Prior to Senator Hill's speech the usual esolutions were presented and adopted. Besides pledging the support of Kings county Democrats to the ticket, it attacked several measures advocated by the Republicans.

Hill's description of President Harrison,s message as an ingenious article, his refutation of the statistics of Comnissioner Peck's now famous report. and his treatment of the force bill caused perfect storm of applause.

Excitement in the audience was noticeable as the senator drew toward the close of his address. He had spoken for over an hour, and not once had he men ioned the name of Cleveland. Excitement increased as Senator Hill stated that the old guard would do its duty, and a perfect hurricane of ap-plause, yells and cheers broke forth when be closed with the names of "Cleveland and Stevenson." He came by way of the Michigan Central. Those customs officials across the border spotted that hairy trunk with its flaming labels as soon as they saw it. It had a suspicious and dangerous appearance. They jerked it from the baggage car, bored holes in the trunk, and squirted it full of a solution of carbolic acid. Then a baggage hauler brought Mr. Thacher's trunk to the Audtorium. His clothes were ruifed. His new fall suits were spotted where the acid struck them,-N. Y. Sun,

Much for ex Judge Russell. WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 20.-The Star today publishes an interview with ex-Judge and ex Congressman Daniel L. Russell, in which he says the white Republicans of Eastern North Carolina will not support the Eaves ticket, but will support the People's ticket. He also says if it should appear that the colored vote will go solidly for the Eaves ticket. the white Republicans will advise the People's party to withdraw their ticket and appeal to all white men to vote the Democratic ticket.

Carry the State Triumphantly and Gives His Reasons. GOMBROON, Sept. 17 Wade H. Harris, Editor Charlotte News DEAR SIR: In answer to your kind letter of inquiry concerning my health and my opinion of the political situation, give you this brief note. I am recovering my health slowly bu juite surely and uninterruptedly. Every samples of brick were submitted to the day I feel stronger, my appetite is good my digestion perfect and I sleep like just man and a Democrat. This glori ous mountain air and the quiet of the wooded highlands have been of inestimable benefit to me. Though I shall most likely not be able to take any part in the campaign as a speaker. I hope I shall e quite well enough to resume my du ies as Senator when Congress meets.

For the first time in my political life t quietly at home and listen to the dis ant roar of a great conflict of American freemen in the process of selecting their rulers. To sit still and give no blow is a movel sensation to me, but it may be that as my blood is not heated by the strife I can see things more clearly and judge more accurately; and this is my opinio of the contest | the Democrats will carry the State triumphantly. The average practical and patriotic, and notwith-standing the present discord and confuion in our ranks, before he votes he wil eason it out that by voting for the Third party candidates he will probably help throw our State into the hands of the negroes and scalawags, and elect a Re-publican President and House of Repre sentatives, whilst her own cherished re forms would be undefinitely postponed There is no other view a sensible man can take. Our people will proveequal to the occasion now as heretofore.

Yours very truly, Z. B. Vance.

Close of a Very Agreeable and In GREENSBORO, Sept. 19,-The convention of the W. C. T. U. closed Saturday night after three days of conference. All agree in pronouncing the tenth annual convention, just closed, the finest session yet held in the history of the North Carolina W. C. T. U. The election of officers as held Saturday afternoon resulted as follows: Mrs. Mary C. Woody, president;

The Southern Assembly at Waynesville

The reports of all committees were read on Saturday. The resolution on Keeley cures brought forth a round of applause. The resolution was as follows Resolved, that we express our sympathy and interest in Keelev cures, pray ing meantime that they may be used i the hands of providence for aiding in th destruction of the liquor traffic, by presenting an object lesson, showing the in-consistency of our government in licensing a business that necessitates the establishment of institutions for the heal ing of its victims."

Several invitations were extended to the convention in 1893, but the decisio as to place of meeting, was left to the ex ecutive meeting. Hopes are entertained that session will be held at Waynesville just preceding the Assembly of next vear. Greensboro deserves the palm for most perfect preparatory arrangements for er tertainment of the convention. The dec orations were beautiful in the extreme and every wish seemed anticipated as to convenience. Bountiful lunches were served daily, in the basement of the church, to prevent the hurry of returning to the homes for mid-day meal.
