HAVE BEGUN TO WEAKEN MINERS WILL MAKE STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS.

They Are Realizing That They Are Now in Close Quarters—The Lease System of Convicts Can Be Abrogated.

COAL CREEK, Aug. 23.—Gen. Carnes makes the following statement: "We have made better progress today in our investigation than at any previous time. The prisoners are just beginning to open their mouths and some startling developments will be made in a short while. They all belong to a secret, oath-bound order and the penalty obligation is death, consequently they have been as close as claims heretofore. We have been at work on them, however, and are just now beginning to convince them that they will be protected against violence for making a statement. We have obtained several confessions today, which at this step of proceedings it would be unwise to give out, but when they are made known they will create much surprise."

Gen. E. Irish, a notorious miner leader, was brought from Knoxville to Coal Creek at 11:30 last night. At 11:50 p. m., a detachment of soldiers forcibly entered the telegraph office and examined the telegraph files to get the address and names of miners. Attorney General Pickett who arrived at Coal Creek yesterday afternoon to cooperate with Gen. Carnes in suppressing the trouble here, expresses the opinion that the lease system can be abrogated at the discretion of the Governor and that of Prison Inspectors as the conditions of the lease had been violated years ago by the lessees' failure to pay a yearly fee of $100,000 for which suit has been brought. The General also expressed the opinion that martial law could be proclaimed in Tennessee, either by the Governor or by a special session of the legislature. The only way to handle the matter was the method being pursued now by the state guard with the cooperation of the civil authorities. Heroic measures, the general thought, should be instituted. If a dozen or two of the crime-movers in the lawlessness were sent to the penitentiary it would have a good effect on the other agitators and they would not dare to return to this vicinity for fear of a like penalty.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 23.—The convicts are to be returned to the branch prisons at Tracy City, Inman and Oliver Springs and the dignity of the law maintained.

THE FALL IN SILVER

Saxony Will Not Complete the Longest Tunnel in the World.

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—In consequence of the fall in silver the Saxony Government has decided not to complete its work on the Rotlischoenberger Stollen, the longest tunnel in the world. The tunnel was intended to drain water from all the Freiberg silver mines and carry it to the Elbe. The main tunnel is of the same length as the St. Gotthard tunnel. Its branches, however, add twenty-one miles to its length, making the total extent almost thirty miles. The tunnel was begun at State expense in 1844, and after thirty-three years of continuous work it was opened in April 1877. Hundreds of men are thrown out of employment by the Government's decision, and it is expected that many more will follow, as most of the Freiberg mines, once the pride of Germany, have been rendered unremunerative by the fall in silver. Work in the mines was begun in 1200, and has produced 850,000,000 marks' worth of silver.—N. Y. World.

MURDERERS AT HEART.

Such Are the Men Who Did This Thing.

READING, Pa., Aug. 23.—A dastardly attempt was made to wreck the express on the Pennsylvania railroad due in this city from Philadelphia at 8:13 last night. After it had crossed a large iron bridge two miles below Reading, going at forty miles an hour, the engineer saw an obstruction ahead, but was unable to stop the train which dashed into four heavy timbers placed across the track. A wheel of the locomotive jumped the rails, and the lives of over 100 passengers were imperiled, but no one was hurt.

K. OF P.

They Have Invaded Kansas City by the Thousand.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 23.—Ever since Sunday throngs of Knights of Pythias and ladies have been arriving on the crowded railway trains, marching through crowded streets to the crowded camp and overcrowded hotels and lodging houses. The normal population of the city is 138,000. Today it is estimated at 200,000, the increase being Knights of Pythias and civilian visitors. The camp is occupied by some 12,000 uniform men. This afternoon they had a grand parade.

HIGH DAMAGE QUICK.

A Chalmers Overwhelms Part of Roanoke, Va.

ROANOKE, Va., Aug. 23.—A dispatch from Roanoke, Va., states that at 11 o'clock last night a cloudburst took place there. The business portion of the city suffered to the extent of $100,000 in twenty minutes. One person is known to have been drowned and several are said to have been drowned. A heavy rain throughout the night was followed by a cloudburst. The damage to property, it is expected, will prove very great.

Come to Asheville, William.

