CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Ten thousand lovers of the trotter shouted themselves hoarse at Washington Park today when Nancy Hanks, the gallant little blue-grass bred mare, sped under the wire, covering a mile in 2:07 1/2, eclipsing her own and every other record made in the history of the trotting turf. Then Budd Doble was fairly lifted from his sulky by the horsemen that gathered about him, and it was fully half an hour before the multitude could be coaxed into any kind of order to witness the closing event of the day.

NANCY HANKS IS QUEEN THE BEAUTIFUL MARE TROTS A MILE IN 2:07 1/2.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Ten thousand lovers of the trotter shouted themselves hoarse at Washington Park today when Nancy Hanks, the gallant little blue-grass bred mare, sped under the wire, covering a mile in 2:07 1/2, eclipsing her own and every other record made in the history of the trotting turf. Then Budd Doble was fairly lifted from his sulky by the horsemen that gathered about him, and it was fully half an hour before the multitude could be coaxed into any kind of order to witness the closing event of the day.

There was a moment's delay while a helper sprung out of the mare's mouth, and then the king of drivers settled himself in the sulky and prepared for the struggle. As he turned to look, Starr put the runner in motion, and the mare flew down to the wire, going like a piece of machinery and as steady as clock-work.

"Are you ready?" shouted one of the gentlemen in the timers' stand, and Doble, who had been holding the point of his whip lash just flicked the mare's back. Round the turn and past the club house she trotted so rapidly that many old-time horsemen declared the clip was too fast and that she could never stay the route at that pace. The quarter pole was reached in 31 1/2 seconds, and still Nancy was going as steadily as when she started, and her driver sat as still as if he were carved out of stone. When she flashed by the half-mile pole in 1:03 1/2, a murmur of astonishment rolled through the ranks of the spectators, and then Starr, who had been trailing behind with the runner, moved up to Doble's wheel; but farther than this her driver was not urging her to any greater effort.

When the man stationed at the three-quarter pole dipped his red banner the watches clicked at 1:52 1/2, and no one could the spectators see that Doble was urging the mare. Down the stretch they thundered, while Starr pulled up level with the runner, and already the more enthusiastic strain up a cheer. Would she break, or could she stand the pace, such a terrific strain? was the thought that flashed through every horseman's mind. Still the peerless mare swept on. When the last eighth pole was passed Doble's hands went up, and as he leaned over, urging her with voice and rein, he was raising every hair on the back of his expert among experts to wheedle the last iota of speed from those flying hoofs.

"I want all the ladies and gentlemen present not to applaud until the mare has finished," shouted Judge Walker, and the applause that began to be heard died away. Doble lifted Nancy Hanks under the wire in 2:07 1/2. In doing so he won for her a world record and placed Nancy Hanks the undisputed ruler in the trotting kingdom.

The scene that followed was wild. Long on the official timers could hardly stand the numbers of horsemen who had timed for themselves knew that the record was broken and they manifested their enthusiasm in every conceivable manner. Millionaires, breeders, trainers and common folks struggled for a space to shake the lady's hand, and the great driver smilingly accommodated all that could get near enough to do so. The mare showed little or no fatigue, and was blown out before she reached her own stable. Doble said later that she would have gone faster had there been no head wind on the back stretch and had the track been faster.

"I hope to best it with her before the season is over," said he, "and I feel pretty confident of doing it."

The trial was made in one of the new pneumatic sulkies which the majority of the trainers at the present meeting have been using. The track was fast, but extra work with more rolling and scraping would have made it at least half a second faster.—N. Y. Sun.

BLAINE WONT SPEAK He May Address His Maine Constituents in an Open Letter. OLD ORCHARD, Me., Aug. 17.—The message sent out from Bar Harbor stating that Mr. Blaine would make a number of five-minute speeches in different parts of this State is incorrect. He will do nothing of the kind. It was about settled that he would make one speech in his old district, but Mrs. Blaine is very much opposed to this because of the demands that will be made for speeches if he appears on the stump at all.

Under these circumstances it is probable that instead of speaking he will address his old constituents in an open letter. If it is decided to take this course the letter will appear inside of ten days.—New York World.

TOM WATSON'S BACK-DOWN. Declines a Joint Debate With His Democratic Opponent. AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 19.—Congressman Tom Watson recently challenged his Democratic opponent, Colonel Black to meet him in joint debate. The challenge was promptly accepted, but Watson had now backed out, claiming that his engagement in different parts of the State will prevent it. Watson's brother, T. C. Watson, who has been a life-long Democrat, says he will stick to the party.—N. Y. World.

