WHY WEAVER BACKED OUT

HE FOUND TOO FEW THIRD
PARTYITES IN GEORGIA.

Only One Egg Was Thrown at Him, and He Did Not Appear in Atlanta at All—Posing as a Martyr.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 28.—W. Y. Alkinson, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Georgia, says, in reply to the published address of Gen.
Weaver and various special telegrams which have been sent out from Georgia by Mrs. Lease:

"According to his own admission, Gen. Weaver received a respectful hearing at Waycross and Columbus. At Waycross his speech was listened to by several hundred people, and no effort whatever was made to prevent his speaking.
A prominent negro of that place at the conclusion of Weaver's speech, took the stand to relate what he had said and stated that he had backed Weaver and the Third party. Weaver was so indignant that a negro should attempt to answer him that he immediately left the platform.
The only possible foundation for the greatly exaggerated egg story spread throughout Georgia at Macon and Mrs.
Lease, is that a small boy, in an open air dance at Macon, threw an egg and he was promptly arrested and punished for it."

As to Mrs. Lease's statement that "disgraceful scenes at Macon were repeated twice in the presence of the Governor in Georgia at the State capital," Atkinson says: "General Weaver or Mrs.
Lease did not appear as advertised in Atlanta. They would not go up to the capitol where a large crowd had assembled to hear them. Governor Northern himself, hearing that Weaver would not speak, went to insure him a hearing, and the meeting by vote guaranteed that he would be respectfully listened to. I called on the chairman of the executive committee of the People's party of the State, early in the evening, to extend him this guarantee, and he told me that Weaver had made up his mind not to speak. His claim of persecution is nothing more than an over-worked effort to pose as a martyr. His statements are cunningly devised for campaign purposes. He did not want to speak in Atlanta. He cancelled his engagements in Georgia because he saw that he had been impaled upon the own party managers who had had him to believe that there was a chance in the People's party in Georgia. He found that such was not the case, and was greatly disappointed by his visit here and was glad to get out of the State.
While here he did not conceal his champaign and disappointment, evidenced by the weakness of his party in the State.
Georgia will go Democratic next Wednesday by from forty to fifty thousand majority."

A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

Campbell and Davis Make a Fine Start in Upper Hominy.

A Democratic victory was won at Upper Hominy yesterday by Campbell and Davis as an opening for this senatorial district. Mr. Campbell opened the question of county finance and made a strong appeal to Buncombe county Democrats to review the history of both parties, showing the advantages of Democracy over Republicanism. He reviewed the good done by the Democratic party in obtaining good schools and give-ing relief to the blind, deaf and dumb.
He explained how the tariff operates to make the rich man richer and the poor man poorer, and to take from the man of small means to give to the capitalists as shown by the workings of the McKinley bill, under the shadow of which the great American trusts are now prospering. He urged all Buncombe men to take the warning in time. Mr.
Campbell's speech was interrupted many times by the cheers of the crowd and much good was done by him in strengthening Democracy and gaining new votes in that section.

Mr. Davis endorsed all Campbell had said in a strong and pointed speech, and denounced the force bill with sharp logical arguments. Mr. Davis is a fine reasoner and his arguments showed plainly how much Democracy had done for the good of the country, and how hard Republicanism was trying to undermine all it had done.

The replies of Ferguson and Shook were weak and lacking in force and reason. When Campbell was asked to reply to these speeches he said they had said nothing to reply to.

At the closing of the speeches there was given to Messrs. Campbell and Davis fine bouquets.

ABOUT THE CHURCHES

Asheville Can Keep up With Charlotte in This Line.

Tuesday's Charlotte Observer contains this interrogation:
"What other place in the State can boast of four new churches built, to be built, or in process of building, in two years' time?"

It is not Asheville's style to "boast," but she can "show" the Observer on its question. Asheville has built within the time specified, the First Baptist church, one of the finest in the State, Southside Presbyterian church, Bethel M. E. church, South, and the West End Baptist mission.
Besides these, Riverside church, and the First Methodist church have been re-modeled, the Central church congregation is soon to build a new church, while the new Lutheran congregation is now raising funds for the erection of a church here.
This is the list, Mr. Observer, and THE CITIZEN is glad to give it.

WILL RE-ELECT HIM

How a San Diego Paper Speaks of Gen. Johnstone Jones.

The San Diego, Cal., San Diegoan, has this to say, editorially, that will be of interest to the Asheville friends of the gentleman mentioned.

"The Democracy of San Diego county has shown its appreciation of the faithful and efficient services of Gen. Jones, district attorney of this county, by re-nominating him for that important office by a majority that must have been prejudicial to that honorable gentleman and faithful public servant."
"More than this, we can say that the Democrats of this county, aided by the numerous Republicans who feel that his services for the taxpayers should be rewarded, will see to it that General Johnstone Jones is re-elected to the office he has filled with such unflinching integrity and unswerving fidelity to duty."

NO STEP BACKWARD

Watterson Satisfied With Cleveland's Letter.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 28.—Watterson praises Cleveland's letter in the following short leader:
"The letter of acceptance which Cleveland sends out, is a calm, conservative document. He takes no step backward upon the great issue of tariff reform, but argues the question in a thoroughly statesmanlike way upon the line laid down by the Chicago platform. In this regard he leaves nothing to be misinterpreted or misconstrued. His treatment of the money question, federal election question and pension question is equally moderate, and appeals to both the good sense and good feeling of the people."

A Desperado at Large.

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 28.—Comodore

NEXT GOVERNOR IS HERE

CARR AND OSBORNE ARE IN ASHEVILLE.

They Arrive on the Murphy Train and Mr. Carr Begins Speaking at 3:30 p. m.—Osborne to Speak at 8 o'clock.

Elias Carr and Frank I. Osborne arrived in the city today on the train from Waynesville and Mr. Carr spoke in the court house this afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. Osborne will speak at the court house at 8 o'clock this evening. Let every Democrat attend.

The Third party in this vicinity being very considerably out of sight, it has not been an easy matter to learn anything about the program for the speaking tomorrow. Gen. J. B. Field, candidate for Vice-Presidential honors, Exam, who would be Governor, and Butler, aspirant for election as elector-at-large, were booked for speeches here sometime tomorrow, but it is learned this afternoon that Fixum cannot be here. Butler came in this afternoon from Waynesville, where he spoke this afternoon. He says the speeches will begin at 11 o'clock.
Field will arrive this afternoon on the Spartanburg train. The speaking will occur in the court house, and one of the hearers will be R. D. Glenn, Democratic candidate for elector-at-large, who will reply to Mr. Butler.

The bell will ring for the notification of all who may wish to attend.

CANADAY LEFT A NOTE.

In It He Said He was Not Guilty of Wrong.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—There was found on W. P. Canaday's desk after his death the following note to Miss Moore, a young lady from North Carolina, whom he visited Monday night:

"My Dear Friend: I am not guilty of any wrong. You may trust in me. People who are persecuting me are worse than I am. He is a villain of the very largest. God bless you always, is the last prayer of your true friend.

Canaday, according to a gentleman who knew him well and is himself a leader of the white Republican party in North Carolina, was by nature fitted for an adventurous career in politics and in business, and his history shows that the statement is well founded.

He had an elegant home in Wilmington, N. C., and this property and his other possessions were all mortgaged in an attempt to keep afloat. On the National creosote company he lost a great deal of money. The last appearance he made in politics was at the Minneapolis convention.