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—Emperor William still adheres to his determination to see the World's Fair in Chicago, if the European situation be clear enough to permit of his absence for six weeks. This prospect has had a beneficial effect upon German firms who will exhibit. They are straining every nerve to make Germany's exhibits represent the highest achievements of German industry.—N. Y. HOW THEY WERE LEFT.

President Gwyn Desires to Set Things Right

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—Since the good people who got left on the mountain on Saturday afternoon have seen proper to inquire through your columns as to why they got left, instead of coming and making complaint directly to the president of the dummy line, I trust that you will do me the justice to publish a statement from me in regard to the matter. The schedule as published for last week, was that the last car would leave the mountain terminus at 7:25, and the conductor announced this fact on each trip late in the afternoon, so that no person should be misled. I was at the city terminus Saturday evening when the last car left there, and it was about eight minutes late, so that it must necessarily have left the mountain terminus several minutes late, instead of ahead of time. The conductor's record shows that it left city terminus at 7:15, instead of 7:08, which is the schedule time, he keeps no record of the time of leaving the mountain terminus. His record shows that four people went on the last trip, and seventeen came down.

I have seen the gentleman who was with the belated party, and he says that when the whistle blew for the last car, the train was in motion, but that he shouted to it, and thinks he was seen by the train men, who, however, refused to stop for him. Now if I was sure that this boy was correct, no person could remain in my employ who would want to leave people on the mountain at that time of day, on the last trip. But I must think the little fellow was mistaken as to the train men seeing him. They certainly had good reason to believe that no one else was waiting to go down, for they were several minutes late arriving at the mountain terminus, and it is a fact that, as soon as the train starts, the attention of the crew is directed at once to the front, as it should always be. The noise of the engine and car would certainly drown the sound of a boy's voice at any distance from the car. So far as I can see, no more blame can attach to my crew than to that of any other railway that runs on its schedule, and the fact that this party arrived at the station behind time should not operate to the blame of the railway company or its employes. W. B. Gwyn, President.

RAVAGES IN JAPAN.

Hundreds of Lives Lost and Thousands of Houses Destroyed.

SAKAYAMA, Aug. 21.—The Oriental steamer Gadic, which arrived today, brings details of enormous losses of life by a typhoon, landslide, and earthquake in Japan. The typhoon raged three days at Tokushima, and the town was flooded. One hundred and fifty people were drowned, 2,000 houses swept away, and 20,000 houses submerged. Twenty-five thousand people are being fed by the Government. In Akagoan 300 people were drowned and 3,000 dwellings swept away.

STILL LAWLESS.

Somebody Will Yet Get Killed in That Buffalo Strike.

BUFFALO, Aug. 12.—Just after midnight last night a number of strikers or their sympathizers began throwing exploding pins at a squad of soldiers. The soldiers were ordered to fire if the pins were thrown into the ranks. Captain Morley and Lieutenant Morris arrived on the scene with a detachment of reserves and made a search through the yards, but could find no one there.

WELL! WELL!

Even the Chinese Worm Will Turn at the Last.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Sam Moy, prominent in the Chinese colony, has surprised the Government officials by informing them that orders had been received from China not to obey the law requiring Chinese residents to take out certificates of residence. He said the Government of China had sent officials here to fight the law in the courts.

250 Years a Church.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Aug. 21.—At the First Parish Unitarian church today, services were held commemorative of the 250 years' existence of that church. The Rev. Daniel Monroe Wilson of Quincy delivered an historical address. This is the oldest church on Cape Ann, and it was a target of the British in the war of 1812, being fired into by the British frigate Falcon. A ball that lodged in the building at that time was taken out in 1824, when the church was rebuilt. This ball is now suspended from the ceiling in the vestibule. The church has had sixteen pastors.—N. Y. Sun.

He Holds Over.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The Attorney General has given his opinion in the case of Hill, the Vicksburg postmaster, to the effect that he remains in charge of and responsible for the office till his successor is appointed. This is a reversal of the old practice.

Death of Dr. Wood.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 23.—Dr. Thos. F. Wood, one of the most prominent physicians in North Carolina, died here yesterday of heart disease. He was Secretary of the State Board of Health and editor of a medical journal published here.

AND IT HAD A STRING TO IT

WHAT A CANDIDATE HAS TO CONTEND WITH.

