IT'S JETER C. PRITCHARD.

THE MAN WILLIAM T. CRAWFORD WILL BEAT.

The Man From Madison Nominated for Congress by Acclamation by the Congressional Convention This Afternoon.

The republican convention held in the court house in Asheville today, was what might be called an omnibus affair. The business before the body was the nomination of a candidate for congress for the ninth district; the selection of an elector for the ninth district; the nomination of a candidate for judge for the twelfth judicial district; the nomination of two candidates for the state senate from the thirty-third senatorial district, under the new apportionment by the last legislature.

In view of the multiplicity of the work to be done, it was not surprising that a large crowd filled the court house at the ringing of the bell a few minutes before 12 o'clock.

One side of the court room was set apart for the "brother in black," showing that the average North Carolina republican draws the line everywhere except at the ballot box. The office-holders were very conspicuous. Postmaster Cannon (without any barb-wire trimmings) and Deputy United States Clerk Moore were apparently general superintendents and busied themselves during the assembling of the convention putting up tickets on poles showing the seats of the various delegations.

R. O. Patterson of Governor's Island, Swain county, chairman of the congressional committee, was not present, and the convention was called to order by Geo. T. Smathers, of Haywood, a member of the executive committee. Mr. Smathers announced Col. V. S. Lusk of Asheville as temporary chairman.

Lusk Was Surprised

Col. Lusk said the honor was a surprise, and if he was not like Julius Caesar, he would be scared. He was always ready to forward the interests of the republican party. In the kindness of providence the republican party had been spared to make another fight for the right. This year would crown the republican party with success, unless all signs failed. He said the convention had met not only to nominate a candidate for congress, but to promulgate another Mecklenburg declaration of independence similar to that proclaimed one hundred years ago. He denounced the county government system. The republicans of North Carolina, said Mr. Lusk, were taxed without representation. He said that there had not been a fair election in North Carolina for 15 years. They wanted to establish what he termed destroyed by the democracy of North Carolina, a free ballot and a fair count, and it made no difference what the people's party or the prohibition party might do, the republican party would never stop until this right was restored. The fore bill was a false issue in this campaign. The democrats of North Carolina had a force bill ten thousand times more tyrannous than any ever framed by Lodge or any other member of congress, and they enforce it not only at the ballot-box but in the jury box, and it was the shape the Payne election law, introduced four years ago. It was not passed, because there were some honest democrats then, but they had all gone over to the third party now. Mr. Lusk divulged the fact that he was in favor of dropping this force bill, and that the democrats would repeal the Payne law as passed, he would give his word that no force bill would be attempted. [There was some doubt expressed among the democrats as to the value of Col. Lusk's guarantee.]

Routine Business.

P. A. Cummings was chosen temporary secretary, on motion of J. M. Moody, of Haywood. The call for the convention was read by Secretary Cummings. Call of counties was asked. Those represented were Buncombe, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, McDowell, Macon, Madison, Polk, Rutherford, Transylvania, Yancey, Cherokee and Swain were not represented.

On motion of Mr. Tompkins, of Jackson, a committee of one from each county was appointed on credentials, as follows: Buncombe, C. B. Moore, Clay, Luther Birch, Cherokee not represented; Graham, J. L. Crisp, Haywood, D. M. Green; Henderson, W. A. Hood; Jackson, W. F. Tompkins; McDowell, Lee Williams; Macon, William Higdon; Madison, J. W. Roberts; Polk, N. B. Hampton; Rutherford, T. C. Smith; Swain, C. W. Parker; Transylvania, J. E. Merrill; Yancey, D. F. Roland.

Mr. Freeman, of Henderson, moved that a committee of five be appointed on permanent organization. The chair appointed the following: J. B. Freeman, Henderson; J. M. Moody, Haywood; D. A. Knipe, McDowell; D. F. Lawson, Madison; James M. Worley, Jackson.

Mr. Edney moved that a committee of five be appointed on resolutions: The following were appointed: C. J. Edney, Henderson; W. L. Norwood, Haywood; C. M. Pace, Henderson; Robert W. Logan, Rutherford.

The committee on credentials reported that all counties in the district except Cherokee were represented.

Luther Birch, of Clay county, was admitted as a delegate from Cherokee county.

The committee on permanent organization reported as follows: C. M. Pace of Henderson, permanent chairman; R. B. Roberts of Buncombe, permanent secretary.

Mr. Pace weighs about 225 pounds. He said that there were some things that he always refused to do, "and one of those things are, I never make a speech, because I can't. There are other things that I never refuse to do, and one of those are to preside over a republican convention."

On motion the convention adjourned till 2:30.

Afternoon Session.

The convention re-assembled with Chairman Pace in the chair.

J. M. Moody, of Haywood, moved that the convention proceed to nominate a candidate for congress for the ninth congressional district.

