AN OPEN LETTER.

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 29, 1892.
To our Friends and Patrons:
I arrived here Friday and had New York as busy as ever. The cholera scare is about over. The people say they have not time to stop and think about it, and feel that there is no danger in fact there is none. When I first arrived I began to look about on the corners and upon the little houses to see if I could find the house return. When my search was in vain I at once came to the conclusion that I would not fall a victim to it. I consulted myself and continued on in my search for that extra large stock of fine China, Glasgow, Lamps, bric-a-brac and all kinds of House Goods. I will bring back with me. My search has not been fruitless. In all my visits to the market I have never seen so many beautiful things and cheap. You can buy them way down. The cholera fright has kept the buyers out of town, they are coming in now, but I was first to grasp the bargains. See! Will tell you more about these goods when I return. Don't buy anything this year until you see our line. Will be double of any previous year. Our store will be made larger and handsomer and a new system established altogether. Wait and see, and possibly prices will be below New York retail prices. With best wishes to all, I subscribe.

Your friend,
THAD W. THRASH.

SENATORIAL CANDIDATES

MESSRS. CAMPBELL, DAVIS AND SHOOK.

These Three Speak Here, But "Uncle Tommy" Ferguson Gets Enough and Does Not Appear—Shook Will Vote the Third Party Ticket.

The banner of Democracy is in front of the battle line and sons of whom she will be proud are rallying rank and file to the support of the grand old standard. Following the magnificent efforts of Glenn and Curry on yesterday came the telling speeches today of Campbell and Davis, the Democratic Senatorial candidates of the 32d district. For the past three days our Jack and Joe Davis have been campaigning in joint discussion with Shook and Ferguson, the radical candidates, and the work has been so effective that "Uncle Tommy" Ferguson, jumped his appointment here today and took to the woods. The Big Two are in the fight with the persistence of deerhounds and are pushing their discouraged and discomfited opponents to stinging, certain defeat.

At 11 o'clock Mr. Campbell announced the departure of Mr. Ferguson and introduced J. S. Davis as the next Senator from Haywood.

Mr. Davis presented the issues of the campaign clearly and forcibly and pledged himself, if elected, to the faithful and honest care of the welfare of the constituency. He contrasted the known reckless extravagance of the Republicans when in control of the State affairs with the wise economy of the Democratic administration; he claimed for the election laws the utmost impartiality and freedom, and exposed the fallacies of his opponents on their shallowness and insincerity.

Mr. Davis said he would not go into an exhaustive argument on the tariff, but gave some figures showing the hardships put upon the people by a protective tariff. The administrations of Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison were so strongly contrasted as to leave no doubt as to which was the better for the people of the whole country.

The speaker exposed an argument made yesterday by Shook, holding the Democrats responsible for the Buncombe county road law. "Sprinkle, your renegade," he said, "was in the last legislature, and he did not oppose that road law, so if you hold the Democrats responsible for this law, you must also hold responsible the Republicans."

Shook's Song.
Henry Clay Shook was introduced by Mr. Campbell, as an orator who would expound the Republican cause. Shook "sang" and he declared first of all that he was not the kind of man who would ridicule a man because that man would not vote with the party to which he belonged. Shook's speech was a song straight through. He had the thing in his head and let it off mechanically, stopping only to read Republican figures from a red-inked book called "The Pocket Cyclopaedia of Protection" issued by the New York Press. Shook and his book denied that the American manufacturer was a scoundrel and rogue, as asserted (so Shook and his book, and no one else said) by the Democrats.

The McKinley law, sang Shook, was all right. "The effect of that bill," he said, "was to raise the wages of the laborers. And the price of pork has gone up, so that the bill puts into the pockets of the farmer the money that they have been heretofore defrauded out of."

Shook attacked the North Carolina Payne election law, and the county government system. "We claim," he said, "that this law should be abolished and the people allowed to elect their own magistrates."

The Buncombe road law was attacked next. Shook said he was not a citizen of Buncombe, but he had heard lots of complaint in this county about this law. "It," he said, "is an chosen as your representative, I pledge myself to work for the repeal of the county government system and the road law."

"Jack" Campbell's Hot Shots.
There was some applause when Shook concluded, but it was a molehill beside a mountain compared to the cheering that went up when Mr. Campbell arose. "Jack" proceeded to go for the Republican party and Shook and Ferguson "bald-headed." "Why, Shook," he said, "they don't expect to elect you, and you know it. You are running for the Senate and getting a salary for it, and Uncle Tommy Ferguson is on the ticket because he has the money to put into the campaign."

Mr. Campbell put a question to Shook, inquiring if the paper of which he was associate editor, the Citizen Register, is not advocating the election of a Democratic judge, and if he (Shook) would not vote the Third party ticket in Haywood. Shook replied in the affirmative, and looked considerably uncomfortable.

