A FIGHT OVER POLITICS

J. M. EDWARDS DANGEROUSLY HURT.

William Cowan, with a knife, stabbed Edwards several times—Cowan arrested—Edwards improving today.

J. M. Edwards, commonly known in Asheville as "Jock," and William Cowan had a fight Saturday evening about 8 o'clock, as a result of which Edwards now lies in a dangerous condition and Cowan is in jail.

Edwards and Cowan became engaged in a discussion on politics, while standing on the front piazza of the Glen Rock hotel. Edwards is known to be a republican Democrat, while Cowan is strongly opposed to the cause of Republicanism.
Cowan, it is said, had been drinking and was well nigh drunk.

The discussion became heated, and Edwards suddenly saw blows exchanged between the men. Edwards knocked Cowan backward, but he recovered his equilibrium and sprang upon Edwards striking him in the side, neck and breast rapidly. It was thought that the men were fighting with their fists, until some of the witnesses to the fight, running up to stop the trouble, saw Edwards stagger and fall, while blood flowed from wounds made in his abdomen and neck.

Edwards was cut nearly a dozen times, several of the wounds penetrating the bowels. He was taken to a room in the Glen Rock and as soon as possible Drs.
W. D. Hilliard, M. H. Fletcher and Chas.
Jordan were at his side.

Cowan was arrested by Sheriff Can-field of Madison county, who was near the scene of the trouble. The sheriff turned his prisoner over to Patrolman John J. Noland, who took him to jail.
On the way to the jail Cowan remarked that he had been cut, and showed the officer a slight scratch on the arm.

The knife with which Cowan did the cutting is a double-bladed, woodcutting knife, with a narrow two-and-a-half inch blade. It is covered with blood.

About the Men.

Edwards, the wounded man, has lived in Asheville several years, occupying for several months past, with his family, a house on Depot street. He was for a number of years employed as an engineer on the Western North Carolina railroad, and later as conductor of his latest work in the railroad service being that of car-master at Asheville. For months past he has been out of the employ of the railroad company.

Cowan is a farmer, living at the home of his father, James Cowan, five miles west of Asheville. He is considered a loud character when drinking. Four years ago he was implicated in the killing of a negro in this city. He was given a trial, resulting in a verdict of not guilty.

Edwards' Condition.

The wounded man, it was feared, would not long survive, but his radical and this afternoon his condition gives hopes of his recovery. He is still at the Glen Rock, and no one but the physicians and attendants are allowed to see him.

Another Cutting.

A few minutes after the Edwards-Cowan affray, Jos. Johnson, a white drayman, was standing between the Glen Rock and the brick store building near, when some person ran up, cut at him several times and made his escape.
Johnson was cut in the side, but the wound was not serious, although Johnson thought at first he was fatally hurt.
Dr. W. D. Hilliard attended to Johnson's wounds. He is believed by some that the cutting was done by a friend of Cowan, as Johnson was an eye witness of the fight with Edwards, and aided in the detention of Cowan.

GEN EWING HERE

Spends Sunday With Maj. Steed man at Oakland Heights.

Gen. Chas. Adlai Ewing, one of the Stevenson party, spent Sunday in Asheville at the Oakland Heights, the guest of Maj. Chas. M. Steedman, and left this morning for Tennessee.

Gen. Ewing said that the revolution given Gen. Stevenson and party in every portion of North Carolina could not have been surprised by any people on earth, and was fully expected. He says there is no doubt of a decided Democratic majority in North Carolina, judging from all he saw and heard.

Gen. Stevenson has gone to Virginia to make three or four speeches and from Virginia he goes to Indiana.

Gen. Ewing has information of the most encouraging nature from the Northwestern States. The news from that section points to an overwhelming Democratic triumph.

Gentlemen who heard Gen. Ewing's speech at Raleigh spoke of his address at that place in the highest terms and says it caused great enthusiasm.

LUTHERAN SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Organized Yesterday Afternoon With Fifty Members.

A Lutheran Sunday school was organized yesterday afternoon in Plentie's hall, corner Woodfin street and Central avenue. G. U. Bell was elected superintendent, Dr. G. O. Roberts secretary and treasurer, and Miss Overcash organist.
The school had a flattering beginning, fifty students being enrolled. Sunday school exercises will be held every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in this hall.
This school is a result of the recent visit of Rev. Dr. F. W. E. Peschou, and the organization of a Lutheran church, Dr.
Peschou will return to Asheville Wednesday and preach in the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening.

Games of Baseball.

The proceeds of the baseball game to be played at the race track tomorrow afternoon, by the R. & D. club and a picked Asheville nine, are to go to the Asheville Flower mission. Go out and witness the sport. Admission 25 cents; carriages free.

The Buncombe-Mars Hill game will be played at the race track Wednesday afternoon.

New Cardinals.

PARIS, Sept. 26.—It is rumored that Archbishop Corrigan of New York and Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, Minn., will be made cardinals at the coming papal consistory.

DR. SMITH'S CONDITION

He is improving and in a cheerful mood.

Hon. Kope Elias kindly writes Tan-Crisis from Franklin, under date of Sept. 23, as follows:

"Professor Smith is not regarded as being in a dangerous condition. There are no bones broken and the opinion of his physician is that there is no dislocation of the hip joint, which seems to be the seat of his trouble.

"While he is a great sufferer, it is traceable to the bruises received in the fall from his horse and the exposure while lying out in the mountain after he received his injuries. He looks well, and under the circumstances is cheerful."

SERMON ON PROHIBITION

REV. J. Q. ADAMS AT THE FRENCH BROAD CHURCH.

"The Moderate Drinking Church Members are Doing More to Sustain Bars Than the Drunkards," He Says

It having been announced that Rev. J.
Q. Adams, pastor of French Broad Epistalian church, would preach Sunday morning on "Temperance," 11 o'clock found the auditorium nearly filled with a congregation eager to hear the discourse.

In the closing sentences of his invoca-

BASEBALL.

MADISON CO. VS. BUNCOMBE CO.

Probably the most closely contested and the most interesting game of the season will be played at the Carrier race track next Wednesday afternoon at 3 p. m. Mars Hill has challenged the entire state and the Buncombe boys will have a chance to show their superiority over all. The successful club in the contest will challenge the famous club of Shelby, which game will probably close the baseball season in this state. The winning club in Wednesday's contest will receive fifty dollars of the gate receipts and the losing club will receive twenty-five dollars. The excellent reputation of the Mars Hill team and the known fact that Buncombe is hard to beat will no doubt make the contest a very exciting one and will draw a large crowd.

ANTIMIGRAINE

Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, headache. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as Antipyrine, Morphine, Chloro- form and Cocaine.

since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear of serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimi-graine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.
