GEN. STEVENSON HERE

THE DISTINGUISHED DEMOCRAT ARRIVES THIS AFTERNOON.

MET BY ASHEVILLIANS AT HOT SPRINGS.

ALL READY FOR TOMORROW'S SPEAKING.

It is safe to predict that when Gen. Adlai Ewing Stevenson, a grandson of the Old North State, leaves Asheville tomorrow afternoon he will carry with him memories of the good people of Asheville and Western North Carolina that will abide long after he has served his term in the vice-presidential chair.

The General, as is already well known, will speak in Asheville tomorrow, the Farmers' warehouse being the place chosen for the delivery of the address, and there is every indication of one of the largest crowds that has ever gathered in Asheville.

It will be a gala day, indeed, for the Democracy of Western North Carolina. But it must not be imagined that the occasion is exclusively for Democrats. People of every party—Democrats, Republicans, Prohibitionists, Third Parties, Mugwumps—all, individually and collectively, are invited to attend and assist in making the distinguished visitor's reception the event of the year.

Met at Hot Springs. The Asheville delegation to meet Gen. Stevenson left this morning on the 9 o'clock train. Among the delegation were: Maj. C. M. Stedman, C. T. Rawls, J. D. Murphy, W. R. Gwyn, I. E. Bacon, Geo. W. Tilton, Col. Frank Cox, J. S. Grant, John Hampton, G. S. Powell and Lewis Maddux.

The delegation stopped at Hot Springs, as a wait of two hours had to be made for the eastbound train, but at 12:30 promptly it came scudding into the station at Hot Springs. There was a large crowd of people present, and although the train stopped for only a moment, Gen. Stevenson came upon the platform and a shout went up from almost every throat.

Mr. Stevenson's Party. Gen. Stevenson's party consists of four persons: Gen. Stevenson, Mrs. Stevenson, Chas. A. Ewing, of Beaufort, Ill., a cousin of Gen. Stevenson, and Maunton H. Luther, the representative of the United Press and the Chicago Herald.

The trip to Asheville was occupied in handshaking and getting acquainted. At Marshall there was a good crowd gathered at the depot, and Gen. Stevenson appeared again on the platform for a moment, and another shout went up.

In Asheville. When the train pulled into the depot at Asheville all available space was occupied by an eager throng, anxious to see the next vice-president, among them Hon. W. T. Crawford and Hon. Kope Elias.

Miss Ella Brandt presented to Gen. Stevenson a handsome bouquet as he alighted from the train.

Mrs. Stevenson was taken to the Battery Park by Col. Frank Cox in his private carriage, while Gen. Stevenson and the remainder of his party were taken to the hotel in carriages by the committee.

The Evening's Program. At 5 o'clock this afternoon a committee composed of Maj. C. M. Stedman, C. T. Rawls, W. B. Gwyn, J. D. Murphy and J. P. Kerr will take Gen. Stevenson and party for a ride around the city, returning about 6:30. From 7 till 10 o'clock this evening Gen. Stevenson will hold an informal reception in the parlors at Battery Park.

Gen. Stevenson is a large, fine looking man, strikingly like his published pictures, and very quiet in his manner, and will make acquaintances quickly. Mrs. Stevenson is a vivacious, motherly little woman, and is proud of her distinguished husband.

Paint Rocks' Welcome. As soon as the train bearing Gen. Stevenson crossed the line dividing North Carolina and Tennessee, his car was entered by H. M. Swain, F. N. Tiddy, R. H. Bost, E. A. Fry and W. T. Ray, a committee, who presented to him the following welcome:

"The Paint Rock Cleveland and Stevenson club most cordially welcomes you to North Carolina. We wish you a pleasant and successful stay in the 'Old North State' and assure you of our loyal support."

State Committee Represented. Hon. Paul B. Means, of Cabarrus county, joined the Asheville reception committee and met General Stevenson on behalf of the State committee.

Marshals of the Day. Col. A. H. Baird, chief marshal for tomorrow, has appointed the following aides: N. T. Chambers, J. T. Sevier, N. A. Reynolds, F. Sikeleather, Geo. S. Powell, Weldon Williamson, G. H. Gallaher, W. L. Walker, J. A. Porter.

Stevenson at Hickory. A letter to THE CITIZEN from Hickory states that the Democrats of Catawba county are preparing to give Gen. Stevenson a warm reception tomorrow evening as he passes through Hickory. Democratic clubs in uniform will be there from the surrounding towns and a great display of fireworks will be set off. It is expected that Gen. Stevenson will make a short address while there.

New Sidewalks. Asheville is now getting sidewalks as she should have in the business portion. Within the past two weeks cement sidewalks have been laid on North Main street, court place and Patton avenue. The good work is now being prosecuted on North Court place. That portion of the sidewalk put down by the city has been done by E. T. Belote under contract.

