THE TICKET.
The ticket nominated by the Democratic convention Saturday is of the kind every good citizen loves to work and vote for. Every man nominated can appeal to the people, irrespective of party, for support on the ground either of tried or known ability to serve the country.

AN APOLOGY NEEDED.
The Mayor's bill for his New York trip as rendered in a lump sum was shamefully exorbitant, and the items as given to the Joint Board make it no better, rather worse. It is impossible to justify by the services rendered—which was of the slightest—a cost of $553 to the city for thirty days' work—work for which we have yet to hear released the Mayor's special qualifications. It is possible to have first class treatment at several of the Broadway hotels for four dollars per day; the Mayor charges eight dollars per day and eighty-five dollars for extras besides. Other items of the bill are equally ill founded in either justice or decency, and we hope that the Mayor will yet see it in that light and, in partial expiation for his insult to the taxpayers of Asheville, withdraw the bill altogether. Such an act would be taken as an apology that is much needed.

COSTLY STUPIDITY.
In spite of the Moravia, the first ship to bring cholera to our shores, being in strict quarantine, the same stupidity that has marked the management of that vessel since the day after she left Hamburg continues to be manifest. It was ascertained Saturday that boiling and barrels had been thrown over from her within a few days and that some of it had been picked up on the beach and carried away for fuel. If the owners of the line to which that vessel belongs had set themselves deliberately to introduce cholera into this country they could not have acted more carelessly than their agents, the captain and ship's doctor, have. Moreover, a week ago the New York agent of the one of the Hamburg-American lines said that all immigrants for the United States were detained at Hamburg till their baggage was disinfected and each one of them had been fumigated. The doctor of the Moravia testified as soon as he got to New York that the immigrants on that steamship had been hurried from the cars into the steamer in an "exhausted and delirious condition."

THOMAS B. LONG'S RECORD.
For several weeks past publication has been going the rounds of the State press to the effect that Thomas B. Long, nominee of the People's party for auditor, while agent for the North Carolina railroad at Salisbury from August, 1888, to October, 1890, had proved a delinquent to the tune of several thousand dollars. The Citizens wished to do no injustice to any one, and at the same time desired to be faithful to the people of the State in warning them against at least a possible danger. The Clerk of the Superior court of Alamance county, where an action was alleged to have been prosecuted by the railroad company for the recovery of the alleged "shortage," was written to for a certified copy of the record in the action. It was promptly forwarded.

There is much of the record which is of little importance or interest to the public, and we therefore print only the complaints and the judgment of the court. The full record can be inspected at THE CITIZEN'S OFFICE.

The answer contains a general denial of all the allegations of the complaint, but from the judgment of the court it appears that the allegations of the complaint were fully substantiated.

From the record it also appears that "Col." Long held the position of agent for the railroad only for one year, one month and two days, and within that short period misappropriated five thousand nine hundred and fifty-one and ninety-four one hundredths dollars of the railroad's money. The question inevitably suggests itself, What might not such a man accomplish in four years as Auditor of the State of North Carolina?

It must be remembered, too, that for a number of years since the rendition of this judgment the "Colonel" has held at a high salary an important office under the Federal government, bestowed upon him by the Republican party, and yet not one dollar of this high salary has been ever applied to the payment of this judgment. And this is the man who has been going over the country for the last four years preaching "reform," abusing honest men and denouncing one of the best, cleanest, cheapest and most efficient State governments that has ever existed in the history of human society!

Go along, "Col." Long, and pay back to the railroad that sum of five thousand nine hundred and fifty-one and ninety-four one hundredths dollars which you have so long withheld, and then you may come with some little degree of plausibility to teach reform and honesty to other people.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

CANDIDATES NAMED BY SATURDAY'S CONVENTION.
An Excellent Ticket Chosen, and One That Will be a Winner in November—J. D. Murphy Elected Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Representatives: John W. Starnes (R. B. Vance).
Sheriff: J. A. Brookshire
Register of Deeds: J. J. Mackay
Treasurer: John H. Courtney
Surveyor: J. J. Reagan
Coroner: L. B. McBrayer

The second ballot for register of deeds in Saturday's convention stood as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Mackay 12-240, Young 22-71, Drummond 7-34, Tomlinson 12-140, Wilson 16-410, Garton 3-10, Woodward 7, Henry 7, Lynch 4-6-10.

At the close of the second ballot E. L. Henry withdrew his name.
Third ballot: Mackay 50-610, Young 34-110, Tomlinson 5-8-10, Tomlinson 7-34, Wilson 10-7-10, Garton 1, Woodward 8, Lynch 2-6-10.

