

THE BANK BOYS DO 'EM UP

YESTERDAY'S GAME OF BASEBALL.

The Canary Birds put Darby in the box after Smith is batted out. But they couldn't catch up-Darby's Home Run.

The match game of baseball between the bank clerks and the store clerks came off yesterday, and the bankers' paper today is worth the difference between twenty-three and sixteen. The usual delay in starting the game had occurred when the umpire called "play ball," and it was the same old wait for cars to get back home in, with a few added whiskers. The knowledge that these trifling items were on the program was the cause of the slim gate receipts.

The game after the second inning was a good one and material was developed for the Buncombe nine that is to sweep the South next season.

The real live interest began with the first half; the Canary Birds went to bat and by lively play promised their rooters victory. Dorsett put the side out with the prettiest catch from Cummings' fly yet seen in left field.

The Reds closed the inning one run behind their opponents, but they were on to Smith's delivery and that was glory enough.

The Canaries repeated their score in the second by muffs at first and short and Gus Smith's strike out. Neely made a great hit to center and ran for a three bagger but when Neely got to third he wasn't in it.

Now the rapping began, and flashes of red over the plate nine times without a break dizzied the crowd. The yellows were unhappy, and their adherents turned down their colors; the reds were jubilant and their friends wild; the bases were full and as they overpowered the umpire got mixed and then, oh, such a kick! Henry Penland declared above the din that the fever had again set in and nothing short of another game of We 'Uns and You 'Uns would ever quiet him.

Facets were shut up handily and the second half closed 12 to 8 for the bankers.

The third was round 0's for both teams. The yellow boys put Darby in the box and it made their grief more sorrowful to think they hadn't done it before.

The features of the fourth were a three-bagger by Darby and an error in fielding it which gave him a clean run, and a fine fly to center by Rankin.

Dennison put up a schmelet on the "other clerks" in the fifth, but it proved a boomerang, as the yellows added three to their score and shut out the bankers without a base.

The sixth had bright skies for the Canaries and they sang loudly. The grand stand became quiet and Gus Reynolds put on an extra yard of old gold hitting. The Reds kicked on the lightning attachment of the twirling Darby, but it was no good, and they buckled down to win anyhow, making the score cards show them two runs ahead when the inning closed.

Everybody had to show their colors now. The tension was snappy and side out on strikes by the yellows didn't improve their chances, while the Reds saw the hole and got through four times. The eighth saw the Canary Birds juggling off their third goose egg and the boys who do the "digging" ended the first game of the series with a single run.

J. S. Grant and Jim Young were the umpires and they received the honors usually given.

The line of travel home was a bright red, an unusually bright red, so red that it dimmed the ardor of old "Timmy-the-Track."

The score was:

Table with columns for BATTERS, CANARY BIRDS, and BANKERS, listing names and scores.

Summary: Bankers, 12; Canary Birds, 8.

BETHEL LEAGUE.

Enjoyable Entertainment Last Evening.

The entertainment given by the Bethel Epworth League last evening was an enjoyable occasion. The audience was large, and the songs, recitations and solos, with organ and guitar accompaniments, were well rendered.

The League of this church is growing in interest and usefulness every day.

The officers for the incoming quarter are: W. L. Walker, president; H. Hampton, first vice-president; Miss Ora Justus, second vice-president; Miss Ella Morgan, third vice-president; Miss Eva Morgan, treasurer; L. B. Alexander, secretary.

THE GREAT FIGHT.

Asheville's Sports Generally Favor Sullivan.

There is a great deal of interest among Asheville's sporting fraternity in the Sullivan-Corbett fight which comes off at New Orleans tonight. Manager Peebles' club will hear the result of each round in detail at the Western Union office here as soon as the round is finished. There is some betting on the fight, with Sullivan as the favorite. One wager was made yesterday with odds 2 to 1 in Sullivan's favor. Another bet was even money that Sullivan would best Corbett in fifteen rounds.

THE LAST SHIPMENT.

Asheville Shoe Company Removed to Elizabethton.

The last shipment of machinery of the Asheville Shoe company to Elizabethton, Tenn., was made yesterday. John Y. Jordan, president and general manager of the company, leaves Asheville tomorrow morning for his new field of operations, where the company will start up as soon as the machinery can be put in place. Asheville regrets the removal of this establishment, and the many friends of the energetic young manager regret to see him leave Asheville.