FISH BILLING FOR MR. CLEVELAND. BUZZARD'S BAY, Aug. 17.—Grover Cleveland, Joseph Jefferson, William H. Crane, and Richard Watson Gilder began fishing in the waters of Wakety and and contiguous points down in the Indian settlement of Mashpee yesterday afternoon. They are having fine sport. Black bass, perch, and pike are biting well.—New York Sun.

A TREAT FOR EVERYBODY. Gen. E. M. Lee at the Court House Tomorrow Night. C. T. Rawls, President of the Asheville Democratic club, sends the following interesting announcement to THE CITIZEN: Gen. E. M. Lee, of New York city, a prominent and eloquent Democrat of the Empire State, will address the club and Asheville citizens generally at the court house tomorrow, Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock. He will tell his hearers how New York will probably go next November and explain the intentions and effects of a Republican force bill.

SAVED MANY LIVES. How Presence of Mind Averted Disaster in a Burning Theatre. ROME, Aug. 17.—The theatre at Biella, in the province of Novara, was burned last night under thrilling circumstances. A play was going on when one of the performers noticed tiny threads of smoke curling up from the floor. He quietly called the attention of the stage manager to the circumstances, and the latter hastened, without giving any alarm, to investigate under the stage. On entering the door that led under the stage he was speedily driven back by the smoke, and saw at once that the place was on fire. The stage manager kept his self-control, and returned to the stage, where one of the chief characters was about to appear.

The manager whispered the situation to the actor, and asked the latter to feign sickness, when he went out to act his part, and thus give an excuse for stopping the performance. The actor did as suggested. The audience arose in sympathy and excitement, and the stage manager, rushing forward, hurriedly said that, owing to the serious illness of the singer, the performance would have to close for that night. The doors were promptly thrown open, and the audience of 1,200 persons were hurried out.

Just as the last of the audience were leaving the flames began to burst through the stage, and, looking back, the people saw the real cause of their dismissal. The theatre was entirely destroyed, but no lives were lost.—N. Y. Sun.

THEY APPRECIATE. The Newbern Company's Thanks to Capt. Fagg. At a meeting of the Atlantic Steam Fire Engine company No. 1, of Newbern, the following preamble and resolution was adopted, which will be of interest to the many friends of Capt. Fagg: "Whereas, during the recent visit of this company to Asheville, the recipient of many esteemed courtesies and attentions, and those shown by Capt. M. J. Fagg being of such an exceptional character, call for special action; therefore be it Resolved, that by his earnest interest, courteous attentions, hospitality, general good fellowship, and his completely successful efforts to make our visit to Asheville a memorably pleasant one, Capt. Fagg has earned our warmest thanks, and we take this occasion to officially record our appreciation and express our thanks."

BASEBALL. Augusta and Asheville's Game Thursday Afternoon. Those who went out to the Asheville-Augusta baseball game on Montford avenue yesterday afternoon had lots of fun if they did not see such a scientific game as could be desired. The Augustas rattled the Asheville for a little while, and it looked very much as if the Fountain City boys would have a walk round. The Asheville contingent finally got on its howling voice, however, and gave the Asheville so much encouragement that they elicited an until it looked as though the Augustas would be caught by with, but the Asheville picked up too late, and the score stood at the close of the game 10 to 8 in favor of Augusta.

Edward Clegg umpired the game up to the seventh inning when a flick went up, and N. A. Reynolds was made umpire.

NOT BEFORE OCTOBER FIRST. When the Joint Debate Between Crawford and Pritchard Begins. Jeter Pritchard, the Republican nominee for representative from this district, tells THE CITIZEN that, under the advice of his physician, he will not be able to take the stump for a series of joint debates with Congressman Crawford before October 1. Mr. Pritchard has written Mr. Crawford that he will speak at Marion next Tuesday and will be glad to have a joint debate with him there if it is convenient for him to be present.

Only a Lunatic. FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 19.—Peckham, who confessed to the Borden murder, is a lunatic. He is locked up, but it is simply to humor him.

THE KILLING HAS BEGUN FOUR MINERS AND FOUR SOLDIERS SHOT DEAD.

