"I'M DOIN' HOME." Little 4 Year Old Charley Goode's Escape, Pursuit and Capture, SHELBY, N. C., Aug. 13.--Mr. and Mrs. Goode, living about six miles from Rutherfordton, went to the village yesterday to do some shopping. They took with them their little boy Charley, 4 years old. While in a store buying goods little Charley gave them the dodge, and when they discovered their loss they instituted search in good earnest, finally getting about 100 persons interested. Finding his little barefoot tracks in the sand, they followed them, and at a distance of three miles they came to a creek and there Charley's little foot prints were plainly visible going into the stream. Not finding tracks indicating his exit on the other bank they went down the stream in search of his body. At a few paces, however, they found that he had pulled himself out of the water by some bushes and had gone on further down the stream through corn fields and over fences and ditches, and just as dark was closing in on the searching party they came upon him. He was wet and his little feet were chafed. He had made five miles, and when asked where he was going he replied in a brave tone: "I'm doin' home."--Richmond Dispatch.

ALLIANCE IN THE SOUTH. Tom Watson's Rev. Views--A Candidate in Every District. WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.--The congressional campaign in Georgia promises to be the most exciting in the history of the State. Up to the last election, in 1890, there had been practically no opposition to the Democratic candidates, and a nomination was equivalent to an election. In districts where there was a voting population of at least 15,000 the maximum number of votes cast was not over 4,000. This year the Farmers' Alliance will place candidates in the field in every district, and for the first time a comparatively full proportion of the total vote will in all probably be polled. "Tom" Watson, he of "Congressional jag" notoriety, is the chief prophet of the new political creed in Georgia. He declares that the alliance will elect five congressmen in the state. Before leaving for home he related some of his grievances and indulged in some speculation touching the elections in his state.--N. Y. World.

JOCKEYS AND HORSES FALL. The Gloucester Track Gives Its Patrons a Thrilling Surprise. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.--At the Gloucester (N. J.) race track today seven out of eleven horses in the first race piled up in a great heap just before the finish of their four and a half furlong dash. Riders and animals gave a life-like exhibition of a Roman hippodrome scene, amidst the shrieks, kicking, struggling horses and the cries of the boy jockeys caused a panic among the hundreds of spectators who rushed to the scene. It was believed for a time that all the boys were killed by the hoofs of the maddened racers. The race track attendants soon had the jockeys extricated, but the gray colored silk pants of six of the drivers were dyed with blood. Four of the boys were picked up unconscious, and one of them died. The accident was caused by the horse Harry Away. He stumbled, fell, and before the horses close at his heels could be checked they were upon him.--New York World.

WHOLESALE THEIVING. Grave Accusations Against an Agent of the Big Big Four. COLUMBUS, Aug. 14.--The Big Four railroad detectives have for several months been tracing lost freight, and have now come to the conclusion that the thieves are men in the employ of the road here. Thousands of dollars' worth of goods that have been lost recently in transit were paid for by the Big Four company. Detective Schultz said tonight that he could prove that an agent of the road had loaded freight into his transfer wagon and had hauled it away to points where it was disposed of through "men-es."--N. Y. Sun.

ON A JOINT PASS. Friendly Relations Between Rival Candidates for Governor. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 14.--It has just been discovered that Whipple, republican, and Carnahan, people's party, candidates for governor, are not only making a joint canvass for the office, but are also riding on a joint railroad pass, Whipple carrying the book. It is thought that Carnahan is preparing gracefully to withdraw within the next ten days. Weaver and Field will open the People's party Presidential campaign in Arkansas the present week.--N. Y. World.

Young Alabama Politicians. ANNISTON, Ala., Aug. 15.--Tom Haines and John Haines, cousins, and each about thirteen years old, quarrelled at Edwardsville, Cleburne county, over politics today, and Tom was fatally cut. During the recent gubernatorial campaign their fathers were respectively, red hot Jones and Kolb supporters.

And Democrats Did This! DODGE CITY, Kas., Aug. 17.--The democrats of the 7th district yesterday endorsed the nomination of Jerry Simpson for congress. The platform endorsing the fusion platform, adopted at the democratic convention commending Simpson's congressional career, was adopted with a dissenting vote.

From Justice to Governor. GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 17.--Justice Allen B. Morse, of the Michigan Supreme court and Michigan's candidate for vice-president at Chicago, will, it is said, be unanimously named today for governor by the Democracy in convention. Gov. E. B. Winans, his only competitor, has withdrawn.

A Woman's Will. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.--The will of the late Mrs. Will Coleman was made public today. About $40,000 is bequeathed to Catholic institutions and the remainder of the estate is left to her three children. The estate is valued at $5,000,000.