The counties were called, and there was no stop till Madison county was reached. When that county was called, Willie Hunter arose and presented the name of Jeter C. Pritchard, of Madison. The nomination speech was full of flowers of rhetoric.

Col. V. S. Lusk seconded the nomination of Mr. Pritchard on behalf of Buncombe county.

C. T. C. Deake, who seconded the nomination of Pritchard, said he had been a republican since 1856, and that he had been largely responsible for Jeter Pritchard's republicanism, and he considered it the crowning glory of his life.

J. M. Moody, of Haywood, seconded the nomination of Pritchard. Said the United States flag was the ensign of the republican party, while a diaper with the picture of Cleveland, his wife and child attached, was the ensign of the democracy.

"Amen!" "Ugh!"

During Moody's talk, he became so earnest that several of the colored delegates evidently thought he was preaching, and "Amen!" "Lord Help!" and "Ugh!" were heard from many parts of the colored portion of the audience. One old man with a bald head and a shining black face came near shouting.

Pritchard at 4 o'clock.

At 4 o'clock J. C. Pritchard was nominated by acclamation. There will be several aspirants for the nomination for elector, J. B. Freeman, of Henderson; H. G. Ewart, of Henderson; L. N. Wells, of Buncombe; K. S. McCall, W. L. Norwood, of Haywood; will be nominated by the picture of Cleveland, his wife and child attached, was the ensign of the democracy.

The only position that will likely be attended with a contest is that of elector.

FRICK IS TO BE ARRESTED

THE HEADS OF THE PINKERTON FORCES ALSO.

They Are Charged With Murder By the Homestead Strikers Who Swear Out the Informations—Warrants Issued.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—The threatened suits against the Carnegie officials and the Pinkertons charging them with murder were begun this morning, and warrants were issued for the arrest of the defendants. At 11 o'clock Brennan Cox and Hugh Ross, prosecuting witnesses, went to Alderman King's office and made information and warrants were issued for Robert and William Pinkerton, heads of the Pinkerton agency, J. A. Potter and George Corey, superintendents at the works, and Frick, Lovejoy, Leishman and Curry, officials of the company, and several Pinkerton men.

Will Arrest Women.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 1.—The Pinkerton men are going to arrest the Homestead rioters who compelled them to run the gauntlet on the day of the riot. The work of securing the evidence has been going on for some time, and it is now so far advanced that information will be made in a few days.

Among those who will be arrested are several women who were particularly active, especially in taking the property of the men and hiding it. Assault and battery and receiving stolen goods will be the charges against these women.

The Pinkerton agency has a list of their men who were assaulted and from whom property was stolen. On Saturday two reputable residents of Homestead came to Pittsburgh to give information against two of the most radical men engaged in the outrages. They described the conduct of two Homestead men who are engaged in the butcher business. They said that after the surrender these butchers, armed with heavy clubs, stood on opposite sides of the line of Pinkertons as they were marched to the rink and beat them over the heads.—N. Y. Sun.

SCOTTISH PICNIC.

The Scottish Patriotic society, noted throughout Western North Carolina for its magnificent entertainments, will give a picnic at the Hotel Belmont on next Friday. Arrangement were made with Manager Steele by J. A. Murdoch last evening. Supper will be served at the hotel from 6 to 8 o'clock. There will be dancing after supper, the music being furnished by the Belmont orchestra. Between sixty and seventy-five persons are expected to participate.

CENTENNIAL MUSEUM.

Bring in the Curiosities for Exhibition Next Week.

The store room No. 18 court place has been secured by the Centennial committee and will be used as a museum during Centennial week. The museum will be in charge of a committee consisting of one gentleman and six ladies. Everyone having any curiosities, relics, etc., is urged to bring them in and place them in the museum. The articles will be returned after the Centennial.

For Sale Keeping.

At the hearing given "Hub" Garmony before Justice A. T. Summey, Garmony confessed to having had $305, which J. R. Crawford claimed Garmony had stolen from him. Garmony, however, claimed that Crawford had given him the money for safe keeping. Garmony waived examination and was sent up in default of bond.

AN AGREEMENT REACHED

WORLD'S FAIR WILL PROBABLY GET $2,500,000.

It is to be Detached From the Sundry Civil Bill—However, and Go Through on Its Merits if at All—A Caucus Held.

WASHINGTON, August 3.—In the senate this morning there were very few senators present when the session opened; nor did there appear to be any presence of business before the body. A resolution offered by Mr. Pettigrew calling on the secretary of war for a report as to all army officers who have been tried by court martial during the past ten years, their rank, offence, verdict rendered, punishment imposed, was referred to the committee on military affairs.

In the house filibustering over the World's fair appropriation was resumed and no quorum voting on a motion to take a recess, the house then adjourned and a democratic caucus was announced for 2 o'clock.

