proclaimed the fact to the strikers in their homes at the foot of the slope.

DOWNED A MILLIONAIRE. L. Z. Leiter Will Not "Buck Eggs" Again Soon.

TACOMA, Wash., July 24.—L. Z. Leiter, of Chicago, his wife, three daughters and two maids, were passengers aboard the steamer Queen, which ran upon the rocks near Sitka, Alaska.

THE MILLIONAIRE was indignant. He would go ashore, he said. Capt. Carroll said to the first officer: "Lower a boat and take Mr. Leiter ashore and do not bring him back again."

THE BOAT was quickly lowered and manned. Leiter was warned that he could secure no comforts of life at Sitka.

HE REPLIED that he could buy the town. Some say he claimed the ability to buy all Alaska. When everything was ready for the millionaire to go ashore his daughters had prevailed on Capt. Carroll not to insist on his orders being carried out.

HE REPLIED that he would maintain discipline at any cost, but would not force the millionaire ashore if his discipline were maintained.

"CLEVELAND IS CONFIDENT." Not Only Confident, But Anxious to Begin the Fight.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—Claude Matthews, democratic candidate for governor, has just returned from the east in very cheerful spirits.

HE SAID that Mr. Cleveland was very anxious that the fight should begin at once throughout the country and that it should be vigorously forced all along the line.

HE FURTHER SAYS that Mr. Cleveland, as did other prominent New York democrats, expressed himself as being confident that the electoral vote of New York would be cast for the democratic ticket.

PULLED OFF HIS COAT. He Was Ready to Fight for His Decision.

FORT DODGE, Ia., July 24.—The Rev. Mr. Tyrrell, pastor of the M. E. church at Clarion, occupied a seat in the judges' stand yesterday and officiated as time-keeper in a race between two local trotters.

THE SPECTATORS questioned his decision, whereupon he promptly pulled off his coat and announced that he could whip any man that called him a liar.

MUTUAL FRIENDS prevented the affair from going further, but it has naturally caused much comment.

DEMOCRATIC DEADLOCK. BATESVILLE, Ark., July 26.—The deadlock continues in the democratic congressional convention. Seven hundred and forty-eight ballots have been taken.

HOT LARD AND TALLOW. ELIZABETH, N. J., July 26.—At 2 o'clock this morning Cooke Bros.' lard, tallow and neat's foot oil plant was almost entirely destroyed by fire.

HALF A MILLION LOSS. NEW YORK, July 26.—The New York Biscuit company's cracker baking establishment burned down today.

DID HE TRY TO COMMIT SUICIDE?

The train which leaves the Asheville depot at 3:05 was rounding the bend yesterday when a man rushed to the platform and jumped off. His rash act created great excitement among the other passengers—they all thought it was a case of suicide.