T. L. Leatherwood, colored, rosin the audience and fired this question at Mr. Campbell: "If the colored men should not vote for Mr. Shook and Mr. Ferguson, who should they vote for?" Mr. Campbell instantly and good naturedly fired this response: "Why, vote for me, you goose." And the laugh was on Leatherwood.

The speaker talked on State politics and the treatment the Republican party gives the colored man. He said the party was glad enough to get their votes, but when they asked for even as small an office as that of letter carrier they are refused.

Mr. Campbell's speech was a rattling one all through, and he kept Shook on the rock constantly.

AT OLD FORT

Locke Craig Talks the Correct Stuff There Yesterday.

OLD FORT, N. C., Sept. 30.—The electoral candidates addressed the people of this place yesterday. Mr. Boggs of the Third party was absent and his place was filled by Col. J. G. Vance of Marion. There was a fair turnout.

Mr. Wells, Republican candidate, opened the discussion in a speech of forty-five minutes. He made an average Republican speech, giving the people no reason why they should vote his ticket. He is not to blame for this, however, as there is no reason why Mr. Harrison should be elected and every reason why he should be defeated. He said there was no difference between the two great

REPUBLICANS DIRTY WORK

GIGANTIC PLOT TO COLONIZE DOUBTFUL STATES.

Colored Voters to be Brought into New York, New Jersey and Indiana Given a Residence of 30 Days in Each Locality, and Voted in Blocks.

New York, Sept. 30.—Chairman Harry, of the Democratic National committee, announced yesterday that he had discovered evidence of a gigantic plot on the part of Republicans to colonize New York, New Jersey and Indiana with colored voters.

The evidence Harry said was so complete that he had wired the various county chairmen in the localities referred to stating full particulars and giving directions for checking the plot.

Harry is thoroughly convinced, he says, that the Republican committee through "Dave" Martin of Philadelphia has organized a plot to carry Indiana by frauds far more extensive than the famous "blocks of five" scheme worked in Indiana in 1888.

The locality selected in New Jersey for the centre of negro colonies is said to be at Rahway and the New Jersey state and county committee have been put on their guard. A strict watch will be kept on Martin and his co-laborers in the alleged plot to colonize voters, and if the scheme is persisted in the machinery of the law will be invoked to its fullest power.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

They Nominate Another Ticket to Bring Out a Big Vote.

New York, Sept. 30.—The county Democracy committee of thirty met last night and permanently organized for 1892. It was determined to nominate an independent city and county ticket. Speeches were made denouncing Tammany hall, intimating that Tammany was prepared to sell out the electoral ticket, and that in order to secure Cleveland's election, the campaign must be placed in the hands of his friends.

When Wm. C. Whitney was asked whether he favored this reply:

"It is an open question whether the entire Democratic vote of the city could be got out without a third ticket. I am not opposed to the running of a third ticket. If a local ticket is to be named, the fight is outright. Croker told me himself that it made no difference to him whatever. The only way it might hurt is in the country. There people believe that there is a lot of trading going on here and it might injure us in that way."

A POLITICAL CORPSE RICKS

South Carolina Republicans Resolve and Whine.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 30.—The Republican State convention adjourned at 5 a. m. today, after much frivolous discussion over small matters. A full set of electors was nominated.

Resolved that in view of the fact that a large majority of the Republican voters of the State have been deprived of their right to vote by the unjust operation of the registration and election laws of the State, we deem it advisable and inexpedient to make nomination for State officers, but we urge Republican voters in every part of the State to support the national ticket.

There has been no State Republican ticket since 1876, when Hampton beat Chamberlain for governor, and many delegates thought a State ticket should be put up to show that the party is not a corpse in South Carolina. The party leaders were against it and no ticket was nominated.

Cleveland in New York.

New York, Sept. 30.—Ex-President Cleveland arrived here on the Fall River line steamer Pilgrim this morning. About two hundred persons were on the pier to receive him. He was driven to the Victoria hotel. The first man who called was Wm. R. Grace. He had a long interview with the President.

Mr. Cleveland will remain here permanently except for a brief trip when he goes to bring his family back. Cleveland will stay at the Victoria hotel until his house at 12 West Fifty-first street is ready.

Not Going to Quit.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 30.—A rumor sent out from Pittsburgh that the Carnegie people had decided to discharge the non-union men at Homestead and close down the plant is emphatically denied by H. C. Frick.

TERRA HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 30.—The first heat for the tree-for-all pace, yesterday afternoon, was won by Mascot in 2:04, thus lowering the pacing record.

ANTIMIGRAINE

Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, headache. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear of serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, who ever known.