The fourth ballot did the work, resulting as follows: Mackay 63-210, Young 37-5-10, Drummond 1-8-10, Tomlinson 1-8-10, Wilson 12-4-10, Lynch 2-6-10.

Mackay was declared the nominee on fourth ballot, and responded to call in a short speech. The nomination was made unanimous on motion of Dr. Wilson.

Treasurer.
The convention then went into the nomination of a candidate for treasurer. J. W. Nash placed in nomination John H. Reynolds, while Col. A. T. Davidson nominated John H. Courtney, the present incumbent.

Only one ballot was necessary: Courtney 76, Reynolds 44. Courtney was declared the nominee and was compelled to make a speech.

Surveyor.
Nominations for the office of surveyor were made for, and J. H. Tucker raised a howl five minutes long by starting to nominate Dr. L. B. McBrayer for that office. Dr. McBrayer was the candidate for coroner.

J. J. Reagan was placed in nomination by E. L. Henry. R. E. Patton, R. E. Walker, and W. H. Johnston by J. S. T. Baird.

The first and only ballot stood: Reagan 68-140, Patton 49-440, Johnston 2, Baird 1-10, Starnes 1-10.

Coroner.
Nominations for coroner were made as follows: L. B. McBrayer by J. H. Tucker, C. E. Hilliard by Col. A. T. Davidson, E. H. Hemphill by Jas. H. Cooper.

The all of precincts was begun. West ward voting 22 solid for Hilliard. Before the call had proceeded far, however, the convention allowed this, and the ward voted 8 for McBrayer and 14 for Hilliard. East ward also changed from 13 solid for Hilliard to 8 for Hilliard and 5 for McBrayer.

The ballot: McBrayer 82-140, Hilliard 25-440, Hemphill 12-6-10. McBrayer was declared the nominee and the ticket was complete.

Primary System Repealed.
R. P. Walker moved that the primary system be repealed, and the motion was carried. J. M. Gulder offered a resolution instructing the senatorial delegates to cast the ballot of the county for J. M. Campbell. R. Y. Blackstock offered an amendment adding the name of J. S. Davis, but there was some opposition, and the amendment was withdrawn.

The convention adopted a motion authorizing chairman of such townships as now have no organization to appoint township committees of four each. The work of the convention was now concluded, but Vance and Starnes were called on for speeches and responded in enthusiastic strains. Gen. Vance predicted success for Democracy in Hamcombe, without a doubt. He also told (what his friends have suspected long) that he had been lonesome for several years, and promised that he would soon choose a life partner to cheer his loneliness.

A Chairman Chosen.
At a meeting of members of the executive committee for the county, J. D. Murphy was unanimously chosen chairman of the committee.

Convention Chat.
The county delegates dubbed the West warders "Tammany Hall." Just how or why they chose the name is not known.

Squire Blackstock raised a laugh when he said "John Courtney has to get around on a wooden peg, and you know he can't run away with your money." After Mackay had been nominated, several of the defeated candidates made speeches. George Young said he was defeated and it was all right, "all I have to say is, I'm a Democrat." A voice: "Lord knows, George, that's as much as any man can say."

Major William Hardtford Malone of the Gideonites, and George Barlowe Cannon, of the Republicans, looked on awhile. Biltmore's little ninetieths of a vote became very monotonous, but Bob Walker persisted in them just the same.

STATE POLITICS.
Judge Bynum says: "I am not in politics. I will not accept the nomination for Governor under any circumstances, nor would I accept any other political nomination." W. G. Burkhead completely demolished Dr. Exum and put him down Friday on the defensive at Whiteville Thursday. Butler occupied his time trying to defend the State ticket, arranging the Democratic party and appealing to the prejudices of the ignorant classes.

Newton Enterprise: "No more exaggerated and lying reports were ever circulated than those that have gone out all over the State about the size of the Third party in Catawba county. No Republican or Third party speaker ever gets up anywhere without telling the crowd that the Third party will carry everything in Catawba. We have not subtracted a single figure from our estimate that Cleveland will get 1,200 majority in Catawba."

LETTERS FROM THE 'PROVE.

The City Water and Fire.
Honor This Citizen—I have been traveling all over the world and almost every state of the Union, but never yet have I experienced such a disappointment as I have in Asheville when I found out that at 12 M. the water supply is cut off for the night, and was told that it was the habit of the city to do so.