Memphis in Fever of Excitement Over a Probably Unfounded Rumor—United States Arms for the Use of the Tennessee Troops. CLINTON, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Gen. Carnes, with the Chattanooga contingent of the militia, had a fight with miners five miles east of here last night. Four soldiers were killed and six wounded. Four miners were killed. The miners were driven off, and Carnes is trying to reach Coal Creek over unused mountain paths as the railroad is planted with dynamite.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Acting Secretary of War Grant this morning telegraphed Col. Mandant, at the arsenal at Indianapolis, to forward at once to the Governor of Tennessee at Knoxville six hundred stands of arms and 3,900 rounds of ammunition for use by the State authorities in suppressing the miners' riots. The action is based on a formal requisition from Buchanan, Gen. Grant explained that the arms and ammunition form only a part of Tennessee's quota under the allotment of the $10,000 appropriation for the support of the national guard of the states, and that the Governor's requisition would have been honored at any time regardless of the condition of affairs in the State.

Gen. Grant added that no application for troops had been received so far as he knew and he did not look for one. The department had refused to allow volunteers to use the government arms now at the University of Tennessee for the reason that they were intended solely for the use of the cadets and could not be loaned to outside parties no matter how commendable their purpose.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 19.—Sheriff McLendon has received a telegraphic inquiry from Adjutant General Norman asking how large a posse could be mustered for immediate service. The sheriff has published a call to the citizens of Shelby county to meet him tomorrow. He also called upon all the resident ex-officers of the late war to aid in organizing.

The report that Gen. Keller Anderson has been hanged by the miners has thrown the city into a fever of excitement. The streets are thronged and reveille is the cry.

Governor Buchanan, who was quite sick last night, is better today, but is still too ill to leave his room.

KNOXVILLE, Aug. 19.—It is an undoubted fact that Gen. Anderson was captured by the miners yesterday. At the last accounts last night he was in the hands of the notorious "Bud" Lindsay, a brother of the U. S. Attorney General Lindsay here. At last accounts he had a pistol to the head of Gen. Anderson and ordered him to command his men to surrender. Gen. Anderson told "Bud" Lindsay to shoot and he did; he would never surrender or order his men to surrender.

ASHEVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Colonel Hager telegraphs from the seat of war that Capt. Anderson is still in the hands of the miners. Grave fears for his safety are felt. The troops have charge of the town of Coal Creek; the miners have retreated over the mountains.

BACK FROM RALEIGH. Col. Long Thinks His Party Has Put up a Good Ticket. Col. Thos. B. Long, the Third party candidate for Auditor, returned last night from Raleigh. The Colonel is looking as well as ever, but is a little hoarse; yet from his efforts at the convention in flapping the Democrats. He tells THE CITIZEN that he thinks his party has put up a very good ticket. He knew nothing about the character of some of the men on the ticket, but was willing to rely on the delegates from the east to make good selections.

Col. Long seems to be in good heart over his prospects, but declined to make any estimate of the vote his ticket would receive.

AT BUFFALO. Preparations for a Long and Determined Fight. BUFFALO, Aug. 19.—There is no change in the situation this morning. A conference of the leaders of the trainmen, engineers and firemen was held last night to discuss the propriety of joining the strike, but no definite conclusion has yet been reached.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Grand Secretary Simsot, of the switchmen's union, says: "No strike will be ordered as long as the situation remains as at present in Buffalo. Preparations are being made by the organizations for a long and determined fight."

AN ELECTORAL VOTE. Kentucky's May Be Lost Altogether This Year. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 19.—In the general mix, due to the failure of the legislature to pass a number of bills by a constitutional majority, there is danger that the electoral vote of Kentucky will be thrown out in the approaching Presidential contest. A number of the amendments to the election bill failed to receive a majority vote in the senate, and if Gov. Brown's construction of the constitution is adhered to by the courts, serious trouble may result, since the entire bill may be declared unconstitutional.

Spooner for Governor. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 17.—Ex-Senator John C. Spooner was nominated for Governor this afternoon by the Republican State convention, the nomination being made by acclamation. All the other candidates withdrew from the contest as soon as Mr. Spooner announced he would accept, and the result was accordingly a foregone conclusion.

The Very Fastest Mile. CHICAGO, August 19.—A new pacing record was made yesterday. Up to then Johnson's time, 2:06 1/4, has not been beaten, but today Hal Pointer went around the Washington Park track in 2:05 1/4, making the fastest mile ever gone in harness.