THE LYCEUM

Dr. Mayer Leads the Discussion Last Evening. The Lyceum opened at 8 o'clock to a minute last evening. Dr. G. H. Mayer read an interesting paper, taking the ground that this country's laws of punishment were retaliatory. He thought they should be reparative. "If one is injured," he said, "in person or property, the aggressor should be made to work out the penalty for the offense. For minor offenses this could easily be done, and would render the punishment more effective for the criminal as well as the 'lookers on.' The address will be printed in full in the Lyceum magazine.

H. B. Stevens argued that the laws were not based on revenge or retaliation, but had come down from wise men and with the experience of the ages.

Maj. T. C. Westall led off into temperance as the greatest cause of the violation of law and held individuals liable for the wrong of license, thus making lawful the source of all crimes, or the far greater portion of them.

Maj. W. H. Malone followed in defence of the present laws on the same lines as Mr. Stevens.

Thimur R. Gimes thought as these men had shown that the severities of punishment had lessened, it was a good reason for signing out the past, beginning on a clear sheet of paper to write new laws; in a word to have a new creation, with everything new and perfect.

Mr. Gimes quoted Herbert Spencer whose banner Col. L. M. Hatch said he would never follow: he preferring rather the teaching of the young man of Palestine who said: "Love your neighbor as yourself," than Spencer's highest flight when he said: "Finally, the end of the whole matter is this, 'treat yourself as well as you are able and the other fellows as well as the rest.'"

Col. Hatch looked for nothing from below, from the rabble, arguing that all good must come from above. "Intemperance," he said, "will cease when it is felt that ladies are in earnest to have it do so. History means something; the study of the past worth. Nations improve gradually. The French revolutionary methods are not wanted for America; rather the colonial experience of the fathers improved upon as we feel our way onward and upward."

The Lyceum hall was bright with ladies, some of whom took part.

Judge C. E. Penner will talk two weeks hence, and Miss Helen M. Lewis, on the subject, "The Drama of Romeo and Juliet," the week following. Dr. W. C. Browning and Maj. Chas. M. Stedman looked for addresses later on.

A FREE EIGHT.

A Mob of Republicans Have a Monks and Parrot Time.

SALISBURY, N. J., Sept. 14.—The First Congressional district Republican convention opened here this morning, with a free fight. The little hall in which the convention was held holds five hundred people, and as there are 405 delegates the space for spectators was somewhat limited.

Just before the convention came to order the Young Republicans club, a Bergen organization from Camden, appeared at the doors and demanded admission, which was refused. When the clubists and torches they tried to batter down the doors. The guards and delegates attempted to prevent them and a free fight ensued. Clubs, fists and torches were freely used and the wildest disorder reigned. Assemblyman Cole, of Camden, shouted for fair play, saying the club had been assaulted and refused admission. His voice was drowned in a shower of cat-calls and shrieks. After Cole had subsided, Recorder of Deeds Camden arose and made an appeal for order. Although the speaker for opening the convention was fixed at 11, the convention at 12:30 had not been called to order, the confusion being so great it was impossible to organize. At 12:40 six United States Senator Cuttell succeeded in obtaining a semblance of order, and J. H. Hill of Cape May was made temporary chairman and Augustus Barber and John Evans secretaries. Then a recess was taken till 2 o'clock.

MRS. HARRISON'S CONDITION.

It is Still Critical According to the Doctor's Testimony.

LOOK LAKE HOUSE, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Doctors P. E. Gardner, of Washington, F. E. Dougherty, of New York, and E. L. Trudeau, had a consultation at the President's cottage this morning in regard to the case of Mrs. Harrison and at its close issued the following statement of her condition:

"Primary disease, pulmonary tuberculosis of right side, associated with nervous prostration; recent complication, sub-acute pleurisy, with rapid effusion of water in right chest, necessitating two tapplings, with some relief; present condition critical on account of tendency to reproduce fluid, removal to Washington at present impossible; pronostication as to immediate future uncertain."

Too Little Water; Too Much Rain.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 14.—Shortly after 2 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the large building of the Union Transfer and Storage company, (owing to an inadequate water supply and the fierce wind, the fire binding with its contents, which consisted of an immense stock of agricultural implements, was wholly destroyed. Twelve freight cars were burned. The loss is estimated at $200,000; insurance unknown.

The Ethiopia Disabled.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The British steamer Scandinavia, Captain Secomb, from Boston, September 3, for Glasgow, arrived at Greenock today. She reports that on September 10 she met the Anchor line steamer Ethiopia, Capt. Wilson from Glasgow, September 1, for New York, returning to Clyde with engines disabled. Afterwards the Scandinavian spoke the Anchor line steamer Farnesia going to assistance of the Ethiopia.

Calls Himself Dictator.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Another of the Central American republics seems on the brink of political disruption. The State department is informed today by telegraph from San Jose, Costa Rica, that President Rodriguez has declared himself dictator in that country. Several political arrests have been made and great excitement prevails.