An agreement has been reached as to the World's fair, on this basis: The house shall vote down the Bingham motion and shall reconsider its action on the sundry civil bill. The senate $5,000,000 World's fair amendment shall be disagreed to, and the bill sent back to a conference with the house, insisting that this item shall be eliminated from the sundry civil bill. The Durbin World's fair bill shall be taken up on August 6, Saturday, shall be voted on. The amount carried by the bill, however, shall, before the vote, be reduced from $5,000,000 to $2,500,000, and made a direct gift.

All the members of the committee except Durbin voted for the agreement. Durbin voted against it. The committee simply submits the agreement to the caucus and members are not bound to vote in favor of the Durbin bill. They simply agree, if the caucus adopts the proposition, not to filibuster against it and each man reserves the right to vote for or against the Durbin bill. The understanding is that a vote on this bill shall be final and that the item is not to go back into the sundry civil bill.

It is presumed that the senate will hold up the sundry civil bill in conference until action is had on the Durbin bill. Meanwhile, according to the terms of the agreement, the appropriations are to be extended.

At 2 o'clock today the caucus will meet to ratify or reject the suggestions of the committee which are simply put forward to afford a basis for caucus action.

IAMS BEGINS ACTION.

Warrants Issued for the Officers Who Strung Him Up.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 1.—Ex-Private Iams today began legal action against the military officers who hanged him by the thumbs, shaved his head, and drummed him out of camp. He made information before Justice Reilly against Col. Hawkins, Lieut.-Col. Stretcher, Assistant Surgeon William Simpson, Grim, and others unknown. Warrants were issued to constables. One went to Washington, where he expects to arrest Col. Stretcher in the morning. Another went to Beaver to arrest Dr. Grim. Col. Hawkins is still on duty at Camp Black, and hence is exempt from service.

It is expected that the defendants will waive a hearing for the September term of court. There are two informations, one against Hawkins, Stretcher, and Grim, charging them with assault and battery on July 23. The other charges Hawkins and Stretcher with assault and battery on July 24, at which time his hair was cut.—N. Y. Sun.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 3.—Lt. Col. Stretcher was arrested at his home in Washington, Pennsylvania, yesterday, on charges of aggravated assault and battery, and assault and battery, preferred by private Iams. Col. Stretcher went before a justice and waived hearing for an appearance at the September term of court in Pittsburgh. He gave bail in $500 on each charge and was released.

ANARCHISTS IN MEETING.

They Denounce Capital and Lead Berkman as a Modern Hero.

NEW YORK, August 1.—About one thousand anarchists assembled in military hall, on the Bowery, tonight, to hear Andrew Carnegie and capitalists in general denounced. Pinkert, the reputed chief of the murderous Anarchist group, to which Alexander Bergman belongs, and Emma Goldman, Bergman's mistress, were the principal speakers.

Resolutions calling for the immediate abolition of capital were presented and carried unanimously, but these resolutions conveyed no hint as to the means to be employed. The speeches, most of them delivered in German, were rather tame except in so far as they held Bergman up as one of the heroes of the epoch. The absence of incendiary language was partly due to the presence of a large force of policemen.

AFTERNOON WEDDING.

J. W. Case and Miss Ora Harkins Married Yesterday.

Miss Ora Harkins, a sister of ex-Mayor H. S. Harkins, was spending the day yesterday with Mrs. T. F. Hunter, on Montford avenue. When dinner time arrived, Miss Harkins said she was feeling ill and did not care to eat. She went to the residence of Mrs. Abner Rhodes, on Montford avenue, where by arrangement she met Postman J. W. Case, Justice Chas. W. Malone and several friends.

Then and there without further delay Miss Harkins and Mr. Case were united in marriage by Justice Malone.

The happy contracting parties have many friends here who extend congratulations.

Receiver Not Aside.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., August 3.—Just before noon Judge Swayne, of the U. S. circuit court, made an order setting aside Judge Pardee's recent appointment of Gen. Manager R. B. Coble of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railroad, as receiver of that property.

Small Was Defeated.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 3.—The people's party convention of the fifth district nominated Mr. Talliaferro, of Fulton county, for congress, Sam Small, who had received the prohibitive nomination, being beaten by three-quarters of a vote.

DID HE TRY TO COMMIT SUICIDE?

The train which leaves the Asheville depot at 3:05 was rounding the bend yesterday when a man rushed to the platform and jumped off. His rash act created great excitement among the other passengers—they all thought it was a case of suicide. Ladies fainted, men rushed to the platform expecting to see his mangled form upon the track, but the fact was he had forgotten to put his bottle of "Buncombe Pills" in his satchel and would not start on his journey without them. He took great chances, but he might have taken greater.