With a Walking Stick.

L. A. Farinholt and George Cook became engaged in a wordy altercation this morning in front of Porter's store on Patton avenue, which ended in Farinholt striking Cook over the head with a walking stick. The blow brought blood. Cook's wound, which was slight, was dressed in Raysor & Smith's drug store. The men had a hearing before Recorder Miller this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

AROUND TOWN.

L. Coffin, 14 North Court Square, has some handsome Cleveland badges for sale. They would be especially appropriate for Democrats to wear while Gen. Stevenson is in Asheville.

Robt. V. Miller, an old Asheville boy, but now general secretary of the Salisbury Young Men's Christian association, came up to Asheville yesterday, and will spend several weeks here.

Sam L. Adams of Durham, who represents the Washington Life Insurance company, is in Asheville, stopping at the Swannanoa. Mr. Adams comes here to recuperate from an attack of malaria.

Street Superintendent Henderson's force began the work of grading the sidewalk on Haywood street near Patton avenue this morning. As soon as this work is completed the putting down of a concrete sidewalk will begin.

THE LYCEUM.

Judge Bacon's Address on Russia Last Evening.

The Lyceum was called to order at 8 o'clock to terminate last evening. Routine business was transacted, at the conclusion of which Judge John E. Bacon delivered his address on "Russia." Judge Bacon corrected many false impressions in the minds of Americans, showing that the Russian government had always been patriarchal, never feudal. "Lobby" ran through every man from the Car down, as the ruling principle. This, he said, makes Russia such a power in war. In failure as in success, she constantly extends her empire and it may come to pass that she will one day cover Europe and Africa, as Democratic institutions may the Americas.

The light in the hall was poor, making it impossible for the Judge to read his paper as he had expected, so leaving it he made his talk all too short.

Maj. W. H. Malone said we had been taught to know the "other fellow" better and made a good talk on that line.

J. D. Murphy asked Judge Bacon as to the Greek church and the persecution of the Jews. Paying a compliment to the Jews as to ability, Judge Bacon replied that he could not say what reason lay at the bottom of this persecution. He thought America's toleration ideas best.

Col. L. M. Hatch believed the Chinese would be felt before Russia would take all Asia, and gave his reason for so thinking. All China needs, he said, is a military leader.

A number of ladies attended the meeting. On next Tuesday evening Dr. G. H. Mayer will address the society on "Capital Punishment."

JOINT SPEAKING.

A LETTER FROM BLAINE.

He Sees Three Issues in the Present Campaign. AUGUSTA, Maine, Sept. 7.—A letter from Hon. James G. Blaine to Chairman Manley, of the Republican State committee, is made public. It is intended to be Blaine's contribution to the campaign.

Blaine urges Republicans to steadfastly press three issues upon the people. They are: the tariff question and he gives unhesitating support to the McKinley act; the reciprocity question, which he strongly advocates; and the third, opposition to the Democratic plank proposing to make State banks of issue.

Blaine knocked out. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 7.—The crowd in attendance at the 6:20 last night was not large. Negroes were admitted to part of the hall. There were three to one against Buckley. The colored champion, Dixon, won in eight rounds.

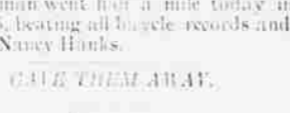

The last of the Sullivans here, Corbett, the Californian, arrived yesterday and was given a warm welcome. If supererogation and supreme confidence with Corbett would have a walkover, President Campbell of the Southern Athletic club and a committee, met the Corbett party. A large crowd gathered and cheered Sullivan's opponent.

Bank closed. MOUNTAIN VIEW, Ky., Sept. 7.—The First National Bank of the city was closed yesterday by Assistant Controller McKnight. There is a shortage of perhaps $14,000; this will be made good at once.

Beat Noney Banks. HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 6.—Bicyclist Zimmerman went half a mile today in 1:01 4-5, beating all bicycle records and that of Noney Banks.

GAZE THEM AWAY.

Street Superintendent Henderson's force began the work of grading the sidewalk on Haywood street near Patton avenue this morning. As soon as this work is completed the putting down of a concrete sidewalk will begin.

"Me mamma says we can't play with you 'cause you have the mumps." "Ah, go on! 'Tain't so, for I give 'em to Sammy Gibbs day afore yistday."

The Bottom is Out.