Blaine Will Speak. BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 16.--A dispatch from Bar Harbor says authoritatively that Mr. Blaine will make five-minute speeches at various points in the state.

TIING UP THE FREIGHT AN ENORMOUS TRAFFIC AT A STANDSTILL. The Buffalo Strike Spreading, Involving the New York Central and Other Roads--The State Militia Out in Force. BUFFALO, Aug. 17.--The situation this morning was not encouraging, but no violence was done. The New York Central switchmen struck at 1 o'clock this morning and this will tie up an enormous traffic, involve the West Shore and Lake Shore roads and perhaps all the lines in Buffalo. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western switchmen sympathize and will probably not continue to handle freight from the roads where the strikes are on. The Lake Shore men will also go out under the same conditions.

The entire 4th brigade of the state guard will be here today. The State Board of Arbitration are here and will make every effort in their power with the railroad companies and men for a settlement of the strike. CHICAGO, Aug. 17.--After a conference in the switchmen's headquarters, at which all the grand officers were present except Grand Master Sweeney, Grand Secretary and Treasurer Simson said the Erie Lines and the Western New York and Pennsylvania systems, two of the great railway systems involved in the strike, had acceded to the strikers' demands. This leaves only the Lehigh valley road to "sit."

GOV. BROWN'S VETOES. Nearly Eight Months of Legislative Work Unseen. FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 13.--Gov. Brown has vetoed three bills which are the principal part of the eight months' work of the General Assembly. Nothing in recent years does the comment that these vetoes have, and they are being discussed all over the city. The principal bill vetoed was the revenue and taxation bill. The legislature last week agreed to adjourn tomorrow, and therefore there will be no revenue bill until next year, and the corporations are satisfied, as they will be taxed under the old bill, which is not so heavy for them as the vetoed bill. The other bills were the corporation bill, which regulated the corporations of the State, and the geological survey bill, which provided for the continuance of that institution.

7,000,000 ALLIANCEMEN. Are There That Many in the United States Today?--Money Wanted. AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 17.--At the State Alliance convention yesterday the address of welcome by Acting Mayor Lum was responded to by S. Ashby on the part of the association. Ashby claimed the order numbered seven millions in the United States. President Eyan Jones, alluding to the land question, deplored the fact that so much public domain was passing into the hands of foreign syndicates. He contended for government ownership of railroads as an ultimatum for the settlement of the transportation question and argued that the government issue money to the people in a sufficient quantity to perform the function of circulation.

TROOPS WHIPPED. The Miners Too Many For Them--Convicts Out of Work. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 17.--After a desperate fight at Oliver between the troops and the miners, the former were forced to retreat, and now have 200 convicts bringing them to this place. NASHVILLE, Aug. 17.--Gov. Buchanan announces that he does not know what he will do concerning the convicts who have been sent back to this city. The Governor inclines to the opinion that the Board of Prison Inspectors should declare the lease void, because the lessees claim the authorities do not protect them against mobs and insurrections and until they are protected in the working of convicts they will not pay for their support.

A WOMAN STONED TO DEATH. A Man to Whom She Had Willed Her Property Suspected. ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 15.--Mrs. Mattie Looney, fifty years old, a former resident of Atlanta, was murdered in Cobb county, a mile beyond Marietta, yesterday. She left Atlanta two years ago to live on her farm in Cobb. For some time Will Ellis, of Atlanta, a man thirty years old, has been living with her. Mrs. Looney was decoyed from her home into the woods near by yesterday, and several hours later her dead body was found horribly mutilated. She had evidently been stoned to death. Ellis was arrested. The woman had willed him her entire property.--N. Y. World.

None West to Grow up With the Country. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.--Whitlaw Reid was a passenger by the Chicago Limited, leaving New York at 10 o'clock this morning on the way to Springfield, Ill., where he is to address a convention of the republican league Thursday afternoon.

No Sunday World's Fair Closing. CHICAGO, August 15.--Vice-President Higginbotham of the World's fair says that if Congress does not repeal the Sunday-closing act, the gates will be kept open on Sunday anyhow.

Engaged Twenty-seven Years. MARYDEL, Md., Aug. 16.--Mary Gooding, aged fifty-one years, and Harry Goodwin, both of Catlin, Md., were married here yesterday. They had been engaged twenty-seven years.

An Old Theater Woman Dead. RICHMOND, Aug. 17.--Mrs. Elizabeth Powell, manager and proprietor of the Richmond theatre for more than a quarter of a century, died today.