FIRE ISLANDERS FIRED

TREPPASSERS FROM ISLIP FRIGHTENED AWAY. The Troops and Flower's Staff Upper Lip Did It—The Governor of New York is Certainly a Honesty—The Injunction Vacated.

FIRE ISLAND, N. Y., Sept. 14.—From all indications the baymen's little war is over. The prompt action of Governor Flower has quelled the disturbance. The State has asserted its rights over its newly acquired property and the Normannia passengers are now at last quartered in the Surf hotel, after an experience in quarantine that will live with them for years. The troops arrived at noon and their presence demonstrated to the clam diggers that further resistance was useless; so when intelligence was received that the supreme court had vacated the injunction, nothing remained for them except to permit the health officers to peacefully land the Normannia's passengers who had passed the night on the Cepheus.

That's the Staff!

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The visitors to Governor Flower's room in the Windsor, yesterday afternoon, suggested to him that his ordering out the troops might lose him some votes on Long Island. He replied: "I don't care a cent for the votes, but I am going to put down the law-breakers and put the State in the possession of its property."

Straight From the Shoulder.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—In reply to an offer of men from Islip yesterday to withdraw the injunction if the governor would promise to sell the Surf hotel, Gov. Flower sent this telegram:

"Your dispatch received and your proposition declined. The conduct of the people of Islip in refusing to shelter the passengers to the Normannia and in attempting by force to prevent their landing on the State property is a disgrace to our commonwealth. The State accepts no terms from law-breakers, except submission to its authority. Your proposition is an insult to the executive and to the State."

The Troops all at Sea.

FIRE ISLAND, Sept. 14.—A heavy southeast storm prevailed here all night and the sea ran very high. Nothing has been seen of the steam boat Pegasus with the troops and naval reserves. It would be dangerous for her to attempt to enter the bay if she comes down. The Cepheus is still anchored in the channel. The Normannia's passengers are all quartered at the Surf hotel. Murmurs of dissatisfaction with the food are heard. All is quiet; no troops have arrived here yet.

He Strikes a Democrat on a Train—A Challenge May Follow.

AGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 12.—Tom Watson came here today from Thomson to debate the issues with his opponent, Black. On the train, Frank Jordan, a Sparta Democrat, remarked in Watson's hearing:

"Watson is a traitor. He was elected as a Democrat and sold out to the Republicans."

"You're—a liar!" shouted Watson, and, springing to his feet, he struck Jordan three times under the ear, drawing blood. Jordan aimed a blow at Watson, but the crowd interposed and separated them. The friends of the two men went for their pistols and knives, but there were women in the car and the row was quieted. Jordan, it is thought, will challenge Watson, but as the latter has declined one challenge on the ground that he is opposed to duelling, it is believed he will not accept.—N. Y. World.

Wants to Fight Corbett.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Harrison Nickerson publishes a challenge to James J. Corbett to fight to a finish at any time and place in this State the latter may desire. Nickerson, who was born in Chemung county, is a woodsman on the west branch of the Susquehanna river. He is six feet 6½ inches tall, weighs 135 pounds and is twenty-eight years of age. He offers to fight for any amount not to exceed $50,000. He says he has sparred with Sullivan and Corbett.

A Dead Lock Broken.

BEDFORD, Pa., Sept. 14.—The Republican conference of the Twentieth Congressional district yesterday nominated J. D. Hicks, of Altoona on the 232nd ballot, thus ending one of the most hotly contested Congressional conference contests in the history of the State. A dead-lock resulted from an attempt to force the re-nomination of Congressman Seale.

Not Likely.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Sept. 14.—The health officer of this city says he received telephonic information from Ada, Hardin county, last evening saying that a train load of passengers on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road was quarantined there with ten cases of cholera on board. The doctor says he regards the report as untrue.

The Kaiser May Come to Our Fair.

BERLIN, Sept. 13.—Emperor William has granted an audience to Mr. William Steinway. During the course of conversation the Emperor said that it is by no means impossible that he will pay a visit to Chicago during the progress of the World's Fair.

Death of An Ossified Man.

LEWISTON, N. Y., Sept. 12.—John K. Bass, the celebrated ossified man, died early this morning, aged about 50 years. The ossification had spread to the heart. He arrived home from a tour on Saturday morning.

Wont Plead for Mrs. Maybrick.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Home Secretary Arquith has replied to the petition in behalf of Mrs. Maybrick declining to advise the Queen to interfere with the prisoner's sentence.

It's a Girl.

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—The Empress gave birth to a daughter yesterday morning to the Palace at Potsdam. This is the seventh child born to the Emperor and Empress.

Antimigraine

THE NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE

Absolutely Safe, Perfectly Sure, and Always Speedy.

Cures Every Variety of Headache

AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE

Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, headache. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear of serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.