Jeter C. Pritchard, the Would Be Congressman, Goes on a Bond, but After Being Visited by a Committee Reconsiders the Matter.

Verily, "the life of a politician is not always a happy one." The truth of this saying is illustrated by an incident occurring here yesterday. It will be remembered by those who read THE CITIZEN that "Dumps" Lane and two other colored men were arrested for running a "blind tiger" on Sycamore street. The men were taken before Commissioner Summey yesterday morning where they waived examination and gave bond in the sum of $200 each for their appearance at court. Jeter C. Pritchard, Republican candidate for Congress in the Ninth district, went on the bond.

The news of Pritchard's action became known among the colored people in a little while, and it caused a great deal of comment. Some of them plainly said that they could not conveniently support a man who would furnish security for a man who stood as low in their estimation as "Dumps" did.

One of the strongest talkers in this strain was Walter Greenlee. In the afternoon he got into an argument on the subject with his brother George. Walter's language was probably more forcible than elegant, for George went before Recorder Miller and swore out a warrant for Walter.

Late in the afternoon a committee of colored men, among them Harrison Brown, the Leatherwood brothers, and Walter Greenlee, called on Pritchard. The deputation argued with the candidate, impressing on his mind the fact that his action, if persisted in, would surely lose him the votes of many colored men who otherwise would willingly support him.

Pritchard took counsel of his fears, apparently, for he went before Commissioner Summey and surrendered the men, reconsidering his action in going on the bond. His place on the bond was taken by J. H. Loughran.

A SLICK GAME.

But, as Usual, It Played Out After a While.

A few weeks ago a dashing young fellow with insinuating manners, made his appearance among the younger element of Ashevilleians and soon worked himself into their confidence. He made good use of his time, borrowed money freely, and they, unsuspecting as they were, placed full confidence in the young confidence man.

Meantime the latter, whose wardrobe seemed very deficient, managed to appropriate to himself a light, fashionable suit of clothes from a Pullman conductor and a pair of shoes from another of Pullman's conductors—all without their knowledge or consent—and various sums of money.

Being by this time found out, the young man took the train and landed that evening at the Mountain Park hotel. Hot Springs, where he registered as "W. C. McKinney, Lynchburg, Va." Not having any baggage, on the second day the hotel bill was presented to him, when he made a clean breast and confessed that he had no funds. To add to his consternation the Pullman conductor, from whom he had taken the suit of clothes he wore, appeared on the scene and had young McKinney, (if that is his proper name) arrested on a charge of larceny of clothes, etc.

To make a long story short, the committing magistrate was paid his fee, the Pullman conductor got his clothes and the erring young man, if not an old offender, was put on the train on Friday night last for Paint Rock, whence he departed the following morning, buying a ticket to Morristown. Whether he went from there to Tallahassee, North or South is not known. At any rate, quite a number of Asheville young men have cause to regret having fallen in with the young man.

SUPERIOR COURT.

A Suit Against the City for $20,000 Damages.

In the superior court yesterday afternoon, in the case State ex. rel. J. B. Hyatt vs. E. Baird et al., the plaintiff submitted to a nonsuit and appealed to the supreme court.

The case of M. A. Jordan vs. City of Asheville was then taken up. This is a suit for damages in the sum of $20,000. Mrs. Jordan was injured in 1887, while walking on Merrimon avenue, a defect in the plank walk being the cause. The plaintiff claims that her injuries are permanent. Her attorneys are W. W. Jones and F. A. Sondley, and the city is represented by Cobb & Merrimon and Chas. M. Stedman.

A REQUEST.

An "American Carnival" to Be Given Next Week.

The executive board of the Kindergarten association have decided to have an "American Carnival" next week and they desire everyone interested in the work of the association to contribute at least one article for the fancy article booth.

Any contributions can be sent to the Farmers' warehouse on North Main street next Monday and Tuesday. It is to be hoped that many ladies will respond to this request, as the ladies of the association will be very busy with other features of the carnival.

Primaries Saturday.

Democrats will remember the Democratic primaries to be held at the various precincts on Saturday next, August 27. All persons who expect to be candidates before the county convention, September 3, are urged to have their tickets at every precinct, so that, in case the precinct decides to vote for candidates there can be no cause for dissatisfaction on the part of candidates.

A Japanese Lecture.