Have you ever thought of the dangers that may arise from this? If a small fire should break out, which a bucket full of water could put out, there would be a large one, and the needed supply could be obtained. A small fire might again be considered. If the water is being turned on, to be a considerable conflagration, destroying half the town. Have you ever thought about that? A New Yorker.

[Asheville and THE CITIZEN dislike to be the cause of disappointments, but when the former presents one there is a sort of painful pleasure in being able, even in that, to best the experience of a man who is a world-wide traveler and a "New Yorker," and yet does not know more of what country suggests than to send an anonymous letter to a newspaper.

The water is not shut off at noon. It is sometimes shut off in the evening, largely for the purpose of saving a supply sufficient to supply any fire that may break out. If a fire is discovered, the first person to be notified, and that by electricity, is a water works employee living near the reservoir where the water runs on the supply at a moment's notice.—(By Citizens.)

CONCEALING CONCEALS.
Editor THE CITIZEN:—Has anyone who are compelled to go to Morris-town on the Richmond and Danville via Point Rock, have really but one train to rely on from this section to the city and that is passenger train No. 9 which arrives at Point Rock at 10 P. M. and then there is that willness, the terms of both railway systems, passengers have to face until an 11 P. M. & 12 P. M. connection, and goes back again to Morris-town.

A night train of the Richmond and Danville, No. 11, arrives at Point Rock at 8 of the evening, and three passengers have to stop or lie over until next day before being able to proceed on to Tennessee.

Isn't this a very shame, that both of these lines will not make close connection and thereby facilitate, instead of hampering travel to and from Tennessee and North Carolina? A change for the better is demanded.

To the credit of the joint agent, Mr. H. M. Swaine and his very obliging assistants, be it said, that, as far as they are concerned, nothing is so common as their making the weary and sorry appearing passengers as comfortable as they possibly can, and their great personal inconveniences. Many travelers daily and nightly cheerfully express to them a debt of gratitude for their unselfish and generous assistance and gentlemanly protection.

But the R. & D. as well as the E. T. V. and all their respective agents, must be better. What is urgently needed and demanded is close connection and no more lay-over. Grumbley.

SAVING FOREIGNERS.
The aggregate number of persons in North Carolina, between the 1st of July and 1st of August, 1892, was 272,000, of which number only 205 are foreigners, the remainder being natives to the State. Of this total 357,500 are white, and 214,411 are colored. The number of males in North Carolina of the militia age, from eighteen to twenty years, is 101,401, of which only 1,700 are foreign born. Of the total given 67,304 are whites, and 38,097 colored. Those who are of the voting age—that is over twenty-one years of age—number 342,953, of this number only 2,981 are of foreign birth, 233,307 are white, and 109,346 are colored.

From Albemarle, Stokes county, during the past twelve months up to August 1st, there were, in round numbers, 17,000 chickens and 10,000 eggs shipped. Also 28,000 bushels of cotton seed.

The receivers of the Richmond and Danville railway have just completed a tour over the entire line of the Western North Carolina railway. Much new rail has been laid on the Murphy division.

The religious papers state that for the week just past seventy-seven candidates have been made to the Methodist church in addition to the Methodist church in North Carolina.

WILMINGTON.
Strict Quarantine Promised at Our Chief Seaport.
From the Wilmington Messenger.
No alarm need be felt in Wilmington over the possibility that cholera will be allowed to get here by vessels from foreign ports. All vessels from Europe will be rigidly quarantined and the health authorities will exercise their utmost vigilance to keep away the plague.

Now that the cotton season is opening up, we are more than likely to have several steamships here from Hamburg during the season, and already it is stated a vessel had cleared that port for Wilmington for a cargo of cotton. Such vessels will have to show a clean bill of health and undergo the full requirements of the quarantine, but until the regulations are complied with they should not be boarded indiscriminately.

Dr. W. H. Bellamy in Wilmington Star.
"The chances of our having it [cholera] in Wilmington, under adverse circumstances—such as poor quarantine, etc.—are as good as cholera bacillus could like. Our trade with foreign ports, our cotton presses, etc., put us in the same category as other cities in this country, where the cholera has occurred. Our climate, and immediate section are always ripe for it, except possibly in December, January and February. We must have money and means adequate to insure a good quarantine. Without this we are in danger."

M. D. Lane, Devereaux, Ga., writes: "One summer several years ago, while railroading in Mississippi, I became badly affected with malarial blood poisoning that impaired my health for more than two years. Several offensive ulcers appeared on my legs, and nothing seemed to give permanent relief until I took six bottles of B. B. B., which cured me entirely."
