SHOCKED THE ENGLISH

Papers on the Iams Case. LONDON, July 26 .- The news of the unishment of Private lams, of the Penn sylvania militia, has been received her with an outburst of indignation.

Indignant Comments of London

The Evening Globe says that an En glish colonel, guilty of a similar act of ruelty, would be court-martialed and dismissed from the service. The most dismissed from the service. The most remarkable part of the proceeding, says the Globe, is that the commanding gen-eral approved the act, while public opinion appears to be unruffled. It is in-credible that Americans, the special champions of freedom, should tolerate such awful torture.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "We are The Pall Mall Gazette says: "We are so squeamish that we cannot bear the idea of flogging soldiers. Americans must have acquired their ideas of military discipline from the red Indians."

The St. James Gazette, tory organ, says that lams deserved shooting, not torture. "The fact is that the American Calculation of the same contents of the same contents of the same contents." on lams's punishment to the Daily I'atcans do not cherish a scrupulous tender-ness for human life. FIRED BY LIGHTNING. Twenty-One Tanks of Oil on Fire

-Loss Heavy.

PITTSBURG, July 28 .- During the prev alence of a thunder storm which swept over the southwestern oilfired yesterday afternoon, the lightning struck tank No 17 of the Southwest Pennsylvania Pipe ine company, six miles from Washing ton. The tank contained 27,000 bar rels of oil and when it burst the burning fluid spread to 20 tanks in the vicinity and soon all were afre.

The conflagration was still raging at 10 o'clock. The heat is so intense that trains cannot approach within an eighth of a mile of the scene and passengers on the Washington branch of the Panhandle road were unable; to reach their destination last night. The loss will be very heavy.

JAPANESE ORDERED OUT.

They are Accused of Spreading Small Pox in an Idaho Town.

Boils City, Idaho, July 28 .- The police have ordered all Japanese residents to leave town at once. At Nampa the Chinese were ordered to leave and they will go on the first train today. A num ber of Japanese escaped from the small pox camp at Nampa and came to Boics, but they were soon sent out of town. Much fear is felt that the small-pox will spread to this city.

An Editor Hanged in Effigy. NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 28 .- The mob

THEY ARE FILIBUSTERING

THE WORLD'S FAIR BILL IS STILL UP.

No Vote Reached and Part of the Time the Vote Reveals no Quorum What Was Done in the WASHINGTON, July 28 .- In the house oday Mr. McMillen, of Tennessee, called up the joint resolution that congress adourn Saturday at 2 o'clock. Mr. Hatch and Mr. Outhwaite, the latter eader of the filibusters, opposed it. Outhwaite said that the sundry civil bill had not passed, and intimated that it might not pass. In any event time was needed for both houses to act on it and be suggested Monday next as the date of adournment. The house refused, 65 to 110, to agree to adjournment at 12 o'clock on Monday

The original McMillen resolution, pro viding for the final adjournment of congress at 2 p. m. Saturday, was then adopted, 121 to 51.

The speaker stated that the pending motion was that made by Mr. Bingham to table the motion to reconsider the vote by which the house receded from its disagreement to the senate World's fair Immediately the filibusters came to the ront, led by Outwaite, who moved an adjournment, supplementing this mo-tion with one to adjourn to Saturday.

Mr. Cummings, of New York, acted as licutenant and moved an adjournment till Monday. On Cummings' motion the vote stood: yeas, 1; nays, 164; two less than a quorum; and the house was at a standstill, having refused to order

The republicans have about decided to allow the filibustering and anti-filibuster-ing wings of the democratic party to fight out the World's Fair fight between On motion for a call of the house the voted with neither party and a call was ordered by the small and close vote of 31 to 25. Two hundred and eleven responded to their names and the vote recurred on Cummings' motion to adjourn till Mon-day. The house was again left without a quorum, but 122 members voting, and again was the call ordered. In the senate today the sundry resolu-tions for the appointment of select com-mittees to set during the recess were re-ported. Two of them (as to the Home-stend and Idaho labor troubles, and as to the settlers on the forest reservations n California) went over till tomorrow without action, and one (as to the geological survey) was agreed to.

HYATT'S REMARKABLE FIND This Story From Connecticut is

NORWALK, Conn., July 26 .- Ex-United States Treasurer James W. Hyatt, who the employment of the company, the in- is summering at Roten Point, lost $500 terest on the money deposited by them will stop and the principal will be paid upon application at the office. These deposits are said to aggregate $180,000. It was midnight, and dark as nitch he it was midnight and dark as pitch h lighted a lantern and sallied forth on a hunt for the missing treasure.

Inch by inch he went over the ground but without avail, and was about to abandon the search when he heard a wa gon approaching. The occupant, attracted by the light, stopped andinquired the way to South Norfolk, and as Mr. Hyatt stepped up to the wagon to give the desired information he laid his hand on the front wheel. His hand came in contact with a bunch of paper, and holding up the lantern he beheld his miss-ing roll of greenbacks. Investigation disclosed that the roll had been caught in a little crack in the tire, and was thus carried right into the owner's hand.

PROTECTION FOR CARNEGIE

Rumor That the Millionaire Has Received Special Protection. LONDON, July 28 .- It is rumored that Andrew Carnegie has applied for and received special police protection. The report cannot be confirmed, and it is not traceable to any authentic source. The officials at Scotland Yard declare that they have no knowledge of any such nove on Mr. Carnegie's part.

If he has made such an application i must be in another quarter. The chief viewed on the subject at Perth, and he too, states that there is no truth in the rumor so far as he knows, and he would be the official most likely to be applied to, next to those at Scotland Yard.

THEY GOT $800.

Switzerland Pays for False In prisonment. WILMINGTON, Del., July 26 .- A Wil mington lawyer has received a draft for $800 from Berne, Switzerland, which was the amount of the indemnity pair by the Canton of Berne for the false imprisonment for five days of five Americans who had been arrested as pick pockets. The men were George B. Mul ford, of New York, Charles E. Coates, o Baltimore, and E. E. Hanf, Frank L. Baker, and Charles Griffith of this city. The costs of the suit brought were also paid by Berne,-N. Y. Sun.

No Truckling.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 28 .- Chairman Simmons, of the state democratic committee, denies the published statement that the third party men in effect captured the third district democratic convention and that they truckled to them by leading a movement against the adoption of a resolution Cleveland. Mr. Simmons states that no such resolution was introduced. The anti-Cleveland men were largely in the majority in the convention, yet the den suffering among the victims of Monday's for congress and a Cleveland elector.

The Kind We Want.

NEW YORK, July 28 .- The appeal made by the merchants of the south to turn the stream of immigrants down there is having its effect in England and Scot Broad street, committed suicide in his room at the Manhattan club by shooting himself in the temple. Sistare was 50 years old.

DID HE TRY TO COMMIT SUICIDE?

The train which leaves the Asheville depot at 3:05 was rounding the bend vesterday when a man rushed to the platform and jumped off. His rash platform and jumped off. His rash act created great excitement among the other passengers—they all thought it was a case of suicide. Ladies fainted, men rushed to the platform expecting to see his mangled form upon the track, but the fact was he had forgotten to put his bottle of "Buncombe Pills" in his satchel and would not start on his journey without them. He took great changes ney without them. He took great chances, but he might have taken greater.
